ADVENTISTS TO HOLD
Fasting, Prayer
A day of fasting and prayer will be observed Saturday by Seventh-day Adventist of Medford and by their fellow church members around the world.
The pastors of the two valley churches, Elders John Trude and Arthur Wellman, said that the prayers of the church will center on the religious liberties of peoples everywhere.
"In many areas," they said,
"individual conscience is being stifled."
The ministers pointed out that in some countries all religions suffer persecution, in others there is a permissive attitude toward religions providing there is no attempt to carry on evangelistic endeavors, in still other countries life is made difficult for anyone not adhering to the state religion.

Commission Suggests
More Fried Fish
London—(AP)—An eight-man government commission, after studying the ailing British fishing industry for three years, today recommended that Britons eat more fried fish.
The committee said too much boiled or steamed fish was being served in institutions, including schools, and children were likely to acquire early a distaste for it.
