

Westminster Association Installs Officers for Year

Mrs. Scott Davis was installed president of Westminster Presbyterian Church Women's association at the December luncheon. She succeeds Mrs. Kenneth Denman.

Other officers installed by the Rev. John Reynolds were Mrs. John Dellenback, first vice president; Mrs. Don Auxler, second vice president; Mrs. Walter Hercher, secretary, and Mrs. Elbert Lenox, treasurer.

Circle chairmen installed were Mrs. Ted Hornecker, Elizabeth circle; Mrs. Ralph Hibbs, Martha; Mrs. Richard Wyatt, Esther, and Mrs. J. E. Olsen, Ruth.

Mrs. Auxler will be in charge of program; Mrs. Edwin Strother, world service; Mrs. H. D. Christensen, fellowship; Mrs. Earl Johnson, devotion; Mrs. Gordon Barker, maintenance and improvement; Mrs. Denman, nominations; Mrs. Laurel Case and Mrs. L. K. Doty, representatives to Council of Church Women; Mrs. Richard Card, nursery; Mrs. Lewis Ulrich, courtesy; Mrs. Garner T. Haupt, hospitality; Mrs. D. A. Hutchison, wedding reception; Mrs. Brian B. Mullen and Mrs. Hibbs, bazaar, and Mrs. William S. Cobb, publicity.

Mrs. Davis reminded the group that the family night dinner will be held Wednesday, January 18, at 7:30 p.m. in Fellowship hall of the church. Those attending are to bring a salad and hot dish. Child care will be provided during the dinner at 6:30 p.m. and the program at 7:30 o'clock.

The board of the association is planning a rummage sale for February 7 and 8.

A plaque designating the purpose of the association was presented by Mrs. Lenox. The Rev. Reynolds was honored at the meeting with the presentation of a golf jacket and golf shoes. They were presented by Mrs. Dellenback on behalf of the association.

New officers held their first meeting January 10 at the church.

Author Visits In Gold Hill

Gold Hill - Dr. Gordon C. Baldwin, Tucson, Ariz., recently visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Baldwin and his sister, Mrs. Joe Kavaleski at their homes on Maple Lane near Gold Hill.

During the past six years, Dr. Gordon has written numerous Western novels that have been published in America, England, Norway, and Sweden. He is a member of Western Writer's of America, and advertising manager for that group's magazine "The Roundup".

Dr. Gordon was formerly an archaeologist with the National Park service. He is a native Oregonian but has resided in Arizona most of the time since 1928.

Among his books are "Sundown Country", "Travel North", "Ambush Basin", and "Brand of Yuma".

Group to Mark 25th Anniversary

The auxiliary to Jackson County chapter, Disabled American Veterans auxiliary, will celebrate its 25th anniversary with a potluck dinner at the Girls' Community club, Monday, January 16, at 6:30 p.m.

Members of the chapter are also invited to attend the event.

Out of town visitors are expected for the occasion.

Congressman and Mrs. Edwin R. Durno of Medford will be among those attending the inauguration of President-elect John F. Kennedy in Washington this week. Mrs. Durno is pictured here in the living room of their East Main street home wearing one of the suits which she took with her to the capital. It is beige colored lace trimmed with a brown mink collar. Congressman and Mrs. Durno are living in an apartment hotel until they find permanent quarters.

Mrs. Frank Christian, Talent, will wear this blue and silver formal gown for the ball which will follow the inauguration of John F. Kennedy as president of the United States in Washington, D.C. Friday, January 20. The bodice is of silver brocade and the narrow, floor-length skirt and bodice accents are of royal blue velvet. Mrs. Christian will wear rhinestone necklace, earrings, bracelet and hair ornaments with the gown, and slippers with rhinestone heels. Mrs. Christian, who plans to attend all the gala events, packed a brown and green-striped tailored walking suit to wear for the formal inauguration, and a black fur-trimmed afternoon suit for the reception for distinguished ladies. Mrs. Christian and her husband have been active in the Democratic party for many years, and she is president of the Oregon Lion's auxiliary.
