Student Touring With Drama Group

Theodore Lawson, Medford student enrolled at the University of Kansas, Lawrence, is one of a group of drama students touring Kansas cities this month. The students will present a play in various Kansas schools in celebration of the state's centennial.

Young Lawson, a sophomore, is a drama major and has appeared in several university productions. His most recent role is one in the "Caucasian Chalk Circle" which is to be presented March 8-11. The play is described as a "paradoxical epic drama" with 92 characters.

The student was in Medford to spend the holidays with his parents, Dr. and Mrs. Earl Lawson, 301 Windsor avenue. Also a musician, the young man sang with a group which entertained audiences during the 1960 Oregon Shakespearean festival, Ashland.

Chosen

McLeod-Miss Jackie Hume, senior at Eagle Point High school, has been chosen Home-Maker of Tomorrow for her school in the Betty Crocker annual contest. Miss Hume is now eligible to compete for the state title.

Mr. and Mrs. Roger Lee Adams

Miss Marjorie Ann Edens Is Bride of Rodger Adams

Jacksonville - Miss Marjorie Ann Edens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Edens, Jacksonville, became the bride of Roger Lee Adams, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Adams, Portland, in a ceremony held December 31 at First Presbyterian church, Jacksonville.

The Rev. King K. Jones Jr. officiated at the three o'clock afternoon rites attended by 150 relatives and friends. Baskets of white chrysanthemums and red poinsettias decorated the church. Mrs. Alta Robinson, Medford, was organist and accompanied Mr. Edens, father of the bride, soloist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor length gown of white brocade fashioned with fitted bodice, scoop neckline which formed a shallow vee in front and three-quarter length sleeves. Her fingertip length veil was held by a cap of reembodyered lace edged with pearls and she carried a white orchid on a white Bible.

Mrs. Don A. Reinikka, Portland was matron of honor. Mrs. Walter J. Brown, Portland, was bridesmatron and Miss May Beth Adams, Portland, sister of the bridegroom, was bridesmaid. Mrs. Reinikka wore a red brocade frock and carried white chrysanthemums. The other attendants wore frocks fashioned with white taffeta bodices and red taffeta skirts with white nylon overskirts. Their flowers were also white chrysanthemums.

Mr. Reinikka served as best man and seating the guests were Mr. Brown and Norman Bailey. The men are all from Portland and are Theta Chi fraternity brothers of the bridegroom.

For her daughter's wedding and reception which followed at the Edens' home. Mrs. Edens chose a beige brocade dress with matching accessories. Mrs. Adams wore a baby blue brocade dress with matching accessories. Their corsages were orchids.

The couple is now living in Nashville, Tenn., where Mr. Adams is doing graduate work in psychology at Vanderbilt university. The bride is a graduate of Jacksonville high school and Lewis and Clark college, Portland. Mr. Adams attended Jefferson High school, Portland and Lewis and Clark college.

Miss Elaine Miller

Pythian Sisters Plan Initiation

Talisman temple of the Pythian Sisters will meet at the Knights of Pythias hall Tuesday, January 17, at 8 p.m. The degree staff captain, Mrs. Harry Bryant, asks officers and members of the staff be at the hall for practice at 6:30 p.m.

Initiation for both men and women is planned.

Mrs. Amy Snyder was elected guard at the last meeting of the temple.

Mrs. Scott Hall, installing officer, has announced that installation of officers will be held at the hall Friday, January 20, at 8 p.m.

SOC Student Is Betrothed To Californian

Mr. and Mrs. Henry H. Miller, 408 South Peach street, announce the engagement of their daughter, Elaine, to Joseph F. Serpa Jr., son of Joseph F. Serpa, Tracy, Calif.

The bride was graduated from Tracy Joint Union High school, and is enrolled as a freshman at Southern Oregon college. Her fiancé was graduated from Tracy High school in 1955 and is employed in Tracy.

Their wedding date has not been announced.

Programs Announced For Center

Arm Chair travelers at the Senior Activity center expressed enthusiasm for the colored slides of the Holy Land shown by William Pickell last Monday. He has been scheduled to return for their meeting Monday, January 18. Monday's pictures will be of the Grand Canyon and other scenic places in Arizona, New Mexico and California.

Last week Mr. Pickell showed scenes of the Red Sea, Egypt, up the Nile river and in Luxor. The meeting begins at 1 p.m. and anyone interested is invited.

Dr. Frank Roberts, who schedules the showings, states that newcomers in the valley, especially those who plan to enter the Rogue Valley Manor, are invited to attend. The Arm Chair group also invites anyone with slides or films to show them to the group. They may call Dr. Roberts at Spring 2-2674 to make arrangements.

The Spanish class which meets each Monday at 7:30 p.m. at the center is now being taught by Mrs. Blanche Rinabarger in the absence of the regular teacher Mrs. Victor Birdseye, during January.

The oil painting class which meets Tuesday afternoons at one o'clock under the direction of Mrs. Victoria Staley, decided last week to hold an exhibit at the center the latter part of February. New members are asked to come into the class next week in order to take part in this exhibit.

Mrs. Helen Dilmanson is hostess for the group, taking the place of Mrs. Jo (Alva) Reed, who assisted as a volunteer last fall.

The center orchestra is practicing selections from the new classical music collection which the group purchased with money earned in a rummage sale. The sale was arranged by friends of the orchestra, headed by Mrs. Edward Root, wife of the conductor. All the orchestra took part in it. Mr. Root stated that right now is the time for interested musicians to join the orchestra, when a new repertoire is being learned.

Three new members who joined recently are William Pickell, violinist; Mrs. Hazel Dickson, guitarist, and a cellist, Barney Garrett.

Meeting Announced

The annual meeting of Rogue Valley Memorial Hospital auxiliary will be held Friday, January 20, at 1:30 p.m. in the board and staff room of the hospital, according to Mrs. V. Ward Hammond, president. Anyone interested is invited to attend, she adds.

On the agenda is election of officers for 1961, and presentation of service pins to women who have completed 100 hours, or 1,000 hours of volunteer service to the hospital. A "fun quiz" concerning the auxiliary is also being prepared for members.

Mrs. Robert J. Morris, chairman of staff services, is in charge of the tea which will follow the meeting.

Mrs. Mildred Jeffrey will lead the devotions and Mrs. Geneva Schwan will review an article entitled "Of the People, by the People, for the People."

The lesson study will be given by Mrs. J. L. Houck. Refreshments will be served during the social hour following the business meeting.

Convention Planning Underway

Approximately 10,000 educators and their guests from throughout the state are expected to attend the 58th annual Oregon Education association convention in Portland March 16 to 18.

Attending a convention planning session at OEA headquarters last week were Devere Taylor and Mrs. Maxine Smith, of the Medford High school faculty. They reported that speakers at the state session will include Max Lerner, widely known journalist and writer on political and social subjects; Dr. Ethel J. Alpenfels, professor of anthropology at New York University school of education; and Dr. G. Z. F. Bereday, professor of comparative education at Columbia university.

James Bushong, superintendent of schools at Grosse Pointe, Michigan, and a former superintendent of schools at Bend, will be speaker at the OEA banquet March 18.

A highlight of the convention will be announcement of the 1960 "education citizen of the year." Delegates will participate in meetings and workshops conducted by OEA's 33 subject departments which concentrate on special fields such as art education, geography, business education, personnel and guidance, and associations for higher education, principals, county school superintendents, supervisors, classroom teachers, and others.

Mrs. Smith is chairman of the planning committee.
