Claudia Elizabeth Davis Wed to James Noah Allsup

The wedding of Claudia Elizabeth Davis of Balboa, Canal Zone, and James Noah Allsup, Central Point, took place in the Zion Lutheran church Saturday, January 7. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert H. Davis, Balboa, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Allsup, 319 West Pine street, Central Point.

The Rev. H. C. Covert performed the candlelight ceremony at three o'clock in the afternoon before a small number of friends and relatives. The bride wore a white wool sheath with white accessories and a shoulder-length veil. Her flowers were white carnations and a yellow orchid. She was given in marriage by her uncle, Forrest Ward, Talent.

Miss Cheryl Lea Carnine, Camas Valley, attended the bride. She wore a beige sheath dress with white accessories and a pink rosebud corsage. Jay Clifford Bowker, Central Point, was best man. Others present included the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Pansy Davis; the bridegroom's grandmother, Mrs. N. A. Royer, Bandon; and his parents, Mrs. Allsup, who wore an avocado colored suit with bone white accessories and a pink baby rosebud corsage.

A reception for the newlyweds followed at the Allsup home, after which the couple left for southern California to make their home. The bride attended schools in Balboa and

Investiture Ceremonies Conducted

Eagle Point—Six girls and four leaders were invested into the Girl Scouts of America, Brownie Troop 184, at a ceremony Tuesday night after school in the Eagle Point High school band room. Mrs. Jack James, committee chairman, invested the leaders, Mrs. David Harbison and Mrs. Elmer Binker, and Committeewomen Mrs. Roy Nolen and Mrs. Lester Raber into the troop. She presented them with their scout leaders pins.

Mrs. Elmer Binker presented pins and cards to Tanya Harbison, Patsy Binker, Mara Linn Raber and Janice Dover, all second and third grade girls.

Mrs. Harbison presented pins and cards to fourth grade Brownies Diane Harper and Linda Nolen following the investiture ceremonies. Candlelight ceremonies were used, with the girls being presented to their leader by Brownie Scout Sherry Stone. Each girl's mother stood behind her to take part in "twisting and turning her" before she looked into the pool to find the Brownie elf, following the reading of the original Brownie story by their leader, Terri Childers was candle lighter.

Eagle Point Girl Scouts and their leaders, Mrs. Orville Stone and Mrs. Smith, were guests with Miss Jackie Smith leading the flag ceremonies. Guests of honor included two mothers, Mrs. Lena Harper and Mrs. Lauren Dover, and other mothers previously listed.

Kathy Fowler, Carolyn Stone and Patsy Binker were hostesses and furnished refreshments.

At a recent meeting officers were elected for the fourth grade patrol. They are: president, Terry Childers, secretary, Sherry Stone; vice-president, Diane Harper; treasurer, Linda Nolen; reporter, Kathy Fowler.

In the second and third grade patrol, Tanya Harbison was elected president, Patsy Binker, vice-president; Janice Dover, secretary, and Mara Linn Raber, treasurer. Officers will be re-elected each month to give each girl a chance to be an officer and gain the necessary experience of helping run the meetings.

Others elected were Mrs. O. O. DeBerry, buttinsky for one year, and Mrs. Con Rost, buttinsky for three year term.

The officers were installed by Mrs. R. D. Schulz. Plans were made for attending the Military Order of Lady Bugs council of administration to be held at Roseburg February 11 and 12. Mrs. Ivan Lusk, hospital representative, reported on the Christmas party held December 22 at the White City Veterans Administration domiciliary.

Luncheon was served by Mrs. Harold Sutherland assisted by Mrs. Lusk. The next meeting will be held February 14.

League Representatives To Attend Conference

Medford League of Women Voters will be represented at the Carrie Chapman Catt memorial fund conference in San Francisco January 18-19, by Mrs. Fred Burich, foreign policy chairman, and Mrs. Kenneth H. Baker, second vice-president.

The San Francisco conference will be the second in a series of regional meetings designed to build understanding of the role of the United Nations in promoting peace through economic development. The Carrie Chapman Catt memorial fund, with a grant received from the Institute for International Order, has enlisted the assistance of the League of Women Voters to secure cooperation of individuals and organizations in building citizen and community understanding of the three major ideas which the project has to communicate.

These ideas are: (1) establish the urgent need for world economic development; (2) explain what the United Nations is doing to meet the need; (3) clarify why use of UN channels for international economic cooperation is advantageous.

One of the principal speakers at San Francisco will be Dr. Field Haviland Jr., director, foreign policy studies, of Brookings Institution, Washington, D.C. Methods of communicating the ideas presented at the conference will be given to the delegates so that they may be transmitted to the many communities represented. Mrs. Dunbar Carpenter, President of the Medford League of Women Voters, stated that the League feels "this is a splendid opportunity for some of its members to obtain first-hand information on foreign economic policy which they can then pass on to other league members and to the community."

Discussion units of the Medford League of Women Voters will review the booklet "How Much Do You Know About Jackson County?" at their January meetings. Mrs. Ogden Kellogg is chairman of the League's study on "the evaluation of Jackson county government in relation to county home rule."

Members of the evaluation committee will assist the units in discussion of county government "in relation to basic principles of county home rule" and work of the county charter committee. Mrs. Kellogg said. They will also discuss possible future plans of the charter committee. League members have been attending meetings of the county charter committee. Representatives also were present at the recent home rule clinic held in Portland by the Association of Oregon Counties.

The discussion units will be held at the homes of Mrs. Norman Capsey, 60 South Modoc avenue, at 9:45 a.m. Tuesday, January 17; Mrs. Donald Bohnert, Taylor road, Central Point, at 8 p.m. Wednesday, January 18; and Mrs. Thomas Rutter, 1033 Queen Anne avenue, at 8 p.m. Monday, January 23. Two more units will be held in Ashland January 24 and 26.

All women interested in the non-partisan study of government are invited by the League to attend any of the unit meetings.

Club Hears Talk On Growing Roses

Yreka—Seventeen members and guests of the evening group of the Garden club met at the home of Mrs. Wallace Turre, 310 Blake street, Yreka, January 9 at 8 p.m.

Mrs. Ray Penney, chairman of the club presided. Mrs. Lawrence Hastings, program chairman introduced Al Crebbins who gave a talk on roses. Mr. Crebbins is an authority on the growing of roses in this community and part of the state.

His talk was on the origin of roses and how they grow in every part of the globe. The wild rose is now hybridized by nature and grafted by man. Crebbins spoke of the various types, their culture, how to plant, the best time of year to prune and fertilize and what to look for when buying in stores or nurseries.

The next meeting of the garden club will be at the home of Mrs. Arnold Grinnick, just south of Yreka. The hostess Mrs. Turre served refreshments at the close of the meeting.
