

Jackson County Demos In East for Inauguration

Four Jackson county Democrats will attend the inauguration of President-Elect John F. Kennedy in Washington next Friday, January 20. All plan to attend every function in the program of events scheduled for guests attending inauguration ceremonies.

Representing Jackson county will be Democratic County Chairman, Harper Edwards; Henry Padgham, who served as Jackson county chairman for Citizens for Kennedy; Johnson during the campaign; Frank Christian, former Democratic county chairman, and Mrs. Christian. Mr. Edwards and Mr. Padgham left Medford early this morning by car for Portland. In the afternoon they will board the City of Portland for Chicago and then take the Pennsylvania Railroad into Washington, D. C.

The Christians left Thursday for Portland, and from there took the Great Northern to Chicago. They will join their son, Wilfrid, who has seen service on the Triton, and go to Washington together for the inauguration ceremonies. Following four days in Washington, they will spend two days in New York and attend Broadway shows before returning to Medford.

Among functions to be attended by the four local residents will be the official inauguration ceremonies, the inaugural ball, honoring the new President and First Lady; a reception honoring Vice President-Elect and Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson; an inaugural concert to be held at Constitution hall; a Democratic gala to be held at the National Guard armory, sponsored by Frank Sinatra and Peter Lawford with a large cast of Hollywood stars performing and the inaugural parade. Mrs. Christian will also attend the reception for distinguished ladies.

In addition to these events, Mr. Edwards and Mr. Padgham plan to confer with heads of the Democratic National committee and leaders in the Kennedy-Johnson administration. They also plan to seek possible commitments for a speaker for the next Roosevelt Memorial dinner, an annual event held here in April.

Mr. Padgham will leave Washington for New York to visit friends and relatives and will join Mr. Edwards in Omaha where the latter will spend the Sunday following the inauguration with his son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Gary Edwards and their one and a half year old daughter, Holly, whom he has never seen.

The four will return to Medford in time for the local Democratic inaugural ball to be held at the Mark Antony hotel ballroom in Ashland the evening of Saturday, January 28.

Gold Hill Council Has Sewing Project; Pastor at Meeting

Gold Hill - Women's Missionary Council of the Gold Hill Assembly of God church will start cutting blocks for quilts during a meeting of the group Tuesday, January 17, at 7 p.m. at the church. The finished quilts, which will be sewn by members of the group, will be sent to the mission field.
