Rosellini Urges Bridge Negotiation

Olympia — (UPI) — Gov. Albert D. Rosellini, in his inaugural message to a joint session of the Washington Legislature Wednesday, urged further negotiation with Oregon officials toward construction of an Astoria-Megler toll bridge.

"Negotiations are under way with Oregon to see if the Astoria-Megler bridge can be built as a joint venture," he said in discussing highway and bridge proposals. "This project must be pursued."

Legislative committees of the neighboring states have been unable to reach agreement on sharing of construction costs for the lower Columbia crossing. Ferries now provide service between the two cities.
