

Two 4-H'ers To Attend Meeting

Two outstanding Jackson county 4-H club members have been selected to attend the Oregon 4-H Club conference in Salem, Feb. 2, 3 and 4. Selected were Alice Woolfolk, Antelope, and Terry Gail, Gold Hill. While in Salem, delegates from all Oregon counties will have an opportunity to observe and study the operation of state government. The group will attend some of the committee meetings.

During the conference delegates to the National 4-H Club conference will be selected. Selection will be based on records of achievement, leadership and community activities and an interview.

Gail has carried projects in beef and sheep for the past nine years. He has exhibited grand champion sheep at both the county and state fair. His beef projects have won him many honors and he has placed high in judging at both the State Fair, Salem, and Cow Palace, San Francisco. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Gail.

Miss Woolfolk has had projects in beef, dairy, forestry, fishing, outdoor, cookery, clothing, cooking and food preservation. Her projects have won her many champion and blue ribbons at both the county and state fair. Last fall she was the champion dairy foods demonstrator at state fair and won a savings bond and watch. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ira Woolfolk.

State Police Check Two Area Accidents

State police reported two accidents occurred late Thursday afternoon and evening. No injuries were reported.

A one-vehicle accident occurred Thursday night on the Crater Lake highway near the Desert service station when a pickup truck driven by Donald Louvell Zoller, 22, of Star route, box 575, Shady Cove, went out of control after passing a car and turned over in a ditch.

Two pickup trucks driven by Charles Franklin Johnson, 60, of 2297 Camp Baker rd., Phoenix, and Earl Henry Hanscom, 56, of route 2, box 669B, Central Point, collided at the junction of Coker Butte rd. and Crater Lake ave. about 4 p.m. Thursday, state police said.

Extensive damage resulted to the right side and underneath section of the Johnson pickup. The Hanscom truck received damage to the radiator, grill and hood, officers said.

Johnson was travelling south on Crater Lake ave, and Hanscom was entering Crater Lake ave. from Coker Butte rd., reports showed.

Geese Mystery Now Solved by Russians

Portland - (UPI) - The State Game Commission said Friday the mystery surrounding three Russian-banded snow geese taken by waterfowl hunters at Summer Lake last fall has been solved.

Russian biologists said in a letter to the commission they had banded the geese in connection with their biological investigations on waterfowl.

The three geese were trapped and banded last July 18 on Wrangel Island some 100 miles north of the Siberian coastline in the Chuckchee sea. To reach Summer Lake in Oregon the geese traveled southeast across the sea, diagonally across the Alaskan mainland, south across the Yukon and British Columbia and then south through Washington and Oregon - some 3,000 miles.
