Labor, Management Hold Grievance Sessions on Whether Cat Remains

Sepulveda, Calif. (UPI)—Labor and management are involved in serious grievance sessions at the Pacific Mercury Electronics Corp.—over a cat.

The union, Industrial Local 1662, Carpenters, AFL-CIO, wants Mister Tom the cat to remain at the Los Angeles suburban firm where he has been the workers' mascot since wandering in about 1955.

Management is reluctantly backing a new security officer who ordered Mister Tom to go on the ground that his housekeeping methods aren't the tidest.

"If necessary, we shall submit the matter to the State Conciliation Service for arbitration," Local President Charles Powers, 38, said today.

Everybody Loves Tom

"Mister Tom is a regular part of the company and he's a terrific morale builder," Powers said. "Everybody loves Tom."

And Powers suggested a little sandbox by the door might just settle the whole thing if the company will agree.

The union took its first action Wednesday after about 300 of the firm's nearly 600 workers signed a petition called "Operation-Save Our Cat."

Powers and George Brodney, personnel director of the firm, met as prescribed by the union-management work contract to discuss the grievance.

Backs Security Officer

Powers said Brodney felt he had to back up the new security officer, although reluctantly.

Powers, following the steps for pressing a grievance, arranged with Brodney to call in an outside help for their next meeting within 14 days.

Two Men Appear in District Court

Dean Remus Watkins, Medford, is scheduled to appear in district court March 1 to face trial on charges of defrauding an inn keeper.

He pleaded innocent to the charges Thursday. Watkins is charged with leaving the Resmore Motel in Talent without paying for lodging.

Daniel Steven O'Quinn, alias R. G. Richardson, Boise, Idaho, was bound over to the grand jury Thursday on charges of forging a check for $156 and giving it to the Owl club in Medford on Sept. 11.

Morse To Introduce Deportees' Bill

Washington — (UPI) — Sen. Wayne Morse, D-Ore., said Friday he would introduce two bills in Congress which if passed would permit return to the United States of deportees William A. Mackie and Hamish Scott MacKay.

The two men were deported to Finland and Canada late last year after losing a long battle to stay in this country.

Morse had introduced bills in the last session of Congress to permit them to stay but they were not acted upon.
