Toga Kept By Pender
Boston — (UPI) — Co-middleweight champion Paul Pender looked forward today to "some big money" in 1981—a couple of hundred thousand dollars or so—as he summed up his spectacular title defense of Saturday night.

The 30-year-old former fireman used a stinging left jab and hook like an ax as he cut British challenger Terry Downes' face to a bloody mess. Referee Billy Connolly halted the bout after 57 seconds of the seventh round with a one and one-half inch slice to the bone down Downes' nose.

The National Boxing association recognizes Pender as its champion. Pender is regarded as champ in Massachusetts, New York and Europe. Pender now has successfully defended his crown twice, once against Sugar Ray.

SUGGS WINNER
Sea Island, Ga. — (UPI) — Louise Suggs, who has won just about every women's golf tournament there is, came from behind Sunday to take the Sea Island Invitational away from Marlene Hagge.

Bakersfield, Calif. — (UPI) — Former University of Utah baseball and basketball star Bill Cowan, 22, Bakersfield, has signed for a modest bonus with the Chicago Cubs. Cub scout Ray Perry said Cowan will report to the Cubs minor league player camp at Mesa, Ariz., March 1. Cowan, who made the second team All-America baseball squad at the university, will be assigned to the Wenatchee, Wash., Class B Northwest league.

Two-Mile Run Mark Shattered

Bq WILLARD D. EBERHART

Portland Ore. — (UPI) — America's winter indoor track season had a bright new event today — the Oregon Invitational meet which drew a near capacity crowd in its debut Saturday night and produced one spectacular world record. Red-haired Murray Halberg, the 27-year-old Auckland, New Zealand, brewery technician, supplied the biggest thrill in Portland's first indoor meet in more than 20 years when he almost casually chipped 11.7 seconds off the world record for the two-mile run.

Wearing borrowed shoes, he beat his closest challenger, Laszlo Tabori of the Santa Clara, Calif., Youth Village, by 80 yards in running the 22-lap event in an astonishing 8:34.3 minutes.

Roscoe Cook, University of Oregon senior who already is a co-holder of the 60-yard dash, equalled the mark again in 6 seconds flat. Olympians Beaten. A couple of 1960 Olympic champions were beaten. Oregon's Otis Davis, who won the 400 meters in Rome, misjudged the distance in the 500-yard dash and finished second to Rick Harder of the University of Washington. Both were timed in 59.5.

Don Bragg, world champion pole vaulter, failed three times at 15 feet and had to settle for a second-place tie at 14-9. Ron Morris of the Los Angeles Striders cleared 15 feet for first place. Burelson lost for the third time to an old rival, Jim Beatty, of the Santa Clara Youth Village, who overtook the Oregonian 80 yards from the finish line and passed him as though he were standing still to win the mile.

Beatty was timed in 4:07.4 to Burelson's 4:08.7.

A couple of Oregon athletes put out their best efforts ever. Oregon State's Horn won the broad jump with a leap of 25-6 1/2. Oregon's Phil Paquin pole vaulted 14-9 to tie Bragg for second in that event.

Ducks Beat Stanford

United Press International

The defensive-minded University of Portland Pilots jumped back into the race for an at-large berth in the NCAA playoffs during the week end with a pair of victories over Gonzaga while Oregon and Oregon State split two-game series with Stanford and Washington State.

The Pilots dumped Gonzaga 63-47 at Coeur d'Alene, Idaho, Saturday night as five men hit in double figures. On Sunday night Bill Garner tallied 28 points in leading Portland to a 68-54 win over the Bulldogs at Spokane.

The Ducks dropped a 67-60 decision to Stanford Friday night but came back to defeat the Indians 61-58 in the series finale. Coach Steve Belko's eagles lost Friday night's contest after leading by as many as nine points midway through the second half. Bill Simmons paced the Ducks to the Saturday night win with 18 points. Oregon State bounced Washington State 76-66 Friday but WSU jumped out to a quick 8-0 lead Saturday night and was never headed as it dumped the Beavers 72-61. Bill Wold led the Beavers with 15 points.
