Huskies Sink Lower in Big 5 Basketball Race

By MIKE HUDSON
United Press International

Washington and Gonzaga are proof positive that one hotshot is not always enough to produce a winning cage team.

The Huskies Bill Hanson and the Bulldogs' Frank Burgess went on scoring rampages Friday night, but their schools lost anyway.

Hanson, 6-foot-8 Husky center is one of the Coast's best, especially if he can keep from fouling out of action. He hit 29 points Friday night, but Stanford still managed to pull out a 61-58 victory over the Huskies. It was a disastrous blow to Washington, making it 1-4 in the Big Five.

The unpredictable Indians were 2-0 in Big Five play and still very much in the running against USC (4-0) and UCLA (2-1). The Cards don't figure on paper to match the Los Angeles powerhouse, but games are won on the court, not on paper.

Overcome Deficit
Friday night, John Hendry and Don Clementson each scored 13 to lead the persistent Cards, who overcame an 8-point halftime deficit to knot the regulation count at 52-52. Clementson's layup late in the overtime brought victory.

At Seattle, Burgess, top scorer in the U.S., pushed in 37 points, but Seattle edged Gonzaga, 86-84.

Burgess meshed two baskets and four free throws in the final two minutes in a one-man assault, but a three-point play by Seattle's smooth Dave Mills and a couple of free throws by Tommy Shaules kept the Chieftains ahead. Soph Ed Miles had 25 for the winners and Mills added 21 as Seattle won its ninth game in 13 outings—best record in the Northwest.

Oregon State's erratic Beavers won their 8th in 13 tries with a 67-52 win over hapless Idaho.

Oregon edged Washington State 60-53.

Big Daddy's Hoop Dreams Come to Halt

Baltimore—UPI—Pete Rozelle, commissioner of the National Football League, attracted angry threats from several quarters today for spiking the pro basketball ambitions of Gene (Big Daddy) Lipscomb, the Baltimore Colts' mammoth tackle.

Baltimore fans, in general, were enraged over Rozelle's action and the president of the Eastern Basketball league said he planned to file a $1,000,000 damage suit against the NFL commissioner for "slandering remarks" Rozelle allegedly made against EBL.

Rozelle Friday prohibited Lipscomb from playing with the Baltimore Bullets of the EBL because "several players competing in the Eastern Basketball league were accused of gambling on games involving teams for which they formerly played."

Although Rozelle declined to name names, Jack Molinas, veteran Eastern league player, is under a lifetime suspension in the National Basketball association for betting on his own team, the Fort Wayne Pistons, in 1953.

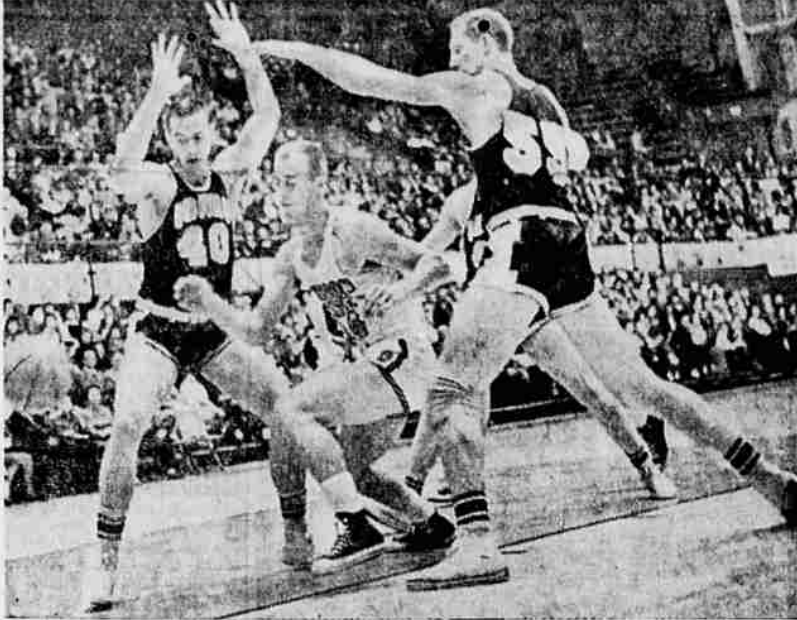

Indian Hoop Tourney Set

Browning, Mont. —UPI—Plans for the second annual North American All-Indian Basketball tournament, to be held here beginning March 2, were completed today with the selection of the remaining four teams.

Eight tribal teams from five states will participate in the three-day tourney, headed by host and defending champion Browning Braves.

The teams named today were from Pine Ridge, S.D.; La Conner, Wash.; the Chiloquin, Ore.; Thunderbirds, and the Tappanish, Wash., Pa.

Selected earlier, in addition to Browning, were last year's runners-up, the Ft. Yates, N.D., American Legion, and the consolation finalists, the Warm Springs, Ore., Magpies, and the Ft. Peck, Mont., Warriors.

BALL KNOCKED AWAY—Former Portland prep ace Terry Baker (44), has the ball knocked out of his control as he is triple teamed in the closing minutes of the Oregon State college-Idaho basketball game at Corvallis Friday night. Baker, of OSC, is surrounded by Idaho's Rolfe Williams (40), Reg Carolan (55) and Kenneth Maren (partly hidden). OSC won.

OSC Wins With Hot Final Spurt

Corvallis —UPI—Off-and-on Oregon State rallied when it was needed Friday night. The Beavers won wild in the final five minutes to down Idaho 67-52 in a college basketball game before 4,556 fans.

Towering Karl Anderson, 6-10 center, and versatile Terry Baker led the Oregon State attack, with 18 points and 11 rebounds, respectively. White scored all of his 16 points in the final five minutes.

Anderson paced the Beaver attack with 18 points and 11 rebounds, respectively. White scored all of his 16 points in the final five minutes.
