Polio Is Subject of Medicine Program

"Polio" will be the topic of the first 1961 live edition of "Adventures in Medicine" at 1:30 o'clock this afternoon over KBEST-TV.

The series of programs on health, presented by the Jackson County Tuberculosis and Health association in cooperation with the Jackson County Medical Society, is now in its sixth year.

Polio was selected for discussion this month because of the seriousness of the problem, and the many misconceptions about the disease.

Appearing on the medical panel will be Dr. Francis H. Bogard, internist, Dr. Alvin Roberts, general practitioner, and Dr. A. Erin Merkel, Jackson county public health physician.

Mrs. C. Ivan Burton, director-moderator of the bi-weekly programs, said that many questions concerning the vaccine, its effectiveness, and other general information about polio will be included in the discussion.

MISS ETHEL SHUMAY Marriage Counsellor

Guidance Clinic Adds Counsellor

A marriage counsellor has been added to the staff of the Child Guidance Clinic of Southern Oregon, according to Tom Goff, psychiatric social worker.

The counsellor is Miss Ethel Shumay, who is experienced in both education and psychology, and has a master's degree in social work from the University of Indiana.

She recently completed service with the Fred Finch Children's home in Oakland, Calif., and was associated for more than seven years with the Family Service agency in Honolulu, Hawaii.

Established to help the emotionally disturbed child, the local clinic serves all members of the community. The CGC is located in the Jackson county courthouse.
