

Mr. and Mrs. Alan Glen McKinnis

Member of Pioneer Family Married to College Student

Ashland - Miss Christine Verdel McGee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James R. McGee, 317 North Main street, Ashland, became the bride of Alan Glen McKinnis, Ashland, in a ceremony held January 18 at the First Church of Christ.

The bridegroom's parents are Mrs. John Lavender, Doris, Calif., and William Glen McKinnis, The Pines, Ashland.

The Rev. Everett H. McGee, uncle of the bride, officiated at the two o'clock afternoon single ring rites. Baskets of yellow and white chrysanthemums decorated the church and Mrs. James M. Sinclair played the organ wedding music. Soloist was the Rev. Mr. Sinclair. Approximately 50 relatives and friends attended.

The bride wore a ballerina length gown of white Alencon lace over white satin. The scoop neckline was outlined with net which was appliqued with lace embroidered with iridescent sequins. The gown was fashioned with fitted bodice, long sleeves and full skirt. Her illusion veil was held by a crown of iridescent sequins and she carried a cascade bouquet of white gardenias and white carnations. Mr. McGee gave his daughter in marriage.

Newlyweds Make Home In Portland; Rites Here

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Gordon Owsley Jr. are making their home in Portland following their wedding in Medford at Zion Lutheran church. The Rev. H. C. Coovert officiated at the evening double ring ceremony attended by 200 relatives and friends.

The bride is the former Susan Beth Reule, daughter of Mrs. Eleanor B. Reule, Car-gill court, and Robert R. Reule, Milwaukee, Wis. Mr. Owsley's parents are Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Owsley, Barnett road.

Mr. Reule gave his daughter in marriage at the December 17 ceremony. Decorations were in keeping with the season.

The bride wore a floor length gown of white satin. Her fingertip length veil was held in a pearl and sequin crown and she carried a bouquet of carnations and stephanotis.

Miss Sallie Reule was maid of honor for her sister and bridesmaids were Miss Ellen Finnegan, Miss Tanya Enders and Miss Lynda Peebler. They wore velvet frocks with matching satin cummerbunds. Their headresses and muffs were white fur. Miss Reule was in forest green and the bridesmaids wore wine red.

Little Jeanne Sheldon was flower girl. Her dress was green and she carried a basket of red rose petals. Robert Cresap, Ashland, nephew of the bridegroom, was ring bearer.

James Owsley served as best man for his brother. Ushers were Larry Perkins, Roseburg; Charles Putney, Portland and Richard Connolly.

Acolytes were Miss Edna Kay Weiger, Salem, and Miss Barbara Hutchinson. Mrs. William Weiger, Salem, cousin of the bridegroom, sang.

For the wedding and reception which followed at the church, Mrs. Reule wore a coffee colored lace sheath dress. Mrs. Owsley chose a champagne colored brocade sheath.

Mrs. Robert Cresap, Ashland, sister of the bridegroom, cut and served the wedding cake and Mrs. Richard Kenner poured the coffee and punch. Mrs. Larry McNealy was in charge of the guest book. Marvin and Craig Smith, Watsonville, Calif., distributed rice packets to the guests.

The bride attended Medford High school and was employed by Forest Glen Lumber company. Mr. Owsley was graduated from Medford High school and attended Southern Oregon college. He is employed at the Grand Central Bowl, Portland.

A Tribute To The Young Men's Christian Association

Most people recognize the Y.M.C.A. by the familiar triangle. SPIRIT, MIND and BODY are symbolized by the three sides of the Y.M.C.A. triangle. The Y's constant aim is to help individuals grow in "wisdom, stature and in favor with God and man." The Y is a world wide organization and has contributed much to the world. Basketball and volleyball were Y.M.C.A. developments. Professional football originated as a Y program. Fathers Day, Boy Scouts and Campfire Girls were also sponsored by the Y.M.C.A. as well as many other institutions we enjoy today. January 23 through January 29 has been set aside and proclaimed Y.M.C.A. Week. Visit your Y.M.C.A. and take part in the many activities they have planned. Congratulations Y.M.C.A. and thank you for your great part in making leaders and citizens of boys and girls.
