Making control of the ball and a persistent offense pay off, the Medford High school basketball aggregation kept firmly in the chase for Southern Oregon conference laurels here Saturday night by trouncing Grants Pass 78 to 47.

Triumph over the Cavemen came more easily than had been anticipated. Medford did run into stubborn resistance at the outset Saturday. But the third quarter the Black Tornado had the situation well in hand against a club it had previously beaten 66 to 59.

Grants Pass had a stout zone defense in the early portion of the game. The Black Tornado, exercising an edge on the boards, quicker reactions, and better ballhawking on its own defense, however, had the ball in its possession the biggest share of the time. Working the ball well and taking good shots for the most part, from near and far, the Medford's eventually shattered the Cavemen's resistance. The Tornado fast break, held down for a time, was able to produce some goals.

Dick Ragsdale, hitting from varied ranges, paced the Tornado scoring parade with 27 points as Medford ran up its sixth victory in seven league games. He connected on 12 of his 16 field efforts and sank three of four tries from the foul line. Medford had three other men in double scoring figures, Scott Eaton with 12, Jim Barry with 10, Al Staley's nine was high for the Cavemen who suffered their third loss in six District 6 A-I games.

Quinney was the night's rebound leader with 13 retrieves as Medford compiled a 37 to 26 rebounding margin. Ragsdale gleamed eight. For the GP gang Dave Haunz picked off nine.

A good degree of accuracy from the field figured in the Tornado verdict. Medford put in 28 of 62 shots for 45.2. Grants Pass shot a respectable .386 and Medford defense limited it to fewer shots. The Cavemen had 17 for 44.

The outcome left the Big Wind in position to bid for a tie in conference standings with Klamath Falls when the two clubs meet next Saturday on the Klamath floor. KP's Pels are 6-0 after downing Ashtland last Saturday 87 to 34.

Medford was never behind against Grants Pass. After ties of 2 to 2 and 4 to 4, Bob Quinney put the Tornado in front to stay with a free shot. The Tornado picked up zaps of 9 to 4, 11 to 6 and 13 to 8 but headed only 13 to 11 at the quarter.

In the second panel the home club extended to 28 to 15 and was on top 30 to 19 at the midway buzzer. Third period play saw the Medford's go away to a 28-point spread at 54 to 26. Tally when the canto closed was 54 to 28. Tornado players collected another 24 markers in the final quarter while GP picked up 19.

Grants Pass salvaged some consolation by winning the junior varsity skirmish 35 to 32. The Cavemen juniors built up a 30 to 16 margin. Medford did make a great comeback but not quite enough. It closed the gap to two points and 33 to 31. GP had quarter differences of 10 to 5, 16 to 11 and 30 to 22. Jack Forde put in 12 points for Medford which had trouble hitting as a team.

Medford took the sophomore tussle 59 to 45, busting

Crater High Grapplers Overcome Henley Hornets

Central Point - Crater high varsity wrestlers subued Henley 41 to 8 here Saturday. The Comets also took junior varsity action 28 to 17.

Crater grapplers won 11 of the 13 varsity tussles. One of the two losses was by default because of injury.

In Jayvee bouts Crater won six and Henley five.

Comet matmen are reportedly "coming along better" but their improvement will only be measured in matches with Klamath Falls, Medford and Grants Pass. They meet Klamath here next Saturday.

Spiegelbergs Have New Son

There's another budding football player in the family of Medford High Head Football Coach Fred Spiegelberg.

A son was born yesterday afternoon to Mr. and Mrs. Spiegelberg at Rogue Valley hospital. The boy, who weighed 8 1/2 pounds, has been named William Barry Spiegelberg.

Mother, son - and coach - are doing nicely, the grid mentor reported. The Spiegelbergs have another son, Scott, 7, and a daughter, Shawn, 3.

Two Pass 250 Mark in Swim

Bruce Hess and Ted Lyons are "past Salem" in the Medford recreation department's swim to Portland program in the YMCA pool.

They were tied at 253 miles when the progress report was made last week. Linda Hess had 240 miles and Rhonda Hess 241.

Colds, holidays and other reasons have taken toll of swimmers since the start in September. Of the 50 who began the 300-mile "Medford to Portland" swim, just 19 remain in the race.

Others are Phillip Taylor and Kirby Lusk, each 189, Dennis Carson 182, Dale Carson 150, Kathy Stacy 149 1/2, Nona Donahue 129, Murphy McHugh 104, Sandra Lyons 99, Bonnie Lyons, Sydney Smith, Shirley Smith, Laura Stacy and Kelly McHugh, each 98, and Bob Stacy and Donita Taylor, each 96.

Wilma Rudolph, America's sprint gold medal winner at Rome last year, was again the darling of the crowd as she set a record of 6.9 seconds in romping to victory in the 60-yard dash. She warmed up for her effort by jitter-bugging along the board track as the crowd roared.

The veteran Parry O'Brien in the shot put and Ralph Boston in the broad jump were the other record-breakers.

Cook Takes 60

O'Brien, who will be 29 on Jan. 28 and claims this is his last year of competition, tossed the 16-pound ball 63 feet 1 1/2 inches.

Boston, like Miss Rudolph, a student at Tennessee State College, leaped 25 feet 10 inches.

Other winners included: Don Bragg, a 15-foot pole vault; Jim Beatty, a 408.1 mile; Laszlo Tabori, an 8:53.2 two-mile; Roscoe Cook, 6.1 in the 60-yard dash, a tenth of a second off the world mark; Bob Avant, a 6-11 high jump; Jim Grelle, a 2:15 1,000-yard run; Otis Davis, 400-meter Olympic champion, an eased-up 58.4 500; Hayes Jones, 7.1 in the 60-yard high hurdles.

Darrel Horn of Oregon State was second in the broad jump with a leap of 23-feet-0 1/4 and the Emerald Empire's Archie San Romani Jr. was third in the mile at 4:10.4.

Robinson Heads West To Train

New York - UPI - The once-great Sugar Ray Robinson flew West today in quest of his youthful punch and a chunk of the middleweight crown.

The 40-year-old former welterweight and middleweight champion will train at San Jacinto, Calif., for his fourth title fight with champion Gene Fullmer at Las Vegas, Nev., March 4.

Gene of West Jordan, Utah, is recognized as world champion by the National Boxing Association.

Alta, Utah - UPI - Eva Marcoulis of Bend, Ore., finished in second place in the women's downhill event at the Intermountain Ski Association championships Sunday. Her time was 2:35 4/5 compared to 2:26 2/5 for Margo Walters of Sandy, Utah, the winner.

Bobby Rosburg Triumphant In Bing Crosby Tournament

Pebble Beach, Calif. - UPI - Bobby Rosburg, a middle of the pack player since his PGA crowning two years ago, was golfing's happiest pro today. His bascule grip and hot putter earned him $5,300 in a stretch drive finish in the $50,000 Bing Crosby National amateur golf tournament. He carded a 72-hole score of 282 after being seven strokes off pace before Sunday's final.

"Improved play off the tee was the difference," said Rosburg who expertly hit his low balls to avoid raging winds that swept in from the Pacific Ocean. "Everything came my way."

Finishes With Birdie

The former Stanford University baseball player from Palo Alto, Calif., finished with a 14-foot birdie putt on Pebble Beach's famed 18th hole to fashion a 72 and take the crown by one stroke from Dave Regan, Orlando, Fla., and Roberto De Vincenzo, Mexico City, each with 283. Ted Kroll, the ex-army sergeant from Ft. Lauderdale, Fla., who had led at the end of the third round, lost his touch entirely and soared to an 81. That left only Bill Collins of Crystal River, Fla., with a chance to take the crown.

Collins' Try Fails

Collins' suffering from an upset stomach, gave it a try for the 30,000 fans. He went for a birdie putt on the 18th that would have put the championship in a tie, but the ball scooted by a couple of feet. Collins muffed the return putt for a bogey instead and wound up in a tie for fourth place at 284 with Kroll, Gardner Dickinson, Tequesta, Fla., and Arnold Palmer, Miami, Fla.

The pro-amateur championship went to Wes Ellis, West Caldwell, N. J., and amateur partner Frank (Sandy) Tatum, a San Francisco attorney. They had a best-ball of 252-36 strokes under par. For his best Ellis collected $3,000. Another team headed by Dow Finsterwald, Tequesta, Fla., with amateur Fred Kammer, Grosse Pointe Farms, Mich., finished in second place, which returned the pro $1,500.

The Southerners trailed all the way as ex-Eastern Oregon ace Frank Chase and Turner paced an early drive which netted the Viks an 11-5 lead in the first 10 minutes of the contest. Shults traded seven straight points with Bridges and Turner to move the visitors within 18-12 with 4:11 left. But the potent combination of Bridges from the outside and Bertell from the foul line gave PSC their 8-point margin at intermission.

Southern Oregon hit on only 8 of 39 shots in the second half after a 333 showing in the first canto and ended with a 263 mark on 15 of 57. PSC had the same number of fielders but had a warm 415 mark on only 36 shots attempted.

The Raiders, who have now lost in their last three conference outings, play host to Oregon Tech this Tuesday night in a rematch of last week's contest, which OTI won, 58-47.

George Bertz Award Planned

Portland - UPI - The George Bertz Memorial Award and the Rollie Truitt Award have been added to this year's annual Bill Hayward Banquet of Champions.

The banquet is scheduled Feb. 16 at the University of Portland Commons.

The Bertz Memorial award, named in honor of the late sports editor of the Oregon Journal, will be presented to an individual for outstanding contributions made to golf in the state during the past year.

The Truitt award will go to an individual who has made outstanding contributions to amateur baseball in Oregon. It is named after veteran baseball announcer Rollie Truitt.

Bertell, the Vikings' big gun at the free throw line with a night's total of 12 tries good on 16 attempts, hit two more free throws but Eickworth popped in a pair himself and Gardner jumped in a fielder from the side to whittle the lead to five points, 37-32, with 4:15 left. Bertell hit two more free throws but the Raiders came right back with successful ball-stealing tactics as John Payne counted on a steal and Shults put the difference at three points with 3:23 remaining.

Clutch Tosses

Don Bridges then tanked two clutch tosses from the foul line and Gardner got one back with a foul try. Bertell then began pulling the Viks out of danger with another pair from the line, followed by a fielder by Turner. Shults and Gardner each added a

Portland Staters Sweep SOC Series

Portland - Portland State's defensive-minded Vikings captured first place in the Oregon Collegiate conference by completing a sweep of a two-game series with a 51-41 triumph over Southern Oregon's stubborn Red Raiders here Saturday.

Friday the Portlanders handed the visiting Raiders a 49-28 setback to boost themselves into first place and drop the Southerners into second. The Saturday win strengthened the Viks' grip on the top spot while dumping the Raiders into third place behind Eastern Oregon, which recorded a pair of wins over cellar-dwelling Oregon college.

Guard Jerry Shults kept the Raiders in the ball game Saturday with a brilliant display of long-range sharpshooting, but his sparkling 20 - point scoring performance wasn't quite enough as PSC staved off a spirited Raider rally in the waning minutes to record their fourth league victory.

Shults, the sharp-eyed freshman from Medford fired in eight field goals of 14 attempts, almost all coming on arching jump or push shots from a range of 20-30 feet.

Shults Sparks

Shults, despite the fact he had to tape his ankle at halftime after twisting it late in the opening period sparked the Raider's second half comeback, which combined with a successful full - court press which definitely rattled the hosts, pulled the visitors within three points, 39-36, with 3:23 left in the action-packed affair.

Portland State held a 24-16 lead at halftime and quickly boosted it to 29-16 in the first two minutes of play in the second panel on a pair of buckets by big Bill Turner and a free toss by Jack Bertell. Dave Hughes and Dave Gardner of SOC cut the margin with a gift shot and jumper, respectively, but Turner came back with a hit from the charity stripe and Bertell quickly added two more.

Southern Oregon slapped on their near-fatal press at that point and, with Shults canning seven straight points and another frosh, Lorraine Eickworth tapping in a rebound, the PSC bulge was sliced to seven points, 35-28.

Bertell, the Vikings' big gun at the free throw line with a night's total of 12 tries good on 16 attempts, hit two more free throws but Eickworth popped in a pair himself and Gardner jumped in a fielder from the side to whittle the lead to five points, 37-32, with 4:15 left. Bertell hit two more free throws but the Raiders came right back with successful ball-stealing tactics as John Payne counted on a steal and Shults put the difference at three points with 3:23 remaining.

Clutch Tosses

Don Bridges then tanked two clutch tosses from the foul line and Gardner got one back with a foul try. Bertell then began pulling the Viks out of danger with another pair from the line, followed by a fielder by Turner. Shults and Gardner each added a pair of points to the Raiders' total in the final minute but Bridges and Bertell wrapped fielders around two free tries by Don Powell to ice the Vik victory.

UO Ducks, OSC Beat Hoop Foes

United Press International

The "boss's daughter" is knocking them dead at Oregon.

Charlie Warren, son of John Warren who once coached the Ducks, whisked in 28 points Saturday night while leading Oregon to a 67-83 win over Idaho. This output followed a Friday night spurge in which Charlie meshed 26 points during a 60-53 verdict at the expense of Washington State.

In other Saturday action, well-scattered because of examination periods, Washington defeated Stanford, 51-49, in the only Big Five game of the night; Oregon State ran away from Washington State, 72-47; Seattle trimmed Montana State, 80-70; Portland downed Alaska, 73-48 and Pepperdine defeated San Diego State, 59-48.

Ed Corell won the game for Washington with a field goal in the last three seconds of play. It was the Huskies second win in Big Five action against four losses. Stanford, which tripped Washington in overtime Friday night, now has a 2-1 record and a second place tie with UCLA.

Southern California, idle all last week heads the Big Five with a 4-0 mark. UCLA also was idle along with California which is in the league basement.

Nine Straight Points

Stanford moved ahead of the Huskies, 48-47, with two and a half minutes to play after scoring nine straight points. Then Clint Names hit with a fielder to put Washington on top but John Hendry's free throw tied it for the Indians.

Oregon State got off to an 18-5 lead over Washington State with the aid of Jim Woodland whose 24 points were high for the night. Terry Ball countered with 18 for the losers.

Dave Mills and Eddie Miles combined for 63 points to lead Seattle to its 80-70 win over Montana State and the Chieftains' fourth straight triumph. Mills scored 34 point Miles 29.

Portland's Pilots won their 11th game of the season at the expense of outmanned Alaska. Mike Doherty led the winners with 17 in a game played at Vancouver.

Pepperdine's win against San Diego State was the second straight in non-league action for the Waves who trail the West Coast Athletic Conference with an 0-3 showing.
