

Annual Dinner is Given By VFW Post, Auxiliary

The annual dinner to honor past officers of Crater Lake post and auxiliary, Veterans of Foreign Wars was held last week. Nearly 100 persons attended.

Appointments Made By Bethel Queen

Honored Queen Barbara Morton made committee appointments at her first session of Bethel 14, International Order of Job's Daughters, Wednesday, January 18, in the Masonic temple.

Appointments included the pledge committee, the Misses Darcy Johnson, Judy Johnson and Diane Rupert; the grandparents committee, Miss Pat Borough; and the auditing committee, Miss Diane Everham and Miss Diana Wood.

Reports of visits to installation services of other Bethels in the valley were made. Miss Diane Everham reported on Bethel 55, Medford; Miss Patti Harris, Central Point Bethel; Merlyn Borough, associate guardian, Shady Cove Bethel; Miss Carla Borough, Ashland Bethel, and Queen Barbara, Grants Pass Bethel.

Three teams of girls under their captains, the Misses Patti Harris, Laura Rupert and Pat Ellis, will begin selling the cookbooks prepared by the Bethel. The winning team will be entertained by the others at a slumber party.

Scholarship Applications It was announced that Mrs. Merlyn Harvey, guardian, will accept applications for scholarships to be awarded by Job's Daughters to assist girls in study beyond high school level. The awards will be announced at grand session this summer, and deadline for applications is February 15.

Also announced was the supreme guardian's essay contest on "First the Cross, Then the Crown." The essays are to be 500 words in length and must be submitted by June 15.

Dates were announced for future events which include the Bethel dinner and dance in honor of the junior past honored queen and the present honored queen which will be held February 11 in the Mark Antony hotel, Ashland. Initiation and inspection will be March 1.

The next regular meeting will be conducted February 1 by junior Bethel officers.

Mrs. David Howell Honored at Party

Tiller-Drew - Mrs. David Howell was guest of honor at a shower January 19.

Hostesses for the shower, given in the parsonage, were Mrs. Glenn Rogers and Mrs. Richard Long.

Twenty-two women enjoyed an afternoon of games and refreshments. Mrs. Emmet Belcher was winner of a contest. The other winner will be unknown until after the birth of the baby. After the games Mrs. Howell opened her gifts.

The table centerpiece was a cake baked and decorated by Mrs. Richard Long.

Navy Reserve Lt. Richard Schuchard, commanding officer of the Naval Reserve Electronic Division 13-5, Medford, spoke on enlistment opportunities for young men in the Naval Reserve.

Alvin Birman, recreation director for the Veterans Administration domiciliary, White City, spoke on the work of the Veterans Administration Volunteer Services. He mentioned their various activities which included rehabilitation work with the veterans and the beautifying of the domiciliary grounds. He mentioned that more volunteers are needed as the White City domiciliary now has nearly 1,000 veterans.

Among officers introduced were Frank Otley, now of Medford, who is past commander of the post in Kelson, Wash.; Frank Adams and Richard Schulz, both past commanders of the post in Watertown, S.D., and Etha Wall, Edward Smith, Ray Huson, and William Watkins, all Crater Lake post past commanders and Charles Doyle, past junior commander. Mr. Smith is now department hospital chairman of southern Oregon.

Mrs. Harry Birch, auxiliary district president, spoke on the district and Crater Lake auxiliary activities. Mrs. Russell Zundel, department hospital chairman for VA Domiciliary at White City, and her assistant, Mrs. Ben Allison, were introduced.

Past auxiliary presidents present were Mrs. Thomas Flynn, who held that position in Los Angeles; Mrs. Ira Canfield, Mrs. Fred Lawrence, Mrs. Ivan Lusk, Mrs. Ralph Pitcock, Mrs. Allison, and Mrs. O. O. DeBerry, who is now serving her second term as president. Mrs. Amy Randle, junior past president, was also present.

A charter member of the auxiliary who attended the dinner was Mrs. Florence Stacey.

Dancing followed the dinner with music by the VA Domiciliary band, White City. The meeting opened and closed with prayer by the post chaplain Mr. Canfield. Victor David, post commander, and Mrs. DeBerry were in charge of the event and introduced the officers and guests.

Guests present included Mrs. Schuchard, Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Lynch, members of the barracks and auxiliary, Veterans of World War I, and two members of the Medford unit of the Naval Reserve.

Earlier this month members of the auxiliary entertained members of the Crater Lake post at White City. At the meeting pupils of the Thurston Dance studio and accordion pupils of Eve Prentice entertained.

Queen Elizabeth On Tiger Hunt

Jaipur, India - Queen Elizabeth, wearing black slacks and bush jacket, waited patiently atop a wooden platform while native beaters sought and eventually flushed a tiger out of the jungles of Sawaimadhopur.

The queen and her husband, Prince Philip, were guests of the fabulous Maharaja of Jaipur at the tiger shoot. They left this city of pink sandstone palaces Sunday night for the 100-mile train trip to the Maharaja's hunting lodge in the jungles.

An Indian government press officer said the queen and the prince were taken early this morning to a 25-foot-high wooden platform in the jungles. But, he said, it was not until after they had lunched that beaters succeeded in locating a tiger.

The press officer said he had no further details on the hunt.

Major Exhibit Opens Today in Eugene Museum

Eugene - Works by 60 Northwest painters will be included in a major exhibition which opens tonight at the University of Oregon Art Museum.

The show, which is the most important ever organized here, will be open to the public until February 26. Over a hundred paintings by artists from Oregon, Washington and Vancouver, B.C., will be displayed at the Museum.

James F. Colley, acting director of the Museum, began working on the exhibition last summer. "We have brought together work by many of the important painters in the region," Mr. Colley said. "In addition to the artists who's work is already well-known, the exhibition brings to Eugene for the first time work by a number of promising lesser-known painters."

The exhibition of paintings by Northwest artists is the second show to be sponsored this year by the Friends of the Museum. This group is composed of people in all parts of the state who are interested in supporting the Art Museum.

The museum is open Tuesday through Sunday from 1 p.m. until 5 p.m., and on Wednesdays it is also open from 7 p.m. until 10 p.m.

New Officers Installed For Relief Corps

Central Point - William H. Harrison post, Women's Relief Corps, held installation services for new officers recently at the home of Mrs. John Novak, 23 Lincoln street, Medford.

Mrs. Bessie Henderson is the new president; Mrs. Lester Bjeh, senior vice president; Mrs. Emma Pence, junior vice president; Mrs. Gertrude Greb, secretary; Mrs. Albert Hermanson, treasurer; Mrs. Novak, chaplain.

Also Mrs. John Foster, conductor; Mrs. Phillip Griggs, guard; Mrs. Novak, patriotic instructor; Mrs. Eva Smith, assistant guard; Mrs. O. T. Wilson, press correspondent; Mrs. L. D. Hays, Mrs. Sally Musty and Mrs. Wallace McDowell, color bearers.

Mrs. Alva McDowell was installing officer. The members voted a contribution to the Wallie Boen fund to help with medical expenses for Mrs. Boen.

The chaplain presented a corsage to the new president and read a poem of advice for success in the new year. Edwin Jones was guest of honor at dinner. Mrs. Novak invited members to hold their February meeting at her home. Mrs. Smith announced that there will be a "surprise" at the next meeting.

Club To Hold Birthday Party

Townsend club members and friends having birthday anniversaries in January will be honored at a potluck luncheon at 12 o'clock Wednesday, January 25, in Walker's Dreamland.

Mrs. Lena Wilson, Harlem, Mont., was among visitors at last week's meeting. Club members expressed appreciation of a letter published in the Mail Tribune recently eulogizing song writer Reynold (Shorty) Rider, Jacksonville.

Music for last week's meeting was provided by Mrs. Ellen Townsend, Ashland, Eugene Edwards and J. P. Graham, Medford.

Visitors are welcome. Mrs. Ida M. Kelly is president.

Advisor Names New Committees

Miss Mary Beth House, worthy advisor of Warren assembly, Order of Rainbow for Girls, named several of her new committees at the meeting Monday evening at the Masonic temple, Jacksonville.

Named to the telephone committee were the Misses Lona Buffington, Cora Raveron and Marilyn Smith; and Sunshine committee, the Misses Gloria Johnson and Darcy Johnson. The clean up committee will be the five line officers.

Charles Gould, illustrious master of Table Rock council, Royal and Select masters, was introduced.

It was announced that proficiency practice will be held for new officers Saturday, February 6 at 1 p.m. in preparation for the official inspection visit of the supreme inspector, Order of Rainbow for Girls March 19.

Supervisor Is Speaker

"Testing and Placement of Children" was the topic of Miss Gladys Durand, who spoke at a meeting of Hoover Parent - Teacher association, January 13. Miss Durand is elementary supervisor for the Medford schools.

She emphasized that the decision of placement of children into different work groups is made on a local basis. Teachers and the principal who work with the student take into consideration his mental and emotional maturity.

Miss Durand said that "correct placement gives the student 'stretching room,' and helps the exceptionally able child to overcome boredom."

The association's February meeting has been changed to Thursday evening, February 9, according to Mrs. A. J. Johansson, president. Lee Ragsdale, supervisor of health and physical education for Medford public schools, will speak on "Physical education in the Medford schools."

He will also show slides from a study of physical growth of grade school children. The program is to be of special interest to fathers and they will receive double room count credit for attendance.

Flag salute for the January meeting was given by Mrs. W. D. Bowman's Camp Fire Girls group. Mrs. Thomas McCamant opened the meeting with a special thought for the new year.

Mrs. H. H. Colley's second grade room won the attendance award.

Policy Changes Discussed With Leaders

Mrs. Ruth Gerety, executive director for Rogue Camp Fire Girl's council, told the Eagle Point Camp Fire and Blue Bird leaders of new changes in programming and policy endorsed by the National council at a recent meeting.

She spoke to the leaders at their January 18 meeting at the home of Mrs. Merle McGraw.

Leaders workshop for Valentine crafts was given by Mrs. Gerety. The group evaluated the Christmas workshop held in the home of Mrs. Loren Greenwood, in December. Information on resident summer camp was given and tentative plans for it were discussed.

Camp Fire is celebrating its 50th anniversary in March. Plans were made for the annual birthday party to be held in Eagle Point. Mrs. Pat Shelton is in charge of arrangements. All groups will take part and families and friends are invited.

The Leaders association voted to donate a practical gift to the new Community Scout building. The item has not been selected but will be something for the kitchen or in the way of furnishings. Quite a number of trading stamps and coupons also have been deposited in local stores, for use of the building committee in purchasing furnishings, it was reported by a number of leaders.

New Blue Bird handbooks are now available, and the Camp Fire Girls' handbook has been completely revised. Mrs. Gerety stated. Supplies may be purchased by girls, parents and leaders, at Mann's in Medford.

Twin Dispensers

Twin dispensers for clean-up areas easily fit into sink, tub or shower near the regular faucets. Nothing shows but the smooth, chrome-finished nozzles. Out of sight is a sturdy, non-breakable vinyl bottle holding a pint of liquid soap, shampoo, detergent or hand lotion. The bottle fills easily from top of sink. Press down on nozzle, soda fountain style, and out comes the clean-up material.

Starting off the first day of the haute couture fashion shows, Jacques Esterel is the first high fashion designer to reveal his new look.

Esterel, a former construction engineer, is known in Paris as one of the young, avant garde dress designers. When he opened his house, three years ago Brigitte Bardot was one of his "publicized clients."

Jacques Patou is second to present new styles to press and buyers. His long-established Paris fashion house is well-known for wearable styles, good taste and ladylike if not revolutionary styles.

The third big name on the Monday list of Paris fashion openings, Cardin, has for several seasons now been considered as one of the style-setting and most parroted fashion creators.

Paris Shows Opening

Paris - (UPI) - The "World Series" of fashion opens today in Paris and women the world over may begin to worry that their wardrobes will be out of date by the week end.

But they actually needn't. Although it still is impossible to say what Messrs. Dior, Balmain, Cardin and Patou have up their sleeves, fashion experts do not foresee a radical change in the feminine silhouette.

Starting off the first day of the haute couture fashion shows, Jacques Esterel is the first high fashion designer to reveal his new look.

Esterel, a former construction engineer, is known in Paris as one of the young, avant garde dress designers. When he opened his house, three years ago Brigitte Bardot was one of his "publicized clients."

Ashland Woman Leaves for East; Show To Open

Ashland - Mrs. Philip Hanson was to leave Ashland today for New York City to join her husband when he opens soon in "Moby Dick." His engagement is booked by John Lotas.

The actor made headlines in the east when he presented his one-man "Moby Dick" in New Bedford and in Pittsfield, Mass., setting for the famous sea saga and home of its author, Herman Melville. He also was auditioned in New York City.

Last season he toured the west and midwest with his unique show, "Kings and Clowns," based on Hanson's wide experience with Shakespearean characters.

Pythian Sisters Committee Heads Are Appointed

Installation committees were appointed at a meeting of Tulliaman temple, Pythian Sisters, at the Knights of Pythias building January 17. The officers of the installing team practiced before the meeting.

Mrs. Jack Hall, installing officer, made the committee appointments. They are Mrs. Ruth Walden, corsages; Mrs. Leroy Cline, entertainment; Mrs. Harry Bryant and Mrs. Lola Russell, hall decorations; and Mrs. George Thomas and Mrs. Edward Bostwick to decorate the dining room and tables.

Miss Layle Bostwick was obligated as a candidate and will be one of the new members to be initiated during the official visit of the grand chief in the spring.

The net meeting of Past Chiefs' club of the Pythian Sisters has been postponed from January 24 to Tuesday, January 31. Mrs. Harry Barneburg and Mrs. Don Anderson will be hostesses at the home of Mrs. Barneburg.

The officers will be installed by Mrs. P. M. Aldredge and Mrs. John Russell. Mrs. Bostwick and Mrs. Lewis Thompson will be initiated into the club by Mrs. Don Anderson and Mrs. Scott Hall.
