

Retail Sales Tax Is Deductible

Washington—UPI—Taxpayers who itemize their tax deductions may include their payments for:

- Real estate taxes; retail sales taxes; medical expenses, including eyeglasses and dentures; above 3 per cent of income; interest on a home mortgage; special schooling for the mentally or physically handicapped.
- Dues paid to unions and professional societies; contributions to charities, non-profit schools, hospitals, churches (including assessments) and veterans organizations.

This year Internal Revenue has tables for various states showing how much you can claim for sales taxes without, generally, being asked to prove the amount.

You may not deduct such things as: expenses for social clubs; hunting or fishing licenses; auto inspection fees; water taxes; accidental loss of cash or personal property (except in case of natural calamity or theft); damage by rust or gradual erosion; travel to and from work; legal penalties or fines; rent paid for your house or apartment.

Little Girl Dies As Result of Burns

Las Vegas—UPI—Julia Howe, 3, burned critically over two-thirds of her body Jan. 3, died Wednesday after her heart stopped beating for the fourth and final time, while undergoing another blood transfusion at Nellis Air Force Base hospital.

Doctors said her heart stopped beating three times Tuesday night and she was revived each time by intracardial injections of adrenalin.

Julia, daughter of Marine Sgt. Gilbert Howe, was burned when her robe caught on fire while she was playing with a cigarette lighter in her home. An urgent appeal was broadcast for donors with rare B-negative type blood who had suffered burns over at least 20 per cent of their bodies.

CONDUCTOR RESIGNS

Portland—UPI—Conductor Piero Bellugi has resigned from the Portland Symphony Society effective April 30.
