Attic Fire - Attic and roof were damaged by fire in the house occupied by Jerry Reaves, First and Cherry sts., Central Point, last night. Firemen, who were summoned at 11:55 p.m., said that apparently a defective flue was the cause. They reported water and smoke damage to other parts of the small residence.

Tools Missing - Lawrence Gilbert Crow, 655 Pine st., told city police Thursday that an estimated $50 worth of tools and automobile accessories are missing from a residence at 718 Welch st. Police said the house is being repaired, and it is possible that the thief made entry through a hole in the roof.

In Custody - Two 13-year-old Medford girls were taken into protective custody by city police Thursday afternoon after they were apprehended by a store clerk trying to take several articles from a downtown store without paying for them. The girls admitted the theft and were released to the custody of their parents.
