Eagle Point - Mr. and Mrs. Arthur L. Langston, Annapolis, Calif., spent last week end visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Lester McFall and family, Eagle Point. Mrs. Langston is a sister of Mr. McFall.

Miss Davidson, James Fowler Engaged to Wed

Mr. and Mrs. Walter C. Davidson, 1308 Eureka circle, announce the engagement of their daughter, Jeanette Marie, to James H. Fowler, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Fowler, Needles, Calif.

Miss Davidson is a student at Linfield college, where she is a member of Kappa Alpha Phi sorority. A twin sister, Annette, is a student at Oregon State college.

Her fiancé attended Portland city schools and Portland State college. He is employed by Meier and Frank Department store. No date has been set for their wedding.

Miss Denise Bruning

Couple To Wed In March Rites

Central Point - Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Warren, 57 North Ninth street, Central Point, announce the marriage of their daughter, Linda Caroline, to Carl Le Roy Sieg, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Sieg, 2624 Walden place, Medford. The wedding has been set for March 18 at 8 p.m. in First Methodist church.

The bride-to-be is employed at the Medford Mail Tribune in the display advertising department. She attended Southern Oregon college. Mr. Sieg attends Southern Oregon college, majoring in business administration. He is employed at the Eastside market.

Car Club Has Party

Mr. and Mrs. Harris Ross, 2432 Edgemont drive, entertained members of the Sixty-Six Sports Car club in their home January 21. During the champagne party the group christened the Ross' dog "Ma Chere Tinker Belle," a toy poodle which will be the club's mascot in the future.

The group met at the Ross home earlier to start on an afternoon tour through the valley.

William McCarl, president of the club, served as master of ceremonies for the evening's festivities.

Two Students In Play Company

Robert A. Bray and Stephen Hoag of Medford will be members of the company when the Oregon State college speech department stages an old-fashioned melodrama February 9, 10 and 11.

Six plays are presented by the department each year to give speech students experience in dramatic productions and to give other students an opportunity to see some of the nation's best plays. The melodrama, "The Great Diamond Robbery," is a special feature of this year's series.

Mr. Hoag, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo E. Hoag, 158 Renault avenue, is a junior in civil engineering. He is music director for the production. Mr. Bray, a senior in business and technology, is a son of Dr. and Mrs. J. J. Bray, 317 Lozier lane.

Easter Monday Event Planned

The annual Easter Monday luncheon of St. Anne's Altar society of Sacred Heart Catholic church will be held April 3. "Spring Debut" will be the theme.

Plans for the event were made at a recent luncheon at the R. A. Naumes home. Mrs. Naumes is general chairman. The Easter Monday luncheon is always one of the largest spring benefit parties held in the valley.

Brays Return From Vacation

Dr. and Mrs. J. P. Bray have returned to their Lozier lane home after spending two weeks in California. They were guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Brown and Frank Brown at Trinidad for several days, and then continued to Ukiah where they visited Mrs. Bray's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Benney Reimer. The Reimers operate a vineyard on the Russian river.

Returning to Trinidad, Dr. Bray made a fishing trip up the Klamath river with Howard Matson, reporting that Mr. Matson drives his Jeep up and down the stream bed to reach his favorite fishing spots. The Brays brought back with them some native wild California holly bushes for their garden here.

Betrothal News Announced At Party Saturday Night

Miss Gail Murray

Parents Tell Betrothal News In California

Announcement was made in Pacific Beach, Calif., recently of the engagement of Miss Gail Murray, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Murray, Pacific Beach, to Dennis King, formerly of Medford.

The announcement was made at an open house at the home of the parents of the bridegroom-to-be, Mr. and Mrs. D. Cleve King. Friends of the young couple received replicas of the engagement ring, tied with white satin ribbon imprinted with the couple's names. No date has been set for the wedding.

The bridegroom-to-be was graduated from Medford High school in 1957 and is a senior in chemical engineering at Oregon State college. He is a member of Sigma Nu fraternity.

Portland Man To Speak Here

Medford Garden club will have as guest speaker February 2 Claude Mills, Portland. Mr. Mills, who was awarded the 1960 Certificate of Merit for his years of support and devotion to garden clubs from the Oregon Federation of Garden clubs, will offer color slides to illustrate his talk on horticulture.

His topic will be "New Plant Introductions," or showing something new and different for your garden. Mrs. Ray Cyr will give a talk on the shrub of the month, "Daphne Mezereum." Mrs. L. P. Rentschler will be tea chairman.

Anyone in the community interested in these garden club meetings is invited to attend. They are held the first Thursday of each month at the county courthouse at 1:30 p.m. Mrs. Dayton DePue, president, requests a meeting of her officers and chairmen Monday, January 30, at her home, 1019 Murray street.

Make Party Plans

Mothers of Twins club will meet Thursday, February 2, at the home of Mrs. C. Gordon Morris, 107 South Elm street, Medford, at 8 p.m. Members will discuss plans for a Valentine party to be held Saturday, February 11. Every mother of twins is invited to attend.

Choir Member Honored At Party on Wednesday

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Adamson were hosts to the members of the Chancel choir of First Methodist church for an annual party last Wednesday night. The party was held in the Library Room of the Church, and Mrs. Harry Meyers was the honored guest. This was in recognition of 20 years of continuous service to the choir.

Mr. Meyers, who is a music instructor in the Central Point schools, took part in the skit which told the story of the Meyers family, as did their daughter, Carol, who is Mrs. John Lynch, and her 8-year-old daughter, Candy. Due to the illness of her little son, Johnnie, neither Johnnie nor his father, were able to attend.

Martha Meyers was born in Germany, and came to the United States at the age of fifteen. Harry Meyers, born in Amsterdam, Holland, decided to seek his fortune in America when he was seventeen. The couple became acquainted in Wisconsin, and were married there, coming to Oregon more than 20 years ago.

Mrs. Louise Davis presented a gift from the choir, with appropriate poetry eulogizing Mrs. Meyers' years of service and the "millions of notes" she has sung within these walls. Mrs. Meyers responded with the remark that the choir was one of the great pleasures of her life, and that she had loved every single note, as well as the very happy fellowship in this choir.

Engagement Announced At Open House

Trail - Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hume, Trail, held open house recently in honor of their daughter, Jacqueline, and Larry Gene Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lennis Smith, Eagle Point. The engagement of Miss Hume and Mr. Smith was announced at that time. No date has been set for the wedding.

Miss Josephine Hume, twin sister of the bride-elect, was also a hostess for the open house.

Guests were Mrs. Harry Harding, Trail, grandmother of Miss Hume, Mr. Smith's parents, Miss Judy DeHaven, Miss Aedene Jensen, Miss Bonnie and Miss Vonnie Goehring, Steven Geren, James Ackerman, Oliver Britt, Michael Palm, all Eagle Point; Miss Suzi Chubb, Miss Bonnie Smith, Miss Phyllis Briggs, Miss Eda Larson and Bennard Nork, all Shady Cove; Mrs. Lewis Dusenberry, Mrs. Thomas Denninger, Mr. and Mrs. Elden Elder, Willie B. Polivert and Elvin Hawkins, all Trail.

The bride-elect is a senior at Eagle Point High school. Her fiancé was graduated from the same school in 1959.

Couple Returns From Washington

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn L. Jackson have returned to their home on Greenway circle after being in Washington, D.C., for the inauguration of President John F. Kennedy.

The Jacksons attended the Inaugural Ball held at the Sheraton Park hotel as guests of Gen. Jess Larson. They were among a group of guests invited to a cocktail party given by Gen. and Mrs. Ira Eaker in honor of Donald Douglas, but due to the storm condition in the city that evening, were forced to return to their hotel without reaching the club where the party was held.

Couple Honored At Recent Party

Mr. and Mrs. D. T. Ferguson, Black Oaks, were hosts for a pre-nuptial shower honoring Miss Linda Dysinger and Fred Sutton, whose wedding is set for February 11. The bride-to-be is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leiland Dysinger, 116 South Third street, Central Point, and her fiancé is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Sutton, Okanogan, Wash.

Guests at the shower read poems, staged a mock wedding and played games. Many gifts were presented to the young couple.

About 60 guests attended.

Birthday Celebration Plans Told

Mrs. Evelyn Henrichs, president of Medford Sojourners, announced plans for a birthday celebration of the club when members met last Thursday.

A no-host luncheon observing the 21st birthday of Medford Sojourners will be held Thursday, February 9, at 12:30 p.m. at the Girls Community club. Charter members and past presidents will be special guests.

Reservations for the luncheon may be made by calling Mrs. C. C. Griffiths, SPing 3-5663 or Mrs. Robert Babcock, SPing 3-7928.

Hostesses for last Thursday afternoon were Mrs. Jerry Schwinler, Mrs. Frances Bean, Mrs. John Goodwin and Mrs. Edna Evans.

Prospective members attending for the first time were Mrs. William Brightman, Mrs. Jack Henderson, Mrs. Harmon Justus and Mrs. Jack Kennedy.

Mrs. Gordon Lanfer of Darrington, Wash., was a guest.

New members received into the club were Mrs. Carl Johnson and Mrs. Herbert Rowe.

After the business meeting cards were played with prizes going to Mrs. O. J. Rasmussen and Mrs. Herbert Rowe for bridge; pinocle to Mrs. John Niss and Mrs. Jack Kennedy; and canasta to Mrs. W. A. Hatch and Mrs. George Carlton. A special award was received by Mrs. John Mansfield.

The club invites all women who have resided in Medford and vicinity for two years or less to attend and become members.

Student Is Princess

Miss Marsha O'Sullivan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. O'Sullivan, 518 North Barneburg road, has been named Marylhurst college princess for the Intercollegiate Winter Carnival at Mt. Hood. She has been given a complete ski outfit, and will compete with princesses from 18 other colleges in Washington, Oregon, California and Montana for the title of Queen.

Miss O'Sullivan succeeds another Medford collegian, Miss Carol Robinson, daughter of Mrs. Mildred Robinson of 236 South Oakdale avenue, who was Marylhurst's princess last year. Scheduled for February 24-26, the Winter Carnival is expected to draw between seven and nine thousand students to Timberline lodge.

A sophomore art major at Marylhurst, Miss O'Sullivan was honored for campus popularity on St. Patrick's day last year with the title "Miss Colleen."

Medford Woman Guest in Paris

Mrs. H. F. Knight, 452 Fairmont street, left January 26 for Paris, France, where she is visiting her son, Walter Knight.

Mr. Knight has spent the last 1 1/2 years in France where he is studying the French language. Prior to her return home Mrs. Knight and her son will visit Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Prentiss, family friends, in London, England.

Mrs. Knight's trip to Paris was arranged by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Frye.
