

Mr. and Mrs. James Michael Daly (Anders photo)

Catholic Rites Marry Couple

The wedding of Susan Robin Day to James Michael Daly took place Saturday, January 21, in Sacred Heart Catholic church. The bride is the younger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Benjamin Day, Jr., Gold Key, Central Point, and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Arthur Patrick Daly, Long Island City, Queens, N.Y., and the late Mr. Daly.

The Rev. John Ilg performed the double-ring nuptial mass at 10:30 o'clock in the morning. Arrangements of white chrysanthemums provided a setting for the ceremony and baskets of flowers also decorated the church. Bruno Pollogrini was organist. The bride was escorted to the altar by her father. She wore a floor-length gown of princess style, with short sleeves. Her veil tapered from waist length in front to floor length in back and was held by a small crown of pearls and tiny white flowers. She carried an heirloom lace handkerchief which had belonged to the grandmother of Mrs. John S. Day, aunt of the bride. Her flowers were white roses and stephanotis.

Mrs. Edward J. Dierauf, nee Verity Day, Berkeley, Calif., was matron of honor for her sister. She wore a blue semi-sheath dress, which was accented with folds of the material which crossed in front and knotted in back, falling to the hemline. Mrs. Dierauf also wore a blue feather hat and carried a bouquet of blue iris.

The bride's mother wore a blue silk dress with flowered hat to match and a corsage of blue iris. Mrs. Dale B. Mathias, Seattle, sister of the bridegroom, wore a royal blue faille dress with flowered hat and a white carnation corsage.

Best Man
Mr. Matthias served as best man for his brother-in-law. Ushers were Christopher Day, Monterey, Calif., brother of the bride, and Mr. Dierauf, the bride's brother-in-law.

A wedding breakfast for relatives of the bride and bridegroom was held at the Day home following the ceremony, and a reception was held in the afternoon at the Colony club. Mrs. Earl B. Day cut and served the wedding cake and Mrs. Harold Jordan, Talent, poured. Mrs. Richard Rementeria assisted. Blue and white flower arrangements decorated the rooms.

The bride is a graduate of Crater High school and attended Maryhurst college, Oswego, and San Francisco College for Women. She plans to continue her schooling at College of the Holy Names in Oakland.

The bride was born in Medford and has lived in Sams Valley all of her life. Her grandfather, Earl B. Day, is a former Jackson county judge and her maternal grandfather, Guy W. Conner, now of Portland, came to the Rogue valley in 1912.

The bridegroom is a graduate of City College of New York. He attended graduate school at the University of California at Berkeley and is an engineer with Kaiser Engineers, Oakland.

The newlyweds traveled to the San Francisco Bay area by air and will continue south by car for their wedding trip. The bride wore a brown ensemble for traveling. They will be at home at 1502 Alice street, Oakland.

A rehearsal dinner for relatives and out-of-town guests was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John S. Day. Cocktails were served at the home of the bride's parents prior to the dinner.

The bride was honored at a shower given by friends at San Francisco College for Women before the wedding, and another shower was given by friends of the bride's mother at the home of Mrs. Robert Shepherd.

Coming from out of town for the wedding, in addition to the wedding party, were Mr. and Mrs. Dale Rice, uncle and aunt of the bride, and children, Gold Beach; Mr. and Mrs. Warner Stewart, Yreka; Mr. and Mrs. Jack Eyerly, James Shull, Grant Day and Robert Ramsden, Salem; Mrs. Christopher Day, Monterey; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Weston, Berkeley, and Larry Jackson, London, England, who is a teaching fellow at the University of California, Berkeley.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Carl Miller (Simonson-Walker)

Miss Kay Sutton Bride Of Robert Carl Miller

Miss Kay Diane Sutton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd O. Sutton, 3761 South Pacific highway, became the bride of Robert Carl Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph R. Miller, 712 West Jackson street, in a ceremony Sunday, January 15. The Rev. George Roseberry performed the wedding at two o'clock in the afternoon in First Methodist church.

White chrysanthemums, carnations and blue Dutch iris decorated the church. Mrs. Leslie C. Boardman, organist, accompanied George Garner, who sang. About 150 guests attended.

The bride, accompanied to the altar by her father, wore a gown of white Chantilly lace and tulle over taffeta. It was designed with long sleeves and a scoop neckline. Her cascade bouquet was of stephanotis and white carnations centered with a white orchid. A seed pearl headpiece held her white tulle veil.

Mrs. James A. Rose was matron of honor for her sister. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Robert W. Sutton, sister-in-law of the bride, Seattle, Wash., and Miss Sue Gill, Corvallis. They wore gowns of sky blue bridal satin, styled with rolled full collars, three-quarter-length sleeves and full skirts of unpressed pleats. Their blue satin headbands held short blue tulle veils. They carried bouquets of white carnations.

The bride's mother chose a gown of champagne brocade with a white carnation corsage and the bridegroom's mother wore a flowered blue jersey gown with pink and white carnation corsage.

James L. Miller, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Ushers were Paul L. Smith, Gene Boling and Robert W. Sutton, Seattle, brother of the bride.

At the reception which followed in the church, Mrs. Kirt Greenwood and Miss Janis Rose cut and served the cake, which had been baked and decorated by Mrs. Guy Erickson. Mrs. Harold B. Cook and Miss Margery Good poured. Mrs. Carl Miller was in charge of the guest book.

The young couple traveled to northern California on their honeymoon and are at home at 814 West Second street. The bride wore a champagne beige wool dress with beige accessories for travel.

The bride and bridegroom attended Medford High school and he is employed by Fir Ply, Inc.

Wedding Dinner In Jacksonville Honors Couple

Ashland - Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth C. Allen were hosts Monday evening, January 23, at their Jacksonville home for a buffet wedding supper in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Willard Meyerhoff, Spokane, Wash. Sixteen guests attended.

The ceremony which married the Spokane couple had been performed in the afternoon in the chambers of Justice of the Peace Frances Gallatin in Ashland, with Mr. and Mrs. Allen as witnesses.

The bride, who was Florence Kirchner before her marriage, wore a purple frock of lightweight wool with green and violet accessories. Her corsage was of cymbidium orchids.

After a month's honeymoon that will include southern California, Mexico and Lake Tahoe, Mr. and Mrs. Meyerhoff will return to Spokane where the bridegroom is consultant for Audiophone corporation.

The Allens and Meyerhoffs are longtime friends, having known each other when they lived in Washington.

Club To Observe Third Anniversary

Ashland - Business and Professional Women's club members will celebrate their third anniversary Wednesday evening, February 1, with a covered dish dinner in Wesley house.

According to Mrs. Alice Willits, chairman of the 6:30 p.m. dinner, those attending are to take their own table service. Rolls, coffee and dessert will be furnished.

The after-dinner program will feature music under the direction of Mrs. Adelaide Spencer and a resume of the club's activities by its three presidents, Mrs. Marjorie Peterson, Mrs. Viola Squire and Mrs. Louise Myers.

LOST ALMOST 100 POUNDS

"I've lost almost 100 Pounds with Stauffer, but I'm firm and lovely as a girl"

At 50 Mrs. Collett was resigned to being a 'fat lady' — then a friend lost with Stauffer and she was encouraged to try.

SAYS
Mrs. Clara Collett who started gaining at 20 and kept on for 30 years.
BEFORE STAUFFER
AFTER STAUFFER

When Mrs. Collett had a Stauffer demonstration she learned how the Stauffer Home Plan — adjusted menus and effortless exercise on the Posture Rest — could bring her guaranteed results. She decided that she would follow the Stauffer program planned just for her. Week by week she became slimmer.

"Now it's hard for me to believe that I weighed almost 100 pounds more," says Mrs. Collett. "I feel younger... everything is easier. The 'Magic Couch' keeps my body firm and supple." Perhaps you've been overweight for so many years that you've forgotten what a joy it is to be slender. Or maybe you have just recently become overweight. It doesn't matter. The Stauffer Home Plan can work for you, too.

But postponement offers no reward. Start NOW.

Call Today—Ask About the 20 Day Studio Special for New and Former Customers.

Stauffer HOME REDUCING PLAN
Of Effortless Exercise and Calorie Reduction
445 N. Bartlett SP 3-7551
Open 9:00 a.m. to 9:00 p.m.
Monday Thru Friday
Grants Pass — GR 9-2516

Work of Medford Artists Displayed in Eugene Show

Eugene—Three artists from Medford are participating in the "Northwest Painters, 1961", invitational exhibition of painters from Oregon, Washington and British Columbia, now showing until February 26, at the Museum of Art on the University of Oregon campus.

Eugene Bennett, whose exhibitions are nationally known, is showing an oil and sand, "Bronzed Basalt" and an oil "Red Rock".

Robert L. Bosworth, showing two untitled water colors, has had many California and Oregon exhibitions and shows with awards and prizes.

Two oils, "Human Conflict" and "The Chosen" are being shown by Warren Wolf. He has had numerous one-man shows in art centres throughout the state as well as the East.

"Northwest Painters, 1961" exhibit is made financially possible by Friends of the Museum and organized by the Museum of Art. It was organized with the idea of balancing a number of the better known artists against an equal number of lesser-known artists whose work has shown much promise.

A large number of Mr. Bos-worth's paintings will be exhibited in Medford's Rogue gallery, 220 West Main street, beginning tonight with a preview for members of Rogue Valley Art association. The exhibit will be open to the public, without charge for admission, Tuesdays through Sundays from 12 noon until 4 p.m. The gallery is closed Mondays.

Couple Married in Reno Service

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Eckel are making their home at 212 Rose street following their marriage January 14 in the Lutheran church in Reno, Nevada. The Rev. John Meuler officiated at the ceremony.

The bride is the former Marla Jennings, granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Taylor, Jacksonville. The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Eckel, 2409 Happy Valley road, Medford.

Accompanying the couple to Reno were Miss Carmen Jennings, sister of the bride, and Dennis Hare, Cave Junction.

The bride attended Medford High school. Mr. Eckel is employed by Kogak Lumber company.

Shower Honors Miss Whealdon; Rites February 4

Eagle Point - Miss Patricia Whealdon was honored at a bridal shower given Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Cleo Cartwright, South B street, Eagle Point. Miss Whealdon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Whealdon, Anderson, Calif., is the fiancée of John W. Lucas Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Lucas, Table Rock road.

The couple plans to be married at New Age church, Eagle Point, February 4.

Miss Whealdon was graduated from the Salmon High school in British Columbia, Canada, in 1953. Mr. Lucas was graduated from the Eagle Point High school the same year and is engaged in construction work.

Mrs. Cartwright and Mrs. William White were co-hostesses for the event. Guests were Mrs. Lucas, Mrs. Robert Ticer, Mrs. Clarence Sinclair, Mrs. Leroy Farley, Mrs. William Jackson, Mrs. Dean Cain, Mrs. Roland Bemis, Mrs. Dale Jefferson, Mrs. Kenneth Baker, Mrs. Ethel Coy, Mrs. Eula Haverer, Mrs. Arthur Kent, Mrs. Kenneth Oswald, Mrs. W. Pollock and Mrs. Vera Kimmel.

Mothers' March Set in Gold Hill

Gold Hill - A "Mothers' March" of Dimes will be held within the city limits of Gold Hill Tuesday, January 31. Sponsored by the Health unit, the march will be in conjunction with a county-wide program to aid with the fight against polio. Due to the fact that some residents may not have porch lights to turn on, the workers will call on each home.

Mrs. Clarence Parsley, president of the unit who is acting chairman for the occasion, asked those who plan to participate in the "Mothers' March" to meet at the home of Mrs. Paul Molloy at 7:45 p.m. to receive their instructions.

Coin containers were placed by Mrs. Parsley in the business establishments.

Mrs. Arthur Boye is co-chairman and is in charge of the rural area mailing project.

Ira McDonalds To Return Home

Mr. and Mrs. Ira McDonald, 110 Lozier lane, will return to Medford this week after a vacation in southern California and Seattle.

This week they are visiting their son, Calvin D. McDonald, who is doing graduate work at Seattle Pacific college. During the week and they are attending the festivities at the college including the crowning of the queen in which their son will participate.

Beautiful Eyeglasses Yours in 5 Minutes

Your present lenses mounted in new beautiful frames for the holidays

"while you wait" . . . and at very little cost, too! Captivating eyeframes from the largest collection ever offered in this area. Newest colors and shapes from European and Domestic designers and craftsmen. Skilled, fashion-wise dispensers to help you. Visit the office nearest you.

- No Appointment Needed
- Convenient Credit
- Complete Eye Examination Available
- We Give 5¢ Green Stamps

our 56th year
COLUMBIAN OPTICAL CO.
MEDFORD SHOPPING CENTER

Dr. Noles
optometrist

*Drs. Noles, Alexander, Brewer, Anderson, Leitzel, Holston, Halquist, Crowell, Hermann, Peters, Siddens, Keir and Olerman

It's from Prophecy's Medford

Serving Southern Oregon and Northern California for Over 30 Years

A Family Diamond for an Engagement Ring

for your son's bride or your bride-to-be daughter is one of the finest ways to utilize the gem. Family tradition and sentiment can be carried on by having the old mounting replaced with a beautiful new one.

- A. Fourteen karat white or yellow gold $25
- B. Ten baguette diamonds in platinum $285
- C. Four diamonds in fishtail setting $150
- D. Two tapered baguettes 14k white gold $85
- E. Six channel-set diamonds in platinum $200
- F. Round-cuts and baguettes in platinum $145

Prices include Federal tax

For the Diamonds You'll Give With Pride...
Let Prophecy's Be Your Guide

Prophecy's JEWELERS
MEDFORD, OREGON
Quality Diamonds Honestly Priced

DAVID CRYSTAL Fashion

at jean hart's

David Crystal's® Travelogue for 1961

Part-side costume: no sleeve dress and jacket of EARLLOOM FABRICS' acetate-rayon-silk plaid in Navy, Black or Brown. A DAVID CRYSTAL® in sizes 10 to 20. Ours exclusively

Where you find the clothes you love to live in.

617 East Main Phone 2-8992