

Earhart Day Marked By Zontians

Members of Medford Zonta club met January 26, at the Medford hotel for the annual Amelia Earhart day luncheon. January is Amelia Earhart Month for the service club, and Zontians throughout the world hold special observances.

Mrs. Eloise Winklebleck, president, spoke of the winners of the Amelia Earhart scholarships which have been awarded to young women of many nations who have qualified in the field of aeronautics.

Miss Adabee Seiler introduced the guest speaker, Major Ray Stewart, advisor of the U. S. Army Reserve unit and United States Military academy assistance officer. Major Stewart spoke on the ways that interested young men may secure nomination to the Military academy. He reviewed the history of the establishment of the academy and told of its standard of excellence in knowledge, self-discipline and integrity. The major reminded the group that he is willing to assist any qualified young man who is interested in obtaining a nomination to any of the armed services academies.

Medford Zonta club will meet with the Grants Pass and Roseburg clubs in Grants Pass February 2 for initiation of new members. Among those to be initiated are Mrs. Violet Hunter and Miss Dana Platz of Medford. Mr. and Mrs. J. Bolton have invited Zontians and their guests to an open house and tea, Sunday, February 5, from 2 to 5 o'clock at their new home on Panorama drive.

V. R. Mode, San Francisco, served as best man and sealing the 75 relatives and friends were Dennis Welch, San Leandro, and Floyd Aylin, Hayward.

A reception followed the ceremony.

The bride attended Omaha, Neb. schools and Whitworth college, Spokane, Wash. Mr. Wilson attended Ashland schools and Willamette university, Salem, prior to transferring to the Los Angeles Conservatory of Music.

The bridegroom, now first violinist in the Portland Symphony orchestra, is a former member of the orchestra of the Philharmonic Society of Southern Oregon. He has appeared as a guest soloist in programs given at Southern Oregon college, was guest soloist with the Southern Oregon Philharmonic orchestra last year and in 1958 was soloist for the annual silver tea of the Women's association of First Presbyterian church, Medford.

The couple is at home in Portland where they are both with the Portland school system.

Among the wedding guests were Mr. and Mrs. Wilson, parents of the bridegroom.

Wilson-Joseph Wedding News of Interest Here

Ashland - Of interest to valley residents is the wedding in Hayward, Calif., of Miss Sandra Lee Joseph, Portland, to Harlalee Allen Wilson, also Portland, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence M. Wilson, 666 Iowa avenue, Ashland.

The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Stanley C. Joseph, Big Bend, Texas. Mr. Joseph gave his daughter in marriage. The Rev. Saul Miller of Eden Congregational church officiated at the double ring rites held at 8 o'clock in the evening December 29 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Aylin, uncle and aunt of the bride.

The bride wore an afternoon length dress of white brocade with full gathered skirt. Her short veil was held by a pearl crown and she carried a bouquet of red roses and stephanotis.

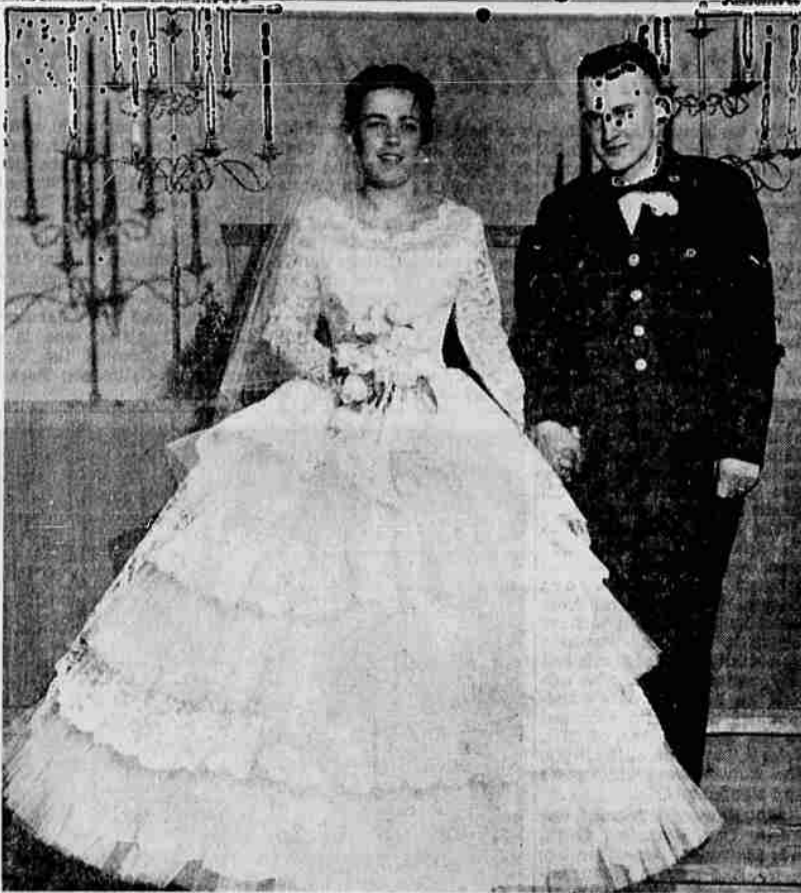

Miss Katherine Joseph, Big Bend, Texas, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a white chiffon over taffeta frock with red velvet cummerbund and carried a bouquet of red roses. Candlelighters were the Misses Janet and Joan Whittaker, Stockton, Calif.

Wilson-Higday Wedding

Eagle Point-Miss Betty Ann Higday became the bride of Robert Wilson in a double-ring ceremony held January 22 at the Berean Baptist church, White City. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Higday, 108 West Fifth street, Eagle Point. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Roy Wilson, Canon City, Colo., and he is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Delton Stephenson, Eagle Point.

The Rev. Gerald Smith, former pastor of the Reese Creek Community church, officiated at the 2:30 o'clock afternoon rites attended by 135 friends and relatives. Miss Ruth Westover, soloist, was accompanied by Miss Georgia Weidman, who played the organ wedding music.

The church was decorated with two baskets of white chrysanthemums and two candelabras holding tapers.

Mr. Higday escorted his daughter to the altar and gave her in marriage.

The bride wore a floor-length white Chantilly lace and nylon net gown. It was fashioned with a net tiered skirt and a lace bodice. The scalloped neckline was trimmed with rhinestones and her fingertip length veil was held by a matching lace headpiece edged with pearls. She carried a bouquet of white tulips encircling a white orchid.

Miss Donna Hunt, Colton, Calif., cousin of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a powder blue crystalline frock over a taffeta sheath. Miss Jane Westover was bridesmaid. Her frock was a powder blue net sheath. Both wore matching shoes and carried bouquets of deep pink carnations and pale blue lace.

Little Debbie Tryon was flower girl. Her dress was powder blue taffeta trimmed with white lace and she carried a white basket of pink carnation petals. All three wore shoulder-length veils.

The couple traveled to Yreka, Calif., on their wedding trip, the bride wearing for traveling a light beige suit with black accessories and the orchid from her bridal bouquet. They returned to Eagle Point to visit with relatives then will leave for Seattle, Wash. From there Mr. Wilson, an airman third class in the U.S. Air Force, will leave for Anchorage, Alaska, where he is stationed. His bride plans to join him there in August.

The bride is a 1960 graduate of Eagle Point High school where she was chosen as outstanding senior girl in the Girls Athletic association and the previous year was selected as the outstanding band member. She was attending Robertson School of Business, Medford, prior to her marriage. Mr. Wilson was graduated from the Canon City, Colo., High school and has served with the U. S. Air Force for the past 1 1/2 years.

Among the out of town guests attending the wedding and reception in addition to Mr. and Mrs. Wilson, parents of the bridegroom, were Mrs. Ada Wilkerson, Canon City, Colo., grandmother of the bridegroom, and Mr. and Mrs. Cloyd James and children, Redding, Calif., aunt and uncle of the bride.

The bride's parents were hosts at a rehearsal party the evening prior to the wedding for members of the wedding party.

Several bridal showers honored the bride-elect. They were given by Mrs. Stephenson at her home on Butte Falls highway, Mrs. Ray Charters at the Higday home, Mrs. Dale Ackerman and Mrs. Don Anderson at the Ackerman home on Stevens road, and Mrs. Bohannon at her home in Medford.

Michael Higday, brother of the bride, served as best man. Ron Anderson and Ira Conner were ushers. Dusty Hoffman was ring bearer.

For her daughter's wedding and the reception which followed at the church, Mrs. Higday selected a light green satin brocade two piece dress with beige accessories. Mrs. Wilson wore a brown jersey print dress with brown accessories. Their corsages were yellow orchids.

Mrs. Don Anderson cut and served the wedding cake and Mrs. Stephenson and Mrs. Dale Ackerman presided at the punch bowl. Mrs. Allen Bohannon, Medford, poured the coffee and Miss Molly Gregg was in charge of the guest book. Miss Kay Stephenson, cousin of the bridegroom, and Miss Paulette Anderson were at the gift tables.

Miss Jane Westover caught the bridal bouquet.

JAN. 29 - FEB. 5 YOUTH WEEK UNITED CHRISTIAN YOUTH MOVEMENT

Developing Keen Minds and a Clean Outlook for Tomorrow—

Much has been said of "juvenile delinquency," yet little note has been taken of the great majority of America's boys and girls who live clean, wholesome lives. That is why we gladly recognize NATIONAL YOUTH WEEK as another indication that Youth is seeking a true understanding of life. The young people of this community are joining with millions throughout the Nation in learning and practicing the highest ethics, and developing vigorous, healthy minds. Our hats are off to them!

... and Most Important to us—is the fact that we, as an industry, contribute a large portion to the health of both their minds and bodies by providing nature's most perfect nourishment—MILK. For young and old alike, MILK is as essential to your daily living as the necessity for education.

For Healthy Minds and Bodies— Drink at Least 3 Glasses of Milk a Day!
