

Yreka Tops Eagle Point

Yreka, Calif. - Yreka high's Miners whipped Eagle Point, Ore., 54 to 38 in basketball on Saturday night.

The Miners applied a strong zone defense and were helped by cold Eagle shooting and faulty ball-handling. Yreka period margins were 15 to 8, 24 to 21 and 42 to 25. Jack Lawe was high point man for the Eagles with 15.

Eagle Point won the junior varsity tussle 39 to 31.

Klamath Union high school rode firmly in the driver's seat today as Southern Oregon conference basketball teams looked toward the second half of the titular chase.

The Pelicans held a two-game margin over the second running Medford high cagers after turning back the Black Tornado 73 to 58 Saturday at Klamath Falls. Triumph maintained for the Pels an unmarred circuit record at the half-way mark of the quest.

Klamath on Saturday subdued a Medford club which played, good hard ball but was disastrously cold during two quarters.

The Black Tornado whirled to a 20 to 14 first period lead but made only two of 17 tries from the field in the second session. Klamath fought on top 34 to 32 by the halftime stop and boosted its margin to 57 to 47 in the third quarter. Medford connected on just two of 15 field efforts in the final chukkers and, thereby, couldn't get a rally. The Tornadoes had the opportunities but just couldn't make the ball go through. Quinney Has 28.

Game high individual point honors, however, went to Medford's Bob Quinney with 26 and the Tornadoes' Dick Ragsdale had 16. For the Pelicans Bruce Bricker put in 20, Gary Patzke 18 and Wally Palmberg 17. Bruce Braker of Medford topped rebounding with 10 retrievals. Bricker had nine for KF.

After Klamath went to the lead in the second panel, a Ragsdale rebound tied the game at 26-26. KF's Ray Taylor traded a jumper with Bray's two free tosses for 28 each and Bray made it 29 with another jumper. Goals by Bricker, Patzke and Palmberg took Klamath to 34 to 29. Another jumper by Bray and a Ragsdale layup made it 34 to 32.

The Pels were ahead by four to seven points through the third canto. In the last 1 1/2 minutes of the period Patzke's hook, Bricker's rebounder and Sherm Allen's jumper established a 10-point margin.

Medford, which had 308 gunning average for the night, went seven minutes in the last quarter before getting a field goal. Tornado rebounding strength was hurt when Bob Quinney, who played a fine game along with Ragsdale, was assessed his 10 personal

St. Mary's of Medford downed Butte Falls high 48 to 40 Friday night at Butte Falls to pull even again in Jackson County B league basketball with Prospect.

The Crusaders, heading only 33 to 32 going into the final stanza, got their fast break to click for three quick baskets to widen its bulge. Poor shooting and poor defense otherwise plagued the Medford team but a bright spot was the rebounding of Florian Shasky. He made 22 retrievals for the Crusaders.

Butte Falls had 12 to 10 quarter and 21 to 19 first half margin and the Loggers' Dan Remsen and Art Ellis with 19 and 11 respective points were scoring leaders. Aundre Knutson had 10 for SM.

St. Mary's jayvees also won 43 to 42 on Jie Viola's free toss with five seconds to play. Ira Rambo had 14 points for BF and Pete Naumes 13 for the Crusaders.

Fourth and last league meeting between the two schools is slated Tuesday night at St. Mary's.

Cavemen Hoopsters Defeat Crater High

Central Point - Grants Pass retained its grip on lone third place in Southern Oregon conference maulcourt standings Saturday night with a 74 to 55 decision over the Crater High Comets in a game which marked the midway point in the league campaign for both contingents.

Spurred by the big men in their lineup, the Cavemen turned the tide in their favor in the late second quarter and were not severely threatened after taking a 16-point spread in the early second half. Grants Pass went in front to stay in the opening minute on the second canto but were pressed until a seven-point surge just before the midway buzzer.

The outcome left GP with a 44 loop mark, two games back of second place Medford. Crater, by losing, missed a chance to tie for third and is 2-6 in the loop.

Grants Pass utilized tough defense which allowed the Comets few close-in points and the Cavemen, making good use of the better all-around height, were sharper in judging the bound of the ball. They had some fine play making. Early fouls hampered Crater's two big men, Dennis Edwards and Bryson LaCasse. Each picked up three personals in the first quarter and LaCasse was assessed his fourth as the second canto got underway.

The Comets were ahead 17 to 15 at the quarter. Grants Pass had commands of 40 to 29 at halftime and 55 to 38 after three cantos.

As the second half began the Cavemen hopped to a 45 to 29 bulge. They had an 18-point margin at 58 to 40 in the opening part of the fourth stanza.

Grants Pass shot .460 from the field. Crater .232. Last 10 points of the game for GP were on free shots. Crater was charged with three flagrant fouls, one a technical, in a last minute of play and these brought apologies from Coach Lloyd Hoffine to Gordon Prehm, the Cavemen mentor.

Grants Pass overcame a 33 to 37 fourth quarter in beating Crater 46 to 42 in the junior varsity game. The Cavemen were ahead 12 to 8 at the quarter and 25 to 20 at the half. Crater had 33 to 31 edge after three panels and GP caught up at 37-31. Ron Beman had 14 tallies for Crater and Jack Weedman and Dennis O'Leary each 13 for GP.

In the sophomore game Grants Pass won 53 to 34 with 12 to 9, 26 to 15 and 44 to 24 intermission bulges.

Bill Hamilton, Max Carey Gain Hall of Fame

New York - Bill Hamilton, Max Carey and the late Billy Hamilton, two of the dead ball era's greatest stars, have received their long overdue recognition, as members of baseball's Hall of Fame.

A special old timers committee of the Baseball Writers association Sunday voted to accept Carey and Hamilton, who rivaled the immortal Ty Cobb as base-stealers. Both will be officially inducted into the Cooperstown, N.Y., shrine on July 24.

Carey, 71, now living in Miami Beach, Fla., played from 1910-1929 with Pittsburgh and Brooklyn and holds the modern National league career record of 738 stolen bases.

Hamilton, who died in 1940 at the age of 72, set the all-time major league mark of 115 stolen bases in one season. The 3-6, 160-pound Hamilton, who played with Philadelphia and Boston from 1890-91, also stole 937 bases in his career and compiled a 9 1/2-time batting average of .344.

Hoop Poll Runnersup Will Clash

United Press International

OKay, we'll concede Ohio State is the best college basketball team in the country—but how about the runnersup? St. Bonaventure and Bradley—a couple of small town teams with big time players—have been sharing the No. 2 spot for most of the season and they'll get a chance to see who rightfully owns it when they meet this Thursday night at Madison Square Garden.

Top-ranked Ohio State, on its way to the Big Ten title and the national championship, made Purdue its 19th straight victim Saturday in the Buckeyes two-season winning streak. Although All-America Jerry Lucas was outscored by fellow Olympian Terry Dischinger, 26-17, five Ohio State starters hit double figures as the Buckeyes routed the Boiler-makers, 92-62.

Ohio State meets two more conference rivals this coming week. Wisconsin and Michigan, in an effort to extend its 4-0 Big Ten mark and its 14-0 overall record for the 1960-61 campaign as the nation's only unbeaten team.

Both second-ranked St. Bonaventure and Bradley, rated No. 3 have identical 14-1 records, but each have important engagements before they meet. The Bonnies, whose only loss was by two points to Ohio State play Marquette on Tuesday while, on the same night, the Braves, making a runaway of the Missouri Valley conference, where they're 5-0, take on league rival Cincinnati.

Then, Janssen's driver and two fielders by Hauntz, plus his free toss, brought the 40 to 29 halfway count.

As the second half began the Cavemen hopped to a 45 to 29 bulge. They had an 18-point margin at 58 to 40 in the opening part of the fourth stanza.
