Moyer Scores Bout Decision

San Jose, Calif.—UPI—Portland's Denny Moyer banged out a unanimous decision over home town boy Willie Morton in a welterweight bout at San Jose Civic Auditorium Tuesday night.

Moyer weighed 155 to Morton's 148½ and used his extra weight and reach to good advantage throughout most of the bout. He kept Morton away with jabs and occasionally scored with hard rights.

Morton had good flurries in the sixth and tenth rounds, but was generally outclassed by Moyer. Referee Vern Bybee called it 6-1 for Moyer. Judge Jack Silver scored it 7-1 and Judge Tony Bosnich 8-1.

Texans Join Angel System

Los Angeles—UPI—The Los Angeles Angels Tuesday had a place to send prospective stars as a result of signing their first working agreement with a farm club, the Dallas-Fort Worth Rangers of the American Association.

The New American League club closed the deal for a tie-up with the triple-A baseball team after conferences between Los Angeles General Manager Fred Haney and Ray Johnston of the Texas team.

"This gives us an excellent place to send some of our top prospects," Haney commented. "We consider it an excellent start toward building a farm system."

Pepperdine, Loyola Have Heavy Duty

United Press International

The log-jam at the top of the West Coast Athletic conference should be broken by this time next week thanks to a crazy mixed-up schedule that calls for Pepperdine and Loyola to play five games in a week.

The Lions (2-1) invade USF (2-0) for a crucial battle to-night, while Pepperdine (0-3) tries its luck at St. Mary's (1-1). The teams then battle San Jose (1-1) and Santa Clara (2-0) this week end before going back to Los Angeles and meeting the same two squads Monday and Tuesday.

The back-to-back scheduling is the result of a mixup in dates. Next week's games were supposed to have been played in the Los Angeles Sports arena during the week end, but it developed that the arena was not available.

In Pacific Coast action Tuesday night, Seattle once again mastered Portland in a frantic battle. It's been a frustrating year all around for the Pilots who hoped to hit the big time with a veteran team built around 6-foot-9 Bill Garner.

But Oregon State and Seattle have stolen their thunder and will probably earn post-season tourney bids ahead of the Pilots. The Beavers won the Far West Classic at Portland, which the Pilots had hoped to cop. The Seattle Tuesday night won its second straight over Portland with a 66-60 victory.

UOP and the Cal Aggies lost games far from home for the second straight night.

Pacific was crushed by Houston, 101-66, although the Tigers' Ken Stanley had a big night with 29 points. Gary Phillips, Houston's all-time scoring champ, stole the show however, with a 35-point performance.

Eastern Montana had to go all out to nip the Aggies, 73-72. Eastern's Bill Drum hit 28 to dominate play, while Ray Crawford had 22 for the losers.

Hess, Taylor Smash League Swim Records

Bruce Hess and Phil Taylor shattered records over the week end in the Columbia Basin league swimming jam-boree at Vancouver, Wash.

They were among six swimmers representing the City of Medford in the Saturday and Sunday meet to reach the finals.

Hess, contending in the 13-14-year-olds' 50 - yard freestyle, swam the distance in first place time of :25.2. This beat the former Columbia mark of :27.3 and the state AAU standard of :29.9. Hess also bettered a league record in placing second in :28 in the 50 - yard butterfly. Winning time was :27.3 and the old standard was :30.4.

Taylor, in the 11-12 year group, took first in 50 freestyle in :28.4, which was .4 of a second under former standard. Phil's second place time in the 100 - yard individual medley also was better than the previous record. He swam the event in a surprising 1:13.6. Winning time was 1:13.4 and the former mark was 1:18.8.

Ted Lyons, in the 15-16 competition, was second in 50 freestyle and third in 50 butterfly. Rhonda Hess, 11-12, was sixth in 100 individual medley and fourth in 50 freestyle. Kirby Lusk, swimming in the 10 and under group, was sixth in 50 freestyle and fourth in 50 backstroke. Janet Brown, in eight and under class was second in 50 freestyle.

The jam-boree had 14 swim teams taking part and more than 500 boys and girls.
