Woman Who Has Child Hoping To Hold Her Husband
So often I see a woman struggling to earn her living and at the same time support a small child. Then she tells me that shortly after she married, she found that her husband was an unpleasant and unloving person. Then was when the much-worried girl got the crazy idea that if she had a child she might be able to hold the man and make him more loving.

In almost all such cases I have seen—and I have seen many—all the girl did was to tie herself firmly to a man who not only bored her, but was unkind or even cruel to her. Soon they were hating each other, but perhaps they both adored the child, or the man did not earn enough to support two households, so they couldn't get a divorce.

In a number of these cases, either the man dropped out of sight; or whatever happened, the girl was left to go out into the world alone to try to support herself and the baby. And, as thousands of women know, it is not easy for
