

Slides of Northern Africa Scheduled Monday Afternoon

Colored slides of Tunisia, Morocco, and other Arabic States in northern Africa will be shown by Col. Raymond Proctor, retired United States Air Force officer, at the Senior Activity center, 801 East Jackson street, Monday, February 13, at 1 p.m.

Dr. Frank Roberts is leader of the Arm Chair Travelers at the Center.

The two new programs offered this month at the Center are still open for registrations.

The Great Decisions discussion group for men, which started February 7, will discuss the second topic, "Soviet Challenge and World Leadership, Ultimate Stakes in the Cold War" on February 14 when they meet from 10 to 12 noon. Arnold Jenny, discussion leader advises members who could not attend the first meeting, when the "Deadlock Over Germany" was discussed, they can still turn in opinion ballots at the second meeting and may obtain their Great Decisions packet at the public library to study.

Clifford Platz, who has started a painting class for beginners which meets each Saturday from 1 to 3 p.m., has room for four more pupils.

The advanced art class, which meets each Tuesday from 1 to 4 p.m. with Mrs. Victoria Staley as teacher, plans to finish paintings to be entered in their exhibit February 26 at the Senior Center.

Last week, the class made arrangements for refreshments, hostesses, and hanging of pictures for their "Senior Artists Benefit Tea." It will be the first benefit planned to raise money to build a new Senior Center.

The executive board of the Rogue Valley Council on Aging will meet Thursday, February 16, at 3 p.m. at the Senior Center to make final plans for the annual meeting to be held February 23 at the Red Cross chapter house, 60 Hawthorne avenue.

All committee chairmen are to take written annual reports, according to Frank Glonning, council chairman.

Penny Valentines
The lowly penny is still something more than a monetary unit with which to pay sales taxes. Penny Valentines, which first made their appearance in the 1870s, are still on the market and are still popular with school children, Hallmark reports.
