Central Point—The Crater high Comets, pulling out of reach with a spurge of 21 points in the third quarter, trimmed Ashland 64 to 47 here Saturday night for their third Southern Oregon conference basketball victory of the season over the Grizzlies.

Crater was in front 32 to 24 going into the last half. A bucket by the Bruin's Rick Pierce narrowed the spread to six points at 32 to 26. Then the Comets hit for four straight field goals for 40 to 28 and Ashland made no further serious bid in the scrape.

Dennis Edwards opened the surge with a rebound basket. Louis Alvarez hepped a long pusher. Bryson LaCasse hit from under the hoop on a feed from Mike Gilnes and Jim Allen put in a driver off a pass from Alvarez.

The Comets pumped in 10 field goals in all in the period and had 53 to 33 command at the game's third intermission. Two field goals and four free shots in the opening part of the fourth panel, while the Grizzlies were limited to a lone field bucket by Sid DeBoer, gave Crater a 26-point 61 to 35 difference its widest of the night. Edwards has 17.

Better shooting and domination of the backboards took the Comets to the verdict. They outfired the Grizzlies 415 to 296 from the field and had six more field goals. Crater had five more free points and 571 to 468 better average.

KF Pelicans Thump GP

Henley, Lakeview Gain 6 A-2 Runoffs

Henley and Lakeview, only members of the Rogue league not in the Rogue river basin, qualified for berths in the District 6 A-2 basketball playoffs with Saturday night victories.

Henley's Hornets were sure of no less than a tie for the crown after whipping Phoenix 61 to 26. Lakeview, in the running yet for a league co-championship, downed Illinois Valley 53 to 47. The Honkers of Lakeview will entertain Henley on Feb. 24 in the Rogue finale for both clubs.

Stanford Jolts UCLA In Big Five

United Press International—Upset jitters shook the Big Five basketball empire today with Washington and Stanford the key agitators.

The Huskies, holders of a sad league record of one win and four losses not too long ago, were in second place with a 5-4 mark.

They meet Oregon Friday in a non-conference tilt then take on Southern California, the nationally-ranked leaders of the Big Five, Saturday. Coach John Grayson's shooters hold a win over UCLA, incidentally the same club which clipped the Trojans by three points on Feb. 4.

Stanford was in a three-place tie with UCLA at three wins and three losses apiece. The Indians have a fine chance to move further up when they meet California's oft-beaten Bears in a week-end series.

The bomb of the week was dropped by the Indians, who came out of a four game losing streak Saturday to daze UCLA, 79-65. John Windsor, a 13 point per game man, exploded for 30 in this one as Stanford bounced back from Friday's 63-57 loss to the high-flying Trojans.

Washington beefed up on California by winning, 70-50, Friday then taking an overtime verdict from the Bears the next evening, 59-58.

Eagle Point Victor Over St. Mary's

Prospect and St. Mary's High basketball teams clash Tuesday night at the St. Mary's gym here with the outcome either ending or prolonging the Jackson County B league season.

If Prospect's Cougars (6-1) win, they will be the champs. Should St. Mary's (5-2) come out on top a playoff will be needed to determine who meets Klamath county champion for the District 5B crown.

The Cougars hold two wins in their three games with the Crusaders. Each has won on its home floor.

Cold shooting and fast play seemed to be the rule instead of the exception as Eagle Point High school downed St. Mary's basketball quint on the Crusader's court here Saturday night, 55 to 46.

Starting off very slowly, but picking up momentum, the game developed into a fairly high scoring affair. It would have even been more so if either of the teams could have been on its mark.

After a 7 to 2 first quarter in which Eagle Point led, shots went in instead of rimming the basket and flying out, and at halftime it was 17 to 13 with the Eagles leading.

It was late in the second period that the Crusader cause suffered a blow when Jim Calhoun suffered a twisted ankle trying for a rebound.

The third quarter started off much as the first two, with neither side able to hit from far out. As it was, the Eagles held the lead on a better shooting percentage and a little more height.

With the fourth canto, the game increased to a torrid pitch with each team trying to wear down the other. Although it gave the boys from Eagle Point a scare, the team from St. Mary's couldn't catch them. It was on the strength of the first three episodes that the Eagles finally won it.

Mike Austin was high for St. Mary's and the game with 17 to the 12 and 11 points of Charles Pomeroy and Ron Greb for Eagle Point.

Buzz Fazio Bowls Here Tonight

You have to get up pretty early in the morning to out-bowl Buzz Fazio.

Just ask anyone who was awake when Buzz recorded the earliest-hour 300 game in history — on Nov. 30, 1954, at Grand Central Recreation. That morning, in an interrupted game, he started striking at 12:23 o'clock and threw his last pinbuster at 2:17.

It goes down as one of the many record-setting oddities in the colorful career of Fazio, who will be appearing at Medford Bowling lanes at 9 o'clock tonight.

Even stranger, in Fazio's mind at least, are the ups and downs he experienced in the All-Star Tournament. In 1950, he tied a record for high game with a perfect score. Five years later in the same tournament, he set a record low game with 109, when he had one strike, one spare, six splits and two blows.

Mostly on Top—More often than not, however, Buzz has been on top of the bowling world.

In 1955, he captured the ABC Masters title and previously he had been recognized as one of the greatest team leaders in history, captaining Strohs to three straight BPAA National Team Match Game crowns and one ABC All Events title.

During his appearance here Fazio will roll an exhibition match and give free instruction to local bowlers. He is one of the more than 100 big leaguers on the Brunswick Advisory Staff of Champions who promote bowling with nationwide appearances.
