Lone Pine School

Jimmy Johnson entertained at the National school assembly program at the Lone Pine school recently.

Johnson featured a trained dog that did tricks on command. Animal training and magician tricks were explained to the students. Four trained doves climaxed the assembly program.

Lee Merriman explained this is a series of three programs sponsored by the National association. This was termed as one of the most interesting assemblies.

tary girls in volley ball. Howard girls won 2 out of 3 games played. The girls then mixed teams for a period of recreation.

The PTA executive board met at the school recently to plan the next PTA meeting Feb. 14.

A number of students attended the American Association of University women's presentation of "Many Moons" which was held at the Craterian theater Tuesday.

St. Mary's School

Barbara Lewis, Reporter
Wednesday, Feb. 8, was a time of varied schedule changes.

The seniors attended a Day of Recollection conducted by the Rev. Louis Sohler from Springfield, Ore. During the day, regular classes were dispensed with, and the 43 seniors heard a series of conferences on such topics as their future state of life, and various problems that confront youth today.

The program ended at the regular dismissal time after benediction at Sacred Heart church.

Also on Wednesday, the juniors began the battery of the Iowa Tests of Educational Development, and the freshmen took the California Tests of Mental Maturity.

On Thursday the National Honor Society held its eighth solemn induction ceremony. Seniors Mary Jo Batzer and Michael Lewis were formally received into its ranks, increasing the membership to 23. Only juniors and seniors with a grade point average of 3.0 or above and evidencing leadership, and character are accepted as members.

St. Mary's is proud of head coach William McKibbin, who has been named for the second year to assist in coaching the eastern section in the annual East-West Shrine game held in August, and players Andre Knutson, center, Dick Evans, back, and Fred Lucas, tackle, who have been chosen to play in this event.

For the first time this year the "Lance" annual staff interrupted classes to take the remaining large group pictures. More than 95 per cent of this year's pictures have been taken and the staff is working to finish all photography and copy by March 1, the deadline.

At the recent meeting of student council, measures were set down on the conduct of Student Government Day. Rules on posters and regulations in regard to actual polling of votes in order to assure greater secrecy were passed.

CP Junior High

Edited by Teresa Merz
Friday, Feb. 3, Frederic Sjobiarn, a pianist, entertained Central Point Elementary and Junior High school students. He played a variety of jazz, popular, and semi-classical numbers. Sjobiarn has been touring the United States giving concerts at various schools.

Central Point Junior High students have been competing in volleyball games and table tennis tournaments during noon hours. Each room has a volleyball team that gets to play at least once a week.

The seventh and eighth grade language arts classes have been reading and discussing Dr. Leslie J. Nason's articles entitled "You Can Get Better Grades." There will be 15 articles in the series.

Central Point Junior High gave a talent show recently. Money went to the March of Dimes. The first of the acts was done by the seventh grade.

Dennis Smith did a pantomime called "I've Got a Wife." "Three Cool Cats" was acted out by Christine Evans, Carol Roach, Margaret Rowden, Rebecca Glines, Joan McGowan and Sherry Haight. Marian Hedgpath sang and played her guitar. The last act of the seventh grade was "Alvin's Harmonica" acted out by Judi Armstrong, Cathy Legler, Shirley Jones, and Janet Thompson.

In the eighth grade Pam Martin and Eddie Appelgate sang "Everybody Loves a Lover" and "Poetry in Motion." Marlene Grissom, Linda Vincent and Linda Bowen sang "He," "My Girl" was a pantomime by Darlene Olson and Paula Johnson. Sherry Snook and Anna Morgan acted out "Pink Shoe Laces." "Baby Sittin' Boogy" was a pantomime by Pat Kohn and Carma Guss. John Engeli played a trumpet solo, "A Million to One," "Stranded in the Jungle" was acted out by Jack Peek, Ronnie Smith, Sally Middlesworth, Donna Debrick, Billy Wright, Kathy Jones, Connie Zander, Verenne Mathiesen, Joyce Drennen, Madelyn Drennen and Linda Parsley.

"Uncle Bill's Cartoons" was done by Ross Conger, Nancy Inman, John Yoakley, Nancy Cavin, Bill Colley, Cheryl Hamhill, Joyce Trautman.

Sheryl Marshall, Judy Frink and Connie Vilarino. The last act was a brass ensemble consisting of John Yoakley, Frank Roberts, Dick Field, Sammy Hughes, Rodney King, Royal Harger and Gary Poythress. They played "Carolina Moon." The audience picked Dennis Smith's pantomime and Pat Kohn's and Carma Guss's "Baby Sittin' Boogy" as the best acts.

Jackson School

In Mrs. Marilyn Blomquist's room we have four new students. They are Cynthia Estes from California, Ted Fields from Ashland, Cindy Cannon, who transferred from Lone Pine school, and David Cox, who transferred from Jackson school.

We have been helping to decorate our room for our Valentine party, Feb. 14. We also decorated boxes to hold our Valentines.

Six children were on the honor roll this six weeks in our room.

We made a birthday train and put pictures of each child on it.

We have been talking about the great men whose birthdays are being observed this month.

Mrs. Lily Robison's first grade class has one new member - Gary Peyton, who comes from Central Point. One girl, Gloria Goodwin, moved to California last week.

The children have made individual pockets for the Valentine post office on the bulletin board. They are making plans for the party next Tuesday and helping to decorate the room.

Reggie Christianson and Kimberly Owen brought pussy willows last week, and they will be used for art work. The class has some bulbs starting to grow which will be planted soon.

Eight members of the class were on the honor roll for the past six weeks. There have been a number of absences in the past two weeks, due to sore throat and colds.

We are now learning cursive writing in Mrs. Sally Widmer's second grade. Everyone is working hard at their writing.

We are planning and decorating our room for the Valentine's party, which will be held Tuesday afternoon, Feb. 14. We have invited Mrs. Rebecca Long's children into our room for the party.

We had eight children on the honor roll. Karen Cannon and Dan Taylor brought pussy willows to class. They will be used as part of an art project.

Danny Bouslough has transferred to Porterville, Calif., from Mrs. Long's second grade class. We are planning to have a Valentine party. We have been asked to visit Mrs. Widmer's room on party day.

The children are interested in learning about important people who were born in February.

We had four on the honor roll this period.

In Mrs. Barbara Robinson's third grade room, there were seven students on the honor roll.

We are getting ready for Valentine's Day.

Mrs. Maude Hardy's third grade is studying about Indians. They have seen many interesting films on the past and present life of the American Indian. Many pictures have been collected and art work has been done for display in their room. In science, they have been learning how machines help them in making their work easier, faster and better.

Mrs. Luellie McKemie's class made a Valentine box to hold their Valentines.

The class saw a film which showed us that the two elements hydrogen and oxygen combine to form water.

Glenna Logan went to California for the week end and came back with olives on branches. She brought a picture of Shasta dam back to the class so we could see what the dam looked like. She also brought a eucalyptus branch.

The class made designs and used watercolors.

The new officers for the second semester in Mrs. Ida McArthur's fourth grade are Dell Speegle, president; Susan Cosler, vice president, and Gary Worden, secretary-treasurer.

Bruce Hueners brought a wood worm which we have in our room. We are watching him eat wood. He makes sawdust as he bores into the wood. The major work group in arithmetic has been learning how to make and read graphs.

Mrs. Elsie Reneau's fifth grade has been studying about the Central States in geography. We have been making dolls out of gloves and we made silhouettes of each other in art class. We will have a Valentine party Feb. 14.

Mrs. Mary Sullenger's fifth grade has been adding fractions in arithmetic. In health we have been studying about the digestive system in Herbert Colley's class.

Prineville Men Return To Safety

Prineville - (UP) - Two Prineville men were safe Monday after spending a night marooned in a blizzard on the summit of Ochoce mountains east of here.

Dan Taylor and Floyd Evans left Prineville Sunday morning and expected to return early Sunday evening but their jeep slid off a logging road and they spent the night in a storm which left from one to three feet of snow on the summit of the mountain.

Ground and air search and rescue parties had been organized to search for the two men, but they were able to get out under their own power.

They suffered no injuries other than fatigue and severe chill.

HIKES SCHOOL SUPPORT

Salem - (UP) - Rep. Douglas Heider (R-Salem) Monday introduced a bill that would hike basic school support $10 a census child and be paid for by a 3-cent cigarette tax.

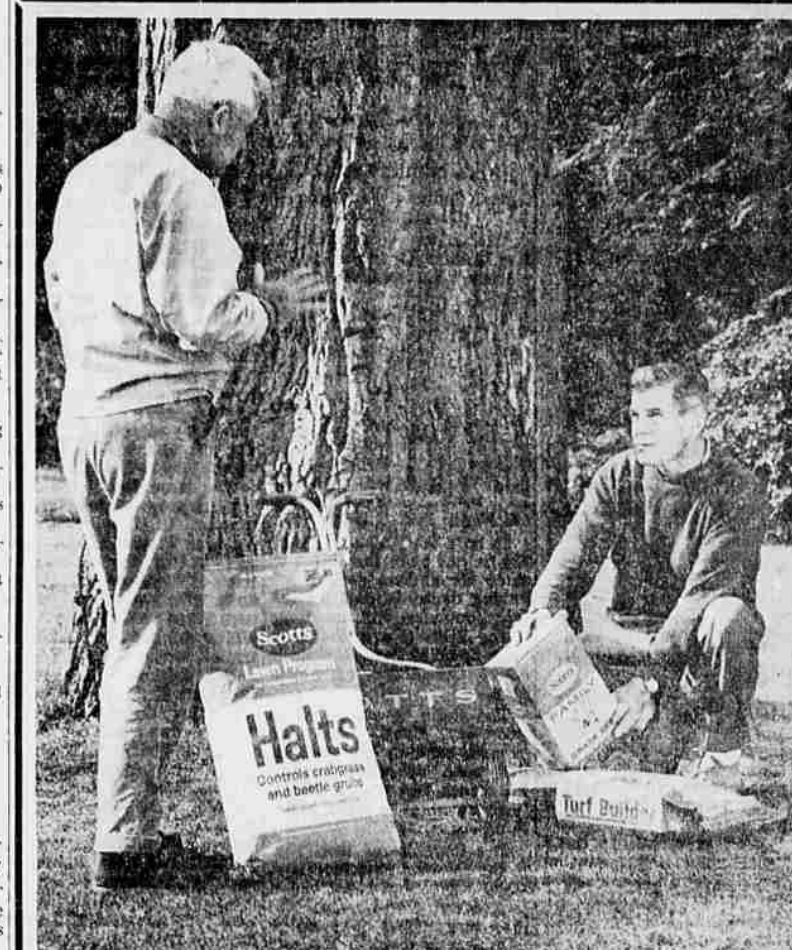

Jane Anders of the sixth grade cracked her wrist. She was riding on a horse when it fell into a hole.

We watched the inauguration of President John F. Kennedy. Cherie Aldrich brought her portable television set.

The girls of Mrs. Pearl Farnsworth's sixth grade played in a volley ball game against Griffin Creek.

We have been working on scale drawings. Also in geography, our class turned in our term papers concerning Middle and South America.

Our class also elected our class officers. The officers are, president, Dannie Peyton, vice president, Janice Guidry; secretary-treasurer, Sue Griffin; sergeant-at-arms, Cherie Aldrich.

Doom crabgrass the day you seed

One-day way to improve your lawn

It doesn't take hard work or expert skill to transform a frustrating lawn into a satisfying one. It doesn't even take a lot of time. In just one afternoon you can keep crabgrass from plaguing you again this year, and plant that better lawn you want. The answer to crabgrass is HALTS®. It lies in wait, kills crabgrass as it sprouts. Yet HALTS lets good grass sprout unharmed, so you can sow all-perennial Scotts seed the same day. Non-burning TURF BUILDER® completes the job, gives new and established grass the protein-building nutrition it needs to thrive.

Ask us about the Scotts guarantee... a better lawn or your money back!
