Eagle Point High School

Reporters: Aedene Jensen, Jim Ackerman, Sandy Wallis, Judi DeHaven, Connie Hinks, Bill Pfeiffer.

Bonnie and Vonnice Goehring, former students at Eagle Point, will be absent from the school for the second semester. The girls, with their younger sister, Connie, will join the Oregonian Traveling Troup, an amateur talent group that tours the Northwest.

Bonnie and Vonnice will attend Marshall High school, Portland.

Connie was elected State Girls Athletic association secretary for Oregon.

The girls all plan to be back in Eagle Point next year.

Climaxing a week's activities, Linda Weitman, freshman candidate, was crowned queen of the March of Dimes drive during the dance following the Yreka basketball game.

Alice Woolfolk, senior, was runner-up with Joan Konopasek, sophomore, and Mary Anne Elrod, junior, completing the court.

The freshmen raised $119 for the drive. The school total of $561 amounted to approximately $1.20 per student in school.

Dr. D. W. Berremen, assistant professor of physics at the University of Oregon, was guest speaker and advisor at a science conference at Crater High school recently. Five physics students from Eagle Point attended.

From Eagle Point were Glenn Gratsinger, Jim Stauffer, Dick Hertager, Jim Ackerman, and Aedene Jensen with Victor Hay, physics teacher at the EPHS.

After school was dismissed, Dr. Berremen met with teachers from the area to discuss problems concerning the field of physics. Students from Rogue River and Crater High school were also present.

An initiation of new members was held and an activity period and a basketball playday was held at Southern Oregon college to highlight the Eagle Point Girls Athletic association activities recently.

Revision of the school constitution and the completion of the citizenship and scholarship plaques in the hall were the main points for discussion at the meeting of the student council recently.

The meeting was presided over by Tom Perdue.

The revision of the constitution of the Eagle Point High school student body was discussed. A committee was appointed to work on the revision. Members of the committee include John Dunlap, Joann Konopasek, and Ila Sattler with Aedene Jensen, as assistant chairman, and Tom Perdue, chairman.

Bringing citizenship and scholarship plaques up to date was proposed and discussed. Aedene Jensen was appointed to look into the matter and see why the plaques were discontinued, as well as find out what would have to be done to bring them up to date.

Approximately 270 pounds of clothing articles were gathered during World Clothing week, with the freshman class receiving the award for getting the most clothing.

Freshmen brought in 120 pounds of clothing articles. The seniors were second with 105 pounds, followed by the juniors with 85, and the sophomores with 59 pounds.

Mrs. Frances Henry, librarian, was in charge of the drive. She was assisted by members of the National Honor Society, who sorted, weighed, and packed the clothes.

4-H News

Central Point Trail Blazers

The Central Point Trail Blazers 4-H Horse club held its monthly meeting at the home of David Hopkins recently.

Mrs. Whittle presented the club with a new 4-H flag.

President Karen Holley discussed the dates for the 4-H summer school which will be held June 12 to 17 on the campus of Oregon State college. Carolyn Sidener, who has previously attended the summer school, showed some pictures of the campus.

We discussed our valentine skating party, which was held Feb. 14, in which we invited the Central Point 4-H Beef club.

Gary Whittle gave a report on the recent ride we had in which 18 members attended. Carolyn Sidener, our junior leader, was in charge.

Karen Holley appointed Vicki Caldwell in charge of a committee for talent for the Empire Builders "Friendship Follies" program.

Following the business meeting the members discussed horsemanship safety rules. June and David Hopkins served refreshments.
