Medford Adventists Worship in New Church Building

The first full day's services, including Sabbath school, worship, and Missionary Volunteer meeting, were held in the new Medford Seventh-day Adventist church, 1900 Greenwood dr., Saturday, Feb. 11.

Worship services only had been held there the two previous weeks, but transfer of the Sabbath school department was not completed until last week.

The Saturday exercises climaxed a three year building program in which Medford Seventh-day Adventists constructed both the church building and a new 10 grade school located on South Stage rd.

The new church is a three story building of wood frame and brick veneer construction, and has a seating capacity of 750 to accommodate the congregation which had outgrown its old quarters on the corner of Edwards and Beatty sts.

The ground floor will house the church's welfare activities in addition to several Sabbath school classrooms. The main floor consists of the nave, offices and classrooms, and the third floor contains the balcony, flanked on either side by the youth department quarters and the primary classroom.

The interior of the nave combines Philippine mahogany walls with exposed laminated cedar beams extending from the floor and arching across the ceiling which is finished with three inch exposed cedar decking. Brick veneer planters add to the interior decor.

The building and grounds occupy 3 1/2 acres, and will provide adequate parking space for all members when parking lots are completed. Some finish work remains to be done in the church building, though it is now ready for occupancy by all departments except that of the welfare.

Building contractor for the church was John Meacham, Williams, and Robert Fisher, Grants Pass, was the architect.

Oral Tucker, formerly of 2232 Dellwood ave., and now residing in Arizona, was chairman of the building committee. Mr. Tucker was in Medford, and present at the services, Saturday.

Working with Mr. Tucker on the building committee was the church pastor, John D. Trude, Gilbert Buck, Edwin Farli, Dr. Bernard Thompson, Eugene Burrill, Dr. A. E. Merkel, and Eli Davis.

"When You Were Baptized" will be the title of the message Sunday at 7:30 p.m. at the Central Church of Christ, North Central ave., at Jackson st. The speaker will be John V. Heberling, minister.

TITLE'S . . .

In this article we wish to consider with you titles and attributes of God, Christ, the Holy Ghost and church leaders in the Scriptures, compared with what we find today. We have no desire to be unkind, but sincerely desire to encourage a return to the Scriptures (1 Peter 4:11, 2 Timothy 4:1-4).

In the Scriptures GOD is called Holy Father (John 17:11), reverend (Psalms 111:9), Lord (1 Kings 18:21), Eternal (Deuteronomy 33:27), etc. Christ is called Lord (Acts 2:36), King (Matthew 21:5), Prince (Revelation 1:5), Emmanuel (Matthew 1:23), etc. The Holy Ghost is called the Holy Spirit (Hebrews 9:14), Comforter (John 14:21), etc.

These Sacred Writings simply call the apostles Simon Peter, Andrew, James, John, Philip, Bartholomew, Thomas, Matthew, James, (the son of Alphaeus), Thaddaeus, Simon, Judas, Paul and servants (Matthew 10:2-4, Romans 1:1, Philippians 1:1). Bishops are called elders, shepherds, and overseers (Acts 20:17 and 28, Titus 1, 1 Timothy 3, 1 Peter 5:4). Preachers and evangelists have no special titles either (Acts 21:8, 2 Timothy 4:5, Romans 10:4, 1 Timothy 2:7).

Lack of love and respect for God's Truth, coupled with man's desire for pre-eminence and honor, have resulted in many unscriptural and anti-scriptural titles. We mention here some of them.

Reverend (God's name, Psalms 111:9) is a common title among preachers today. Some, desiring greater honor, have titles such as Right Reverend, Most Reverend, Most Right Reverend, Very Right Reverend, etc. And, even though Jesus said, "... Be not called Rabbi: for one is your Master, even Christ..." and call no man your father upon this earth: for one is your Father, which is in heaven" (Matthew 23:8-9), religious leaders are called Rabbi, Master and Father.

Pride and selfish ambition have caused man to assume the place of God and Christ. Today MEN are called Holy Father, His Holiness, His Eminence, His Grace, Lord God, etc.

Honest hearts, we plead with you. Let us repent and return to the Lord by learning to speak as the Scriptures speak and striving to walk in the way they direct us. These Scriptures are God's complete instructions to man (2 Timothy 3:16-17, 1 John 1:7).
