

The Heart Line

Among the busiest women in Jackson county this week are the Heart Sunday leaders, shown here as they make plans for the big task of canvassing the community next Sunday. Regarded as the high point of the annual Heart fund drive, the efforts of 640 volunteers will be required to solicit contributions and distribute pamphlets giving heart disease precautions.

Mrs. Earl T. Johnson, 1412 Crown avenue, Medford, (above) Heart Sunday chairman, has spent many hours on the telephone in recent days in preparation for the campaign. She has arranged for area chairmen, some of whom are pictured here. Mrs. Johnson states that anyone interested in serving as a volunteer Sunday, February 26, should call the chairman of their area.

East side area chairman for the coming Heart Sunday drive is Mrs. Ronald E. Cordon, 1517 Lenora drive, Medford (upper left); Mrs. Elliott MacCracken, 262 Hargadine street, Ashland, (upper right) is chairman for that city, and Mrs. Russell McIntyre, Jacksonville, (center right) is serving as chairman for that area.

Mrs. Frank Wilson, Phoenix-Hillcrest road (lower right) is Phoenix chairman for Heart Sunday. Mrs. Duane Richardson, 1019 Mt. Pitt avenue, Medford (at left, lower left) and Mrs. Lewis McLaren Jr., 702 Beekman avenue, are co-chairmen for the Medford west side area. In addition to the women pictured here, Mrs. Homer Harris is chairman for the Talent area and Mrs. Otto J. Frohnmayer and Mrs. Richard Mole are co-chairmen for the North Side area of Medford.
