Newlyweds At Home In California

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Edward Shepherd, married January 22 in Carmel, Calif., are making their home in that city. Mrs. Shepherd is the former Miss Evelyn Luxem, Carmel, daughter of Mrs. Leon Montgomery, Oak Knoll, Seaside, Calif., and the bridegroom is a son of Mrs. Robert W. Shepherd, 867 Murphy road, Medford, and the late Mr. Shepherd.

The wedding ceremony took place at two o'clock in the afternoon at the Church of the Wayfarer in Carmel, with Dr. K. Fillmore Gray officiating.

The bride wore a white brocade sheath frock with over skirt, square neckline and three-quarter length sleeves. Her hairdress was a short veil trimmed with a flat ribbon bow and she carried a bouquet of miniature red roses and stephanotis encircling a white orchid.

Mrs. John Robinson, Carmel Valley, was matron of honor. She wore a purple silk sheath with black accessories and a small hat. Her flowers were gardenias.

Robert W. Shepherd Jr., San Rafael, Calif., was best man for his brother.

A reception honoring the couple was given by Mr. and Mrs. Richard Penoyer at their home, Rancho Rio Vista, Carmel.

Among those present for the wedding and reception were the mothers of the bride and bridegroom and Mrs. Robert W. Shepherd Jr., sister-in-law of the bridegroom; Mr. and Mrs. George Austin Shepherd and their daughter, Susan Walnut Creek, Calif., uncle, aunt and cousin of the bridegroom.

The bride, born in Dinslaken, Germany, has been in the United States four years. She attended high school in Hoffheim, Germany, the Seminar Kimphenhausen in Bavaria, a private school, and Cosmology school in Frankfurt, Germany.

The bridegroom, a graduate of Medford High school, attended the University of Oregon where he was a member of Chi Psi fraternity. He is associated with the La Playa hotel and the Carmel Valley inn, and the newlyweds are living at the La Playa.

Senior Artists Announce Exhibit and Tea Sunday

A senior artists exhibit and benefit tea will be given Sunday afternoon, February 26 from 1 to 5 o'clock at the Senior Activity center, 601 East Jackson street.

It will be given by the members of the advanced art class whose teacher is Mrs. Victoria Staley. Starting last March, this group has been painting each week under Mrs. Staley's direction. All the teachers at the center volunteer their time. The Center is sponsored by the Rogue Valley Council of Aging, and is located in a small room in a city park building.

The exhibit and silver tea will be the first benefit given by members using the center to add to the center building fund which will be used to build or acquire larger and more adequate quarters. Refreshments will be served by class members who will act as hosts and guides. The general public is invited to attend.

Artists showing will be the Rev. Robert Bridge, Mrs. E. J. Diehl, Mrs. Theodore Johnson, Mrs. Norvel Jones, Mrs. R. B. Medcalf, the Rev. Eric Roba-son, Mrs. Ivan Shuck, Mrs. Margaret Stonebreaker and Mrs. C. A. Whitcher. There will be 35 or 40 paintings on display.

Members of the Southern Oregon Society of Artists who have given volunteer time to teach art classes at the center during the last two and a half years since its opening in October, 1958, will pour during the afternoon. They are Miss Margaret Ossenbrugg, who will pour from 1 to 2 p.m.; Mrs. Nettie Williams, 2 to 3 p.m.; Mrs. Ruby Twedell, 3 to 4 p.m.; Mrs. Staley, 4 to 5 p.m.

David Hagerbaumer and Clifford Platz will be honored guests.

Staff hostesses, Mrs. Alvin Reed and Mrs. Henry Dittman, will handle the guest book and take registrations and donations.
