Mr. and Mrs. Dennis W. Owen

Lutheran Church Scene Of Owen Bandy-Service

The wedding of Miss Sandra Lee Bandy to Dennis W. Owen took place Friday, February 10, in Ascension Lutheran church. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norman E. Bandy, 312 Ashland avenue, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil W. Owen, 1478 Orchard Home drive.

The Rev. E. S. Tollefson performed the ceremony at eight o'clock in the evening before about 100 guests. Lighted tapers and arrangements of pink carnations and white stock decorated the church.

The bride wore a floor-length gown of brocade satin in rose design, styled with a princess front, long sleeves, scoop neckline edged with tulle insert and overlaid with appliques. Her bouffant skirt was accented below the waist with self bows and a full bustle in back which fell into a chapel train. The fingertip-length veil of silk illusion was held by a pearl and sequin tiara. Her flowers were white carnations entwined with ivy and centered with a purple-throated white orchid.

Mr. Bandy gave his daughter in marriage.

Miss Sandra Allene Elrod was maid of honor and bridesmaids were Miss Cheryl Spence and Miss Marlys Brown. The bridesmaids also lighted the candles.

Miss Elrod wore a ballerina-length dress in heaven blue, with bodice and three-quarter-length sleeves of Alencon lace and a bouffant skirt of silk organza. Her matching flower-bedecked bandeau held a float veil. She carried a bouquet of white carnations entwined with ivy.

The bridesmaids' hats and gowns were pink, identical to the maid of honor's in style, and they carried bouquets of pink and white carnations.

The bride's mother chose a dress of beige and brown silk print with beige accessories and the bridegroom's mother wore a beige sheath dress with brown accessories. Both wore tangerine carnation corsages.

Edward Logan, Central Point, was best man. Ushers were Patrick and James Bandy, brothers of the bride.

Miss Claudia Owen, sister of the bridegroom, was soloist and Miss Judy Carver played the organ.

At the reception which followed in the church, Mrs. Fred Mast cut the wedding cake and Miss Joan Holmstrom and Miss Virginia Larson poured punch. Miss Judy Johnson was at the guest book and Mrs. Mary Anona Jensen took charge of gifts. Mrs. Jensen and Mrs. Mast arranged the room. Mrs. Tom Merit was in charge of the reception.

Out-of-town guests at the event included Mrs. Pearl Hammond, Fresno, maternal grandmother of the bride, and Mr. and Mrs. Earl M. Benedict, Port Angeles, Wash., the bridegroom's maternal grandparents.

The young couple traveled to Portland on their honeymoon and are residing at 321 Vancouver avenue. The bride chose a pink chemise suit with orchid corsage for traveling.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Medford High school and is employed at Medford Veneer and Plywood corporation. The bride is a senior at Medford High school.
