

Davey Hill Golf Victor At Tucson

Tucson, Ariz. — (UPI) — There was a new star on the golfing horizon today and the little guy will take no back-talk from anyone when it comes to handling a set of clubs. His name is Davey Hill, 145 pounds of power from Denver, Colo., who whipped the great Tommy Bolt, and another beginner, Buddy Sullivan, in a dramatic play-off for the $20,000 Tucson Open golf crown Sunday.

Davey, a baby-faced 23-year-old with a crew cut, a wife and tiny baby, rolled in a down-hill, twisting 15-foot putt on the third extra hole to turn back Bolt and Sullivan for top money of $2,800. The losers each collected $1,650.

It was a spectacular victory for Davey. He had started the day trailing Sullivan, a 29-year-old sophomore of the four from Yuba City, by five strokes. He shot a five-under-par 65 on his final round-toppling it off with a 13-foot eagle putt on the last hole-for a 269 total.

Meanwhile, Bolt got into the play-off with a 69 by sinking a birdie putt on the last hole after just leaving an eagle putt barely short. And Sullivan got there the same way by coming out of a trap and canning a tricky nine-footer.
