W. D. LONGMORE Returns to Valley

New SP Agent To Arrive in Medford

New district freight and passenger agent for Southern Pacific in the Southern Oregon area with headquarters in Medford will be William D. (Bill) Longmore, who will be promoted from traveling freight and passenger agent, Eugene, effective March 1. Longmore succeeds R. H. (Bob) Holmes who retired under the company's pension plan this month.

Longmore started with SP as a stenographer in the Seattle office of the company in November, 1939. In June, 1941, he was transferred to the General Freight office, Portland, where he advanced to position of rate clerk until September, 1943, when he entered military service. In August, 1946, he returned to his position in the general office in Portland.

In January, 1947, he was made chief clerk in the district office at Medford which position he held until June, 1950, when he was advanced to the same position in the Seattle office. In January, 1954, he was made city freight agent at Eugene and in June 1957, was advanced to traveling freight and passenger agent, a position he had held until his new promotion.

Longmore has been active in civic work. He is a past president of the Eugene Traffic club and a member of the famous Eugene Gleemen. Mrs. Longmore and two daughters, 14 and 11, will move to Medford at the close of the school year.

Oregon Education Money Proposed

Washington - (UPI) - President Kennedy's education proposals to Congress today included $7,094,843 for Oregon during the 1962 fiscal year. This would amount to $20.10 per pupil in average daily attendance in public schools in the state.

The requests for 1963 and 1964 are higher. The President asked $8,356,592 for 1963, or $22.89 per pupil, and $9,601,681 in 1964, or $24.54 per pupil.

Salem Usherette Checks Flames

Salem - (UPI) - A quick-thinking 17-year-old usherette saved the day when a fire broke out in Salem's Capitol theater Saturday.

The girl, Marguerite Coop, a student at North Salem High school, controlled the blaze with a fire extinguisher until firemen could arrive.

About 70 children were watching a double feature at the time. Firemen said the alley exit fire apparently was caused by a lighted match or cigarette. There were no injuries.

Chamber Attacks Wage Proposals

Washington - (UPI) - The U.S. Chamber of Commerce said today that President Kennedy's proposal to boost the minimum wage would force employers to raise prices, lay off workers and buy more foreign goods.

But Walter Reuther, president of the AFL-CIO Industrial Union department, denied that a $1.25 an hour minimum wage would be inflationary and said it was needed to spur industries "toward greater efficiency."

The conflicting views were presented in prepared testimony to a House labor subcommittee considering Kennedy's proposal to increase the wage floor gradually from $1 to $1.25 an hour and extend coverage to 4.3 million more workers.

EPIDEMIC HITS DOGS

Paris - (UPI) - An influenza-like disease is sweeping France, killing hundreds of dogs. The newspaper Journal du Dimanche, which reported the epidemic's effects today, said hunting hounds and other outdoor dogs were most vulnerable to the disease.
