Youth Will Face Adult Court Trial

Anderson, Calif. (UPI)—Wallace Mitchell Ford, 15-year-old high school freshman, will be tried as an adult for the Valentine's Day slaying of little Vickie Lee Morris.

The body of the eight-year-old neighbor girl was found in a weeded area near her home here last Wednesday. Ford admitted luring her into the woods and crushing her head with a 25-pound rock.

Superior Court Judge Richard B. Eaton, presiding over juvenile court, said Monday that Ford was "an unfit subject for juvenile court. The youth was returned to the jurisdiction of Anderson justice court to face trial on a murder charge.

Eaton commented that if the boy were tried in juvenile court, the court's authority would end in only six years, when Ford turns 21.
