Breakfast Planned; Masses Scheduled

Sacred Heart church members, their families and friends have been invited to attend a pancake and sausage breakfast to be served in St. Mary's gym Sunday by Court St. Mary, Catholic Daughters of America.

The breakfast is scheduled to begin after the 8 a.m. mass and will continue until about noon. Juice, milk and coffee will be offered in addition to the sausages and "all the hotcakes you can eat" and, according to CDA spokesmen, a special family rate will be charged those families of six or more members.

Throughout the second week of Lent the extended schedule of masses will continue at Sacred Heart church for the benefit of parishioners who have added daily mass to their list of Lenten activities. Monday through Thursday masses will be said at 6:40 and 8 a.m. and at 6 p.m.

The usual Wednesday Perpetual Help devotions will immediately follow the evening mass on that day.

First Friday Masses Friday, being the first Friday of March and the day of the monthly Sacred Heart devotions, masses will be offered at 6:40, 8 and 11:15 a.m. The 6 o'clock evening mass will be followed by the stations of the cross.

There will be three masses the first Saturday of March, one at 6:40 a.m., one at 8 a.m. after which the Fatima devotions will be said, and one at 11 a.m. for children attending Saturday catechism classes. No evening mass will be offered on this day.

Among several parish activities scheduled for the month of March are confirmation, March 5; the biennial business meeting of the Nocturnal Adoration Society, March 8; the parish Lenten mission, March 19-26; and, tentatively, a day of recollection on March 26 for young single adults from Medford, Ashland and Grants Pass.

A final instruction period for the adults who are preparing to receive the sacrament of confirmation will be held at 8 p.m. Sunday. Public high school students to be confirmed are instructed at the 7:30 p.m. high school of religion classes on Wednesday, while public grade school pupils receive their confirmation lessons at the 10 a.m. Saturday catechism classes.

Church school, which meets at 9:45 a.m., includes the adult class which meets at the home of Mrs. Judd Greenman, 2120 East Main st., with Gatewood Smith as leader.

Two members of the Pilgrim Fellowship, Marilyn Harwood and John Hay, are leaving today for the annual Midwinter Conference at Salem. They are going with the advisors, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Silver. The regular Sunday meeting will be held at 7 p.m.

There will be a meeting of the pulpit committee Monday at 8 p.m. at the home of Donald Walters, 818 South Peach st. The conference minister and superintendent will be here to meet with the committee.

There will be a Laymen's breakfast Wednesday at 6:30 a.m. with Dr. John Watson as discussion leader.

The official address of the church has been changed from 300 Oakwood dr., to 2100 Oakwood dr., to conform with other numbers in the area.

Witnesses List Week's Activities

"They all began to give favorable witness about him and to marvel at the wisdom words proceeding out of his mouth," is one of the Scriptures concerning Jesus' earthly ministry on which the school servant will base his talk "The Art of Public Bible Speaking" during this evening's program beginning at 7:30 o'clock at the local Kingdom hall of Jehovah's Witnesses.

John Churchill, Yreka, Sunday, will give an hour's discourse on the subject "Are Jehovah's Witnesses Christians?" after which "Jehovah's Requirements for Life Seekers" will be explained by congregation study of the Bible with the use of the Watchtower as a Bible directory.

The study of temples of worship, with special consideration of Solomon's temple on Mount Moriah, will be continued Tuesday, at 8 p.m. at the various service centers.

Conference Set For Tomorrow

The Foursquare church, 2200 Roberts rd., will sponsor a Sunday school conference and workshop, Saturday, February 25, from 2 to 4 p.m.

Mrs. Eloise Clarno, Portland, the northwest district youth director and Sunday school worker, and the Rev. Vestra Mathewson, Grants Pass, Southern Oregon Sunday school co-ordinator, will be the main speakers.

Mrs. Loyd Rasmussen, superintendent of the Sunday school, has stated that all teachers, officers, and anyone interested in Sunday school work, are invited to attend.

Plans will be announced for the contest to be launched for Easter. It will also be explained at the Sunday school hour Sunday at 9:45 a.m.

Portland Man To Speak in Talent

Talent-Gordon Raney, Portland, Alcoholic Education Committee of Oregon, will speak Monday, Feb. 27, at 7:30 p.m. at Talent Methodist church.

Raney is currently touring the high schools in the state telling students about the problems connected with alcohol. His topic Monday will be "Building Community Understanding of Alcohol Problems."

THE REV. D. L. KINMAN
To Speak in Trail

Spiritual Life Meetings Planned

Trail—The Rev. Dwight L. Kinman will conduct Spiritual Life meetings at Trail Community church in both the morning and evening services Sunday. He will also speak each evening at 7:30 o'clock through Wednesday, March 1.

Mr. Kinman is a former pastor of a church in Portland.

His subject Sunday will be "Soul Winning through the Power of Prayer" and "Soul Winning in the Light of the Near coming of Christ." Other topics are "Soul Winning through the Power and Guidance of the Holy Spirit," "Soul Winning and the Skillful Use of the S(WORD)," and "Soul Winning—God's Blueprint for the Local Church."

Tonight at 7:30 o'clock is the first Friday service in the evangelistic crusade now being held at the First Church of the Nazarene, 520 North Holly st.

In this series of 12 meetings, the Rev. C. B. Cox from Upland, Calif., is the guest speaker. He will preach nightly, except Saturday, from Feb. 22 through March 5.

Mr. Cox's message Sunday at 11 a.m. will be "The Scope of Redemption." Music will be furnished by the sanctuary choir and the male quartet.

At 7 p.m. he will speak on "Holiness and the Written Word." A variety of music is being presented in each service by local talent. Dean von Stein is the song director for the campaign.

The "Reaching for Easter" special emphasis in the Sunday school begins Sunday morning with Bill Brewster, Sunday school superintendent, directing the activities. The Sunday school launches a contest with a "Secret Church." Each of the seven Sunday school departments of the local church have self-contained contests which are suitable to the particular age group. The attendance goal for Easter, April 2, is 1,000.

First Baptists Plan Services

The Rev. Edward C. Stauffer will speak Sunday at the 11 a.m. worship service of First Baptist church on the topic, "What Can Wash Away My Sins?"

Maynard Hadley, minister of music, will direct the chapel choir, and Miss Joyce Colvin will present a vocal solo.

The adult Bible study group will meet at the church at 8:30 p.m., and youth groups for those of junior through college age will meet at the same hour.

"The Inner Circle" will be the subject of the message by Pastor Stauffer at the gospel hour at 7:45 p.m. The men's quartet, composed of Albert Gandt, Robert Gresham, Helmer Tinselt, and Glen Jerden, will sing. Also on the program will be a violin solo by Miss Virginia Gandt.

Tuesday, Feb. 28, at 6:30 p.m., the men's fellowship of the church will meet at the church for a spaghetti dinner. A film, entitled "The Way Out," will be shown.

SERMON SUBJECT
