Emmens-Carter Wedding

The wedding of Miss Patricia Louise Carter to Robert Walter Emmens took place Saturday, February 11, in Methodist Cathedral of the Rockies, Boise, Idaho. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Carter Jr., Boise, and the bridegroom is a son of Mrs. Thomas H. Emmens, 8 North Modoc avenue, and the late Dr. Emmens.

The double-ring ceremony was read at four o'clock in the afternoon by Dr. Herbert T. E. Richards and Mr. Carter gave his daughter in marriage. Red and white church decorations were in the valentine theme, and baskets held arrangements of carnations. David Wier was organist and Ronald Barton sang.

The bride wore a gown of slipper satin designed with fitted bodice, short, gathered sleeves, scooped neckline and full skirt which she had made. She carried red roses and a white orchid on a bible.

Mrs. Harvey E. Boardman, Eugene, was matron-of-honor for her sister and the other attendants were Mrs. Charles D. Coulter, Boise, and Mrs. Benjamin Wood, Provo, Utah, also sisters of the bride; Mrs. Richard Melcher, Pocatello, Idaho, and Miss Jane Call, Boise, a cousin of the bride.

They wore red and white polka dotted sheath frocks trimmed with flat bows at the waistlines, and red veils topped with bows. They carried chapel bibles with red roses and streamers to which red hearts were attached.

Jennifer Hibbs, Medford, and Stephanie Boardman, Eugene, niece of the bride, were flower girls. Miki Coulter and Carter Boardman, niece and nephew of the bride, were ring bearers.

John Matteson, Portland, was best man for the bridegroom and ushers were James, William and Lee Emmens, brothers of the bridegroom, and Peter Rasmussen, also Medford.

Lighting the candles were Jack and Steven Hibbs, Medford.

The reception given by the bride's parents was held in the Garden lounge of the cathedral and receiving guests with the bride's parents was Mrs. Walter Inch, Medford, grandmother of the bridegroom. Mrs. Garold Call, Boise, aunt of the bride, cut the wedding cake. Mrs. R. Daniel Carter, Boise, grandmother of the bride, and Mrs. Ralph Hibbs, Medford, poured.

The Misses Margaret Deal, Tonie and Linda Carter, all cousins of the bride, from Boise, were at the gift table and passed red and white rice bags. Miss Jill Hibbs, Medford, took charge of the guest book.

The newlyweds are at home in Eugene where the bridegroom is a student in pre-medicine. He is a grandson of Mrs. J. J. Emmens, 1443 East Main street, Medford, and the late Dr. Emmens, and of the late Walter Inch. He is a graduate of Medford High school. The bride was graduated from Boise High school and attended Oregon State college.

For traveling the bride wore a salt and pepper suit with white feathered hat and black accessories.

Among the wedding guests was Miss Louise Roberts, cousin of the bridegroom from Studio City, Calif.
