

Couple To Make Home in Ashland

Ashland - Mrs. T. S. Batchelder, 80 Nutley street, has entertained her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Burket, Fairbanks, Alaska, for the past few months and during their visit succeeded in "selling them" on the advantages of life in southern Oregon.

As a result the Burketts have purchased a home in Ashland and after completing their Alaskan business affairs will return to live at 906 Harmony lane.

Applegate PTA Plans Program On Resuscitation

Applegate - Applegate Parent-Teacher association for its March 2 meeting will be on resuscitation. Claude Haggard, safety engineer for the California-Oregon Power company, will present the program. Mr. Haggard says that anyone can perform this vital bit of first aid with proper instruction. All are invited to attend.

The unit will meet in the school gymnasium at 7:30 p.m.

Initiation Conducted By Bethel

Central Point - Eight candidates were initiated at a meeting of the Central Point Bethel, International Order of Job's Daughters, February 21. Queen Helen Goff presided.

Initiated were Miss Jean Ann Montgomery, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Montgomery and the Misses Linda May and Patricia Ann Ritterspach, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Van L. Ritterspach, Medford; Miss Martha Jane Harris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Harris, Miss Annetta Gail Fisher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William B. Fisher, Miss Virginia Lorraine Tomlinson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Howard Tomlinson, Miss Judi Armstrong, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Armstrong, and Miss Nanette Suzanne Burgoyne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred W. Burgoyne, Central Point.

Exalted and introduced were Miss Rebecca Ferrell, Junior past queen; Miss June Hopkins, grand bethel representative to Wisconsin; Merlyn D. Borough, associate guardian of Bethel 14, Medford; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Snook, worthy patron and matron of Nevita chapter, Order of Eastern Star; Mrs. Archie Purdy and Mrs. William Askwith, past grandmothers of the bethel.

Preceding the initiation Miss Rena Offutt was installed as third messenger replacing Miss Cora Belle Raveen who recently transferred to a bethel nearer her home.

Miss Kathleen Harsh and Miss Patricia Knapp sang a duet during the formal initiation rites and Queen Helen appointed big sisters for the neophytes following the services.

Plans were formulated for members to attend the institution of the new bethel in Grants Pass on Saturday, February 28. Members planning to attend were requested to meet at the Masonic hall by noon.

Daughters were informed that collections for the rummage sale to be held March 3 and 4 at the Gleason building in Central Point should be delivered to the residences of the Misses Janet Hobbs and June Hopkins in Central Point.

Refreshments were served by the Misses Colleen and Patricia Knapp, Teri Lee Martin, and Linda Snyder with assistance from their mothers. The Misses Lee Hamilton and Rebecca Ferrell were responsible for the decorations of the evening.

Rose Society Slates Session; Chairmen Listed

V. L. Quackenbush and Eldred W. Peyton will give a pruning demonstration at a meeting of the Medford Rose society February 27 in the county court house. The meeting will begin at 7:45 p.m. A discussion will follow the demonstration.

The program will also include a movie on growing and marketing roses. Mrs. Ronald Axtell, Trail, president, recently announced committees for the year. She will serve as chairman of the executive committee with Dr. Louis Gentner, Clarence Miller, Mrs. Edith Upkike, Mrs. Esther Hobbs, Dayton Depue and Elbert Lennox, members.

Mrs. Carl Norris is publicity chairman; Mrs. Gentner, membership; Mrs. Ruth H. Boyd, Rose Jotter, editor; Mrs. Clarence Miller, refreshment; Mr. Peyton, city rose garden; Mr. Miller, program; Mrs. W. R. Peabody, hospitality; Mrs. E. L. Lennox, door award; Mrs. Grace Fiero, remember the sick; Mr. Depue, rose show chairman; George Renaker, nominating; and Miss Claire Hanley, Jacksonville rose garden; and Dr. Gentner, finance.

Ashland Group Names Speaker

Ashland - Reservations for the Siskiyou Knife and Fork club meeting March 9 will be accepted through Monday March 6, according to Mrs. W. W. Hendrixson, secretary. They may be mailed to her at 360 Morton avenue, Ashland.

Speaker at the evening event will be Oliver Aubrey, broker and investment banker, who will speak on "How to Protect Your Dollars."

Get Together Club To Hold Luncheon

Get Together club plans a potluck luncheon on Friday, March 3 at the Girls Community club. The serving committee will be Mrs. Lydia Ash, Mrs. Anna McCormick, Mrs. Maude Lovell and Mrs. Mae Gottfried.

Members are asked to bring their old Christmas cards to this meeting. A business session and social hour will follow the one o'clock luncheon.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Olin Rice, 147 North Ivy street, are shown cutting a cake served at a reception which observed their sixtieth wedding anniversary. The event was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. Ronald Rice, 215 Saginaw drive, their son and daughter-in-law.

Lodges To Hear Student Speak

Members of Rebekah and Oddfellow lodges will hold a potluck dinner at 6:30 p.m., February 28 at the Oddfellows hall. Following the dinner Miss Linda Lewis, Ashland, will report on the visit she made last summer to the United Nations. She was sponsored by the Oddfellows and Rebekahs of Jackson county.

Olive Rebekah lodge has scheduled a meeting for 8 p.m., March 6. A sack lunch will follow the business session. All Rebekah members will be welcome.

Olive Rebekah members met Monday, February 20, in the Oddfellows hall for a regular session and program. K. G. Stockhoff showed colored slides of the Roseburg disaster and the earthquake in Montana.

Several musical numbers were performed by Miss Bernice Mahan and Tom Field. Refreshments were served by Mrs. P. M. Aldredge and her committee. Decorations had been planned in observance of George Washington's birthday.

To Hold Meeting

Mistletoe camp, Royal Neighbors of America, will meet at 7:30 p.m., March 2 in the Knights of Pythias hall. Visitors are welcome at meetings of the camp.

On the refreshment committee are Mrs. Carl Pearson, Mrs. Randolph Hugdahl, Mrs. Ethel Latham and Miss Blanche Arnold.

Anniversary Celebrated

Mr. and Mrs. C. Olin Rice, 147 North Ivy street, were honored recently at a reception which observed their 60th wedding anniversary. Hosts for the event were their only son, E. Ronald Rice, and Mrs. Rice, 215 Saginaw drive.

Only close friends of the two couples attended the informal event. Pink potted azaleas and pink carnations decorated the home.

Mr. and Mrs. Rice were married in Emporia, Kan., January 23, 1901. Both will be 85 years old in April. Among the guests were their granddaughter, Mrs. Charles Martin, Mr. Martin and their three children, Margy Lynn, Karen Ann and Dayn Charles, Eagle Point. The honored couple has another granddaughter, Mrs. David Shearer, who makes her home in Madras, Ore., with Mr. Shearer and their son, Ronald Scott.

The Rices came to Medford from Spokane where they lived for many years.

Mothers of Twins To Meet Thursday

Members of the Mothers of Twins club will hold their monthly meeting at 8 p.m., Thursday, March 2, at the home of Mrs. Lee Hubler, 642 South Holly street.

All mothers of twins are invited to the meeting. Anyone wishing information concerning the group may call Mrs. O. R. Schwartz, SPing 3-3542.

which girl wears CONTACT LENSES?

Actually, both pictures are of Dr. Noles' 13-year-old daughter who has worn contact lenses 16 hours a day for the past two years. And... she wears dark green tinted contact lenses for swimming and skiing.

A dramatic illustration of the cosmetic and psychological benefits to be derived from wearing contact lenses.
