Home Ceremony Marries Miss Perry, Bruce Field

Central Point — A wedding of interest to valley residents was held in Lakeview when Miss Juanita Catherine Perry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard R. Perry, Halfway, Ore., became the bride of Bruce W. Field, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Field, Seven Oaks road, Central Point.

The Rev. Wendell Heribson officiated at the seven o'clock evening rites held February 10 at the Heribson home. Baskets of pink roses and white chrysanthemums decorated the rooms for the double ring ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white lace. Her fingertip length veil was held by a seed pearl tiara and she carried a white orchid and carnations on a white ribbon.

Miss Edith Perry attended her sister. She wore a pale pink brocade frock and matching accessories. Her flowers were white and pink carnations.

Norman Jacobs, Merrill, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, served as best man.

Mrs. Harvey Field Jr., Central Point, cousin of the bridegroom, played the organ wedding music and accompanied Mr. Field, soloist.

For her daughter's wedding and reception which followed Mrs. Perry chose a beige lace dress with matching accessories. Mrs. Fields wore a green two piece dress with matching accessories.

At the reception Mrs. Norma Bialock, cut and served the wedding cake and Miss Doris Heribson and Miss Bonnie Lindsey poured. Mrs. Carolyn Hunt, Roseburg, aunt of the bride, was in charge of the guest book, and Miss Bonnie Lindsey and Miss Beverly Hendricks were at the gift table.

For traveling the bride wore a beige dress and coat with brown accessories and the orchid from her bridal bouquet. The bride attended Halfway High school, Boise, Idaho, Bible college, and Southern Oregon college, Ashland. The bridegroom attended Crater High school and was graduated from the University of Oregon. They are both teachers at Union Grade school in Lakeview. The couple is at home in Lakeview.

Among the out of town guests attending the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Field, Central Point, parents of the bridegroom; Mrs. Jacobs, Merrill, sister of the bridegroom; Mr. and Mrs. Richard Perry, Halfway, parents of the bride; Daniel J. Mills, Cottage Grove, uncle of the bride, and Miss Wilma Marshall, Roseburg.

Illustrious Potentate Kenneth Young of El Korah temple of the Shrine in Boise, Ida., and Mrs. Young are pictured here during the ball given February 25 in Medford by Hillah temple. Mrs. Young wore a gown of green silk for the event, attended by hundreds of Shriners and their wives.

Harold Fryes Celebrate 50th Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Harold A. Frye celebrated their golden wedding anniversary February 27 at their home, 803 West Second street. They were married in Galina, Iowa, in 1911 and lived in Dubuque for some time.

Mr. Frye served on the Medford City council for 16 years and was city parks chairman at the time Hawthorne park and swimming pool were constructed. He was also on the airport committee and has assisted in many other civic projects. Before the couple moved to Australia, Mrs. Frye was active in church work and sang at community functions.

Mr. Frye came to America from England in 1908 and became a United States citizen. He worked in Idaho for some time and met Mrs. Frye, the former Luella May McDonough, while visiting friends in Dubuque.

The Fryes moved to Australia in 1921 and stayed there for ten years while Mr. Frye and his brother operated a business together. Later they sold their company to a larger firm in Melbourne and the Fryes and their two children eventually returned to this country, deciding to settle in Medford because of accounts of this area from Mrs. Frye's brother and sister-in-law, the late Mr. and Mrs. A. J. McDonough.

Mr. Frye worked for the late Mr. and Mrs. James Grievens at the Prospect resort before becoming owner of the Summit grocery Jan. 1, 1934. He operated the grocery until his retirement two years ago, when his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Horace "Skeets" Knight, assumed management.

The couple's son, Harold Jr., lives at 803 West Second street, and their daughter, Mrs. H. F. Knight, at 452 Fairmount street. Their grandchildren are Walter and LeRoy Knight.

Walter, a former student at Lewis and Clark college, Portland, is now in Paris, France, where he is a student at the Sorbonne and is studying dress designing. He previously studied at Montpelier university, also in France.

Mrs. Knight returned recently from a trip to visit her son in Paris and also her father's relatives in London.

To Sing Here

On the music calendar for this week is a concert to be given Friday, March 10, by the Lewis and Clark college choir at First Presbyterian church, Medford, at 8 p.m.

L. Stanley Glarum is director of the choir. The concert will be open to the public; no admittance will be charged but an offering will be taken.

Pauline Denyer

Students Plan Summer Rites

Mr. and Mrs. Russell H. Denyer, 19 Ross court, announce the engagement of their daughter, Pauline, to John C. Flanagan, son of Mr. and Mrs. George C. Flanagan, Ehrman road, Medford.

Miss Denyer is a 1960 graduate of Medford High school and is a freshman at Oregon State college. She lives at Azalea house. Her fiancé, a 1959 graduate of Medford High school, is a sophomore at the same college.

A summer wedding is planned.

Delta Gammas Plan Banquet

The founder's day banquet of Rogue Valley Delta Gamma Alumnae association will be held at 1 p.m. Saturday, March 11, at the home of Mrs. John Cotton, Ashland. Mrs. Kenneth Bartlett, Ashland, and Mrs. Charles Martin, Eagle Point, are co-chairmen for the banquet. Mrs. Cotton and Miss Marian Ady, Ashland, are co-chairmen of the serving committee.

Mrs. Martin will speak concerning the Delta Gamma all-state founder's day observance in Salem which she and Mrs. T. J. Tinsley attended. Mrs. Tinsley also plans to attend the annual conference of province 15 in Vancouver, B. C., March 24.

Reservations for the banquet may be made by calling Mrs. Cotton, MURdock 5-8042.

Shield-Brown Wedding Held

Ashland—Mrs. Cloma Brown, formerly of Ashland, was attended by her two daughters and their husbands when she was married February 1 to Charles Shield of Eugene. Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Landing of Medford and Mr. and Mrs. Dale Williams of Eugene took part in the ceremony performed by the Rev. Ross Knotts in the Fireside room of the Springfield Methodist church.

The Rev. Mr. Knotts was pastor of the Ashland Methodist church for many years.

Mr. and Mrs. Shield will make their home in Eugene following their return from a wedding trip to southern California.

March Wedding Set for Couple

The approaching marriage of Miss Myrna Kae Thornton and Denis Glen Hagler has been announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd A. Thornton, 2392 Thorn Oak drive, Medford. His mother is Mrs. Rena Hagler, West Tenth street.

The wedding is planned for March 18 at 7:30 o'clock in the evening at First Assembly of God church, Medford.

The bride-elect attended Medford High school. Mr. Hagler was graduated from Phoenix High school and is employed by Jackson county in the dog control department.

Linda Slessler Is Representative

Miss Linda Slessler, Medford, a freshman at the University of Oregon, Eugene, has been elected junior Panhellenic representative to the Panhellenic council at the university. She is a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Slessler, 846 West 13th street.

Panhellenic is the coordinating council for sororities on campus.

Ashland—James Busch, senior at Willamette university, has been named ROTC cadet operations officer for spring term. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Busch, Ridge road.

Newlyweds Now at Home; Bride Honored at Parties

Applegate Valley—Mr. and Mrs. Ernest R. Kennedy Jr., whose wedding took place recently in Reno, Nev., are making their home at 3088 Old Stage road, Central Point.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glen W. Smith, Ruch, and the bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest R. Kennedy, 113 Valley View drive, Medford.

The bride's maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Peebler, Phoenix, Ore.

The wedding took place February 11, with the Rev. Richard A. Kisse performing the ceremony at 4:30 o'clock in the afternoon at the Methodist church. Mrs. Bruce Turner, Central Point, was matron-of-honor, and Dr. Turner was best man.

The bride wore a white wool suit with light blue accessories. Her pale blue hat was designed and made by her mother.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Gordon Smith of Medford also attended the wedding.

Mrs. Kennedy attended Jacksonville High school, and is employed with Roberts, Kellington, Branchfield, and Heffernan as a legal stenographer. Mr. Kennedy is a graduate of Oregon State college School of Pharmacy, and is a pharmacist at Hudson's Pharmacy, Central Point.

Since the wedding Mrs. Kennedy has been honored with two bridal showers. One was given at Rogue Valley

Country club by Mrs. Dorris Reed, Grants Pass. Mrs. William Miller, Medford assisted the hostess. Mrs. Edward Branchfield and Mrs. William Kennedy, sister-in-law of the bridegroom, poured. Decorations were in pink and silver with pink and white carnations about the room. Tables were centered with white wedding bells and fans and butterflies in pink and silver. About 40 guests attended.

Mrs. Bruce Matheny, Mrs. Chester McDonough and Mrs. Paul McBeth were hostesses at another shower at the home of Mrs. Glenn Smith.

Return
Ashland — Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Burgess, 40 Bush street, have returned from a motor trip to Duarte, Calif., where they visited for several weeks with their son Ralph Burgess Jr. and family.
