

Miss Gena McElvany

Gena McElvany And Airman Inger To Wed in June

Eagle Point — Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Garrison, 512 South B street, Eagle Point, Calif., before entering Eagle Point High school at mid-term. She plans on finishing her education at El Centro.

Mr. Inger is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy E. Inger Sr., Marion, Iowa. He is stationed at El Centro.

The couple plans a June wedding in Eagle Point.

BELLODOL

A Caron classic—the very essence of the carnation. Spicy, provocative, a scent for the woman who is frankly feminine—who dares to be daring (or demure).

EXTRACT $10 to $120;
LOTION $9.

HUDSON'S PHARMACY

Open Daily: 8:30 A.M.-10 P.M.
Sundays 10 A.M.-9 P.M.

613 E. Main • SP 3-5345

Klukkert-Ritter Wedding Held in Gold Hill Church

Gold Hill — Mr. and Mrs. John Klukkert, Jr., are residing at 1903 Prune street in Medford following a wedding trip to Portland and the Oregon coast.

Mrs. Klukkert is the former Joanne Ritter. Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. J. Raymond Ritter, Gold Hill. Mr. Klukkert is a son of Mr. and Mrs. John Klukkert, 941 South Ivy street, Medford.

The couple was married on Monday, February 20 at Gold Hill Community Methodist church at eight o'clock in the evening. The Rev. Loehlen L. Gregory, pastor of the church, officiated at the double-ring candlelight ceremony, which was held on the twenty-fourth wedding anniversary of the bride's parents. Eighty-five relatives and close friends of the couple attended.

For the ceremony, the church was decorated with baskets of white stock and pink carnations and white candelabra held lighted pink tapers. Mrs. John Bruce was organist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a shirtwaist frock of café au lait silk organza over silk crepe, fashioned with three-quarter length sleeves and skirt length full skirt. A crown of pink pearls held her short veil. Her slippers were pink satin, and she carried pink rosebuds on a white ribbon.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Darrel Greb, Central Point. She wore a hand woven linen sheath dress of ivory color fashioned with pink satin cummerbund and matching satin slippers. Her flowers were pink carnations.

Miss Mary Ann Owens, Medford, lighted the candles. Her dress was a pastel print and she wore a carnation wristlet.

Victor Klukkert, Medford, brother of the bridegroom was usher and James Martin, Medford, served as best man. A reception was held in the social room of the church.

Couple To Wed In Mid-April

Rogue River — Mr. and Mrs. Harold McKenzie, Rogue River, announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Mary Jo, to Larry Peebles, son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Peebles, Grants Pass.

Miss McKenzie was graduated from Rogue River High school in 1959 and completed one year at Southern Oregon college. Mr. Peebles was graduated from Grants Pass High school in 1954 and is proprietor of Chevron Service station, Grants Pass.

Their marriage is planned for the middle of April and will take place in Rogue River.

The bride's table was covered with a lace cloth over pink, and centered with a pink net ruffle encircling a tiered wedding cake. Pink tapers in crystal holders flanked the center arrangement. Mrs. Earl Moore, long time family friend of the bride, baked and decorated the cake for the occasion.

Mrs. Moore cut and served the wedding cake assisted by Miss Mary Ann Owens. Mrs. Everett Drake poured coffee and Miss Rose Drake presided at the punch bowl.

Mrs. Blanche Merriman and Mrs. L. L. Martin, both of Gold Hill and cousins of the bride, took charge of the gift table. Miss Deanna Arnold, Medford, cousins of the bridegroom kept the guest book.

Mrs. Ritter selected a beige and turquoise sheath frock with white accessories for her daughter's wedding and reception. Mrs. Klukkert wore a dress of light blue with white accessories. Their corsages were white gardenias.

The bride is employed in the x-ray department of Eys. Lawson, Gillum and Markee in Medford. The bridegroom is an employee at the Bear Creek Service station.

Creagers At Reception In Salem

A number of Jackson county residents were honored Tuesday at a reception in Salem hosted by the Colleges for Oregon's Future committee.

Prior to the reception at the Marion Motor hotel, some 250 invited guests at the Capitol heard Mrs. Mark O. Hatfield relate how the Governor, a patient at the University of Oregon Medical School hospital, had signed H.B. 1011, enabling legislation for the constitutional amendment.

H.B. 1011 authorizes expenditure of 10 million dollars for construction of these self-amortizing buildings within the next biennium. Jack H. Creager, Medford, chairman of the Jackson County Colleges of Oregon's Future committee, will be presented one of the pens used by the Governor to sign the bill. Mrs. Creager assisted by greeting guests at the reception.

Receiving the guests were Mrs. Hatfield, John R. Richards, chancellor of the State System of Higher Education and Mrs. Richards, Dr. and

Mr. and Mrs. John Klukkert Jr.

Auxiliaries To Assemble For Spring Board Session

Approximately 200 members of Lions auxiliaries from throughout Oregon are expected to attend the state auxiliary spring board meeting in Medford—Wednesday, March 8.

Auxiliaries of Eagle Point, Phoenix, Jacksonville, Talent, Medford and Medford Crater will be hosts for the event. "Fruits of the Valley" will be the theme.

Mrs. Frank Christian, Talent, is state president. Members of the state executive committee will attend a dinner and business meeting at the Christian home Tuesday evening. Women of the Phoenix club will serve.

The all-day board meeting will begin with a coffee hour from 9 to 10 a.m. at Kim's restaurant. It will be followed by a business session.

Ashland Women Move to Manor

Ashland — Mrs. Robert MacFarlane, who has been visiting in Minneapolis and Denver for several months, returned to Ashland last week and February 28 moved into her apartment at the Rogue Manor.

Also moving from Ashland to the Manor at the same time was Mrs. Percy Wells of 195 Van Ness avenue.

Mrs. R. E. Kleinsorge, the President of the Senate and Mrs. Harry Boivin, the Speaker of the House Robert Duncan, and Representative Clarence Barton.

Methodist Ceremony Weds Pair

Tiller — Miss Violet Mae Newton, daughter of L. E. Newton, Tiller, became the bride of James Alvin Marshall, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Marshall, also Tiller, in a ceremony February 25 in South Umpqua Community church. The singlering ceremony was read at two o'clock in the afternoon by the Rev. Alice Wooley of Days Creek Methodist church.

Baskets of spring flowers decorated the church for the service. Mrs. Verne Terwill played the piano and Mrs. Earl Tibbets was vocal soloist.

Mr. Newton gave his daughter in marriage. She wore a ballerina-length gown of white lace and carried a bouquet of pink camellias and white hyacinths.

Miss Betty Newton was maid of honor for her sister. Bridesmaids were Miss Clara Newton, the Misses Peggy, Sharon and Evelyn Marshall and Miss Joline Hoskins. All wore pastel colored ballerina-length dresses and carried arrangements of pink apple blossoms and white carnations with styrofoam hearts.

Candlelighters were Jess Linker and Billy Marshall. Robert Marshall, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Michael Donovan and Fred Van Norman seated guests.

Friends of the bride gave a reception for the couple in Tiller school auditorium following the wedding. Mrs. Richard Long decorated the three-tiered cake for the event.

The bride attended Tiller Elementary school and Days Creek High school. The bridegroom, an Army veteran, is an employee of the forest service. They will make their home in Tiller.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding included Mrs. Jack Moore, Klamath Falls, sister of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Berger, Cottage Grove, uncle and aunt of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Newton, Ashland, uncle and aunt; Mrs. Elmer Stanby, Canyonville; Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Kent, Myrtle Creek; and Mr. and Mrs. Dale Rushton, and children, Tri-City. The Kents and Rushtons are former teachers of the bride.

Piano Students Present Recital

Piano students of Mrs. Margaret Taylor participated in a recital Friday, February 24, at 1011 Winchester avenue. Refreshments were served to parents and other relatives attending.

Students were Mark Swisher, Sara Wolf, Debbie Tyer, Debra Chitwood, Julie Wolfhoff, Jill Sorensen and Valerie Schwab.

Miss Jo Ann Coyner (Kennell-Ellis photo)

Two Students Engaged To Wed

Redmond — Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Coyner, Redmond, recently announced the engagement of their daughter, Jo Ann, to Carl Edward Gordon, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Gordon, 1019 South Oakdale avenue, Medford.

Miss Coyner is a senior majoring in speech therapy at the University of Oregon, Eugene, and her fiancé a graduate of Medford High school, is a senior in industrial design at the university. She is a member of Alpha Delta Pi sorority and he is affiliated with Delta Upsilon fraternity.

They plan a June wedding.

Family Here

Mrs. R. L. de Beauchamp and sons, Guy and Peter, Salt Lake City, are visitors at the home of her mother, Mrs. John Seiler, 1132 West Main street. Mrs. de Beauchamp will spend two weeks with her mother before moving to Boulder City, Nev.

Art Student Is Initiated

Monmouth — Miss Sandra Gardenhire of Medford, a student at Oregon College of Education, was recently elected to membership in Kappa Pi, the national art fraternity. Founded in 1911, with only two other chapters in Oregon colleges, Kappa Pi is found in 47 states in the U. S. Students elected to membership are upperclassmen with high scholastic standing and outstanding art ability. With the approval of the art staff and election by club members, Miss Gardenhire was initiated into the OCE chapter.

Miss Gardenhire is a junior at OCE majoring in elementary education. She lives at 30 Kenwood avenue, Medford. Her parents are Lt. Col. and Mrs. C. F. Gardenhire, New York. The officer is with the United States Air Force.

Hadley's

DRASTIC REDUCTIONS

on

- Coats • Suits
- Dresses

PRICES SLASHED

- Jewelry
- Gloves
- Sportswear

New Spring
• Hats • Coats • Dresses
Arriving Daily

Use Your Charge Account

Hadley's
17 South Central

It's from Brophy's Medford

Serving Southern Oregon and Northern California for Over 30 Years

Pride of Ownership

Rolex Watches are cherished by men and women who insist on the best in fine timepieces. Come in and see these Rolex watches... for yourself.

(6564) Oyster Perpetual... steel and gold models... starting at $125.00 f.t.d.

(6591) 14 kt. gold case, 25 jewel chronometer movement... $150.00 f.t.d.

Pick Your Orchid

Rolex

There's never been a watch like this before. It's so small and slim and lovely you'll want to save it for great occasions. But that's quite unnecessary. The Rolex Orchid is immune to dust, dirt and dampness. Even an accidental drenching—which could stop any other dress-up watch cold—won't effect it... because the orchid seals moisture out, precision in. It's probably the most practical watch you could own... Six imported styles in 18 k. gold with strap, cord or gold bracelet. From $150 up.

For the Gifts
You'll Give With Pride... Let Brophy's
Be Your Guide!

Brophy's
JEWELERS
MEDFORD, OREGON
Quality Diamonds Honestly Priced

at jean hart's

the side-split skirt

MR. MORT

Mr. Mort designs a dress with great charm. Simple bodice sets off a wonderful shaped skirt with two deep inverted pleats on either side... button and button-hole trim.

EXCLUSIVELY
at the sign of the RED HEART!

where you find the clothes you love to live in.

617 E. Main

Ph. SP 2-8992

as seen in Glamour

Fashion
is a Look
...not a Price!

A smartly detailed pump with a new look... a tiny bow and delicate stitching adorns the tailored vamp. The pump has a high, slim heel and is completely unlined. $995

... in Bone ... Spring's Most Perfect Neutral Shade!

Smartaire
Johnston and Stewart
The Corner Shoe Store
Central at Main Downtown Medford