

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Sweeting, Tacoma, Wash., were among the guests in Medford February 25 for the annual Potentate's ball of Hillaiah temple of the Shrine. Mr. Sweeting is second ceremonial master for Affili temple. Mrs. Sweeting, who designs and makes her own gowns, fashioned the frock shown here from a textured white silk sent from France. Her hand-made slippers are covered with glittering borealis stones. Mrs. Sweeting is to be installed queen of the Tacoma temple of Daughters of the Nile this month.

Pictures of Antarctica Scheduled For Monday

A trip to Antarctica and the area near the South Pole has been taken by only a few people. One of them is a Medford resident, A. C. Pierce.

Mr. Pierce will show colored slides and movies of this experience to the Arm Chair Travelers of the Senior Activity Center Monday, March 6, at 1 p.m.

Mrs. Judd Greenman and William Jones will be in charge of this week's program since Dr. Frank Roberts, who arranged for the showing, will be in Ashland, as a guest speaker at the Kiwanis club meeting at the Mark Antony hotel. Dr. Roberts will speak on Fifty Plus clubs and Senior Centers as chairman of recreation for the Rogue Valley Council on Aging. He was asked to speak by Dwayne Baker, geriatrics chairman of the Ashland Kiwanians.

Mrs. Blanche Rinabarger, 136 Vancouver avenue, has been teaching the beginners' class in Spanish during the absence of Mrs. Victor Birdseye. The class is Monday at 7:30 p.m. She has been also helping the Spanish Conversation group on Thursday mornings during the absence of Mrs. Charles Furnas.

New members may still join the Tuesday morning Great Decisions discussion group for men led by Arnold Jenny, it was announced.

New Members Welcome
Since the art exhibit of Mrs. Victoria Staley's class Sunday new members may join either the Tuesday class of Mrs. Staley's or the Saturday class of Clifford Platz, both held from 1 to 3 p.m.

To celebrate the successful exhibit, Mrs. Laura Whitcher, one of the class members who exhibited several pictures in the show, surprised the class Tuesday with a cake for the coffee hour. Mrs. Whitcher's pictures may still be viewed at the Center.

The Center committee reported that during the month of February, the shortest month of the year, the largest group used the Center. The attendance list now is 350 seniors, more than 100 per cent increase over last year, and 100 more persons than in the month of January. This number does not include the guests who came to the open house.

In the exhibit guests list were several newcomers to this area who are now residents of Rogue Valley Manor.

Ceremony is Held In Lebanon

Happy Camp — The wedding of Miss Barbara Ann Curtis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Curtis, Happy Camp, to David Eugene Harnden, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Harnden, Prineville, Ore., took place February 4 in Lebanon, Ore. The Rev. Richard Gossnell of Lebanon Baptist church performed the ceremony in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Preston Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith, uncle and aunt of the bride, attended the couple. A small number of relatives and friends were present.

The bride wore a pink lace sheath dress with white satin jacket and a short veil held by a white satin head band. Her accessories were white and she carried a white Bible with white carnations. Mrs. Smith chose a navy blue sheath dress with white accessories.

A reception followed the wedding.

The young couple traveled to eastern Oregon for their wedding trip, the bride wearing a lavender two-piece suit. They will reside in Happy Camp.

The bride attended Happy Camp High school and the bridegroom, who attended Long Creek High school, Pendleton, is an employee of the forest service.

Guests at the wedding included the bride's parents and her brother and sister, Lonnie and Ellen; her grandmother, Mrs. Bessie Smith, Lebanon; uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Smith, and children, Darla, Darrell and Dale; an aunt, Mrs. John Smith, and daughter, Jolene, and cousins, Ricky and Linda Smith, all of Lebanon; and Mrs. Richard Gossnell, wife of the minister.

Mrs. Lesta Gardner

Grand Chief To Be Here

Mrs. Lesta Garner, Vernonia, Ore., grand chief of Pythian Sisters for Oregon, will make an official visit to Talisman temple here Tuesday, March 7. She will be accompanied by Mr. Garner.

Mrs. Garner, on the staff of The Eagle at Vernonia, is editor of the Pythian Sunshine Girls News which goes to members in both the United States and Canada.

Mrs. Jay Cochran, most excellent chief of the local temple, has appointed Mrs. William Sweet as refreshment chairman for the evening, and Mrs. Arnold Molschenbacher will decorate the table.

Mrs. Carl Fichtner is chairman of a banquet which will be held at North's Chuck Wagon preceding the evening session. Reservations for this are to be made with Mrs. Fichtner, Spring 3-1937.

Initiation will be held during the evening, with Mrs. Harry Bryant and her staff assisting the officers.

Plans for Mrs. Garner's visit were made at a meeting of the temple February 28. It was followed by a cake walk staged by Pythian Sunshine Girls.

Past Chiefs' club held the last meeting at the home of Mrs. Bryant, with Mrs. W. L. Walden assisting. The next meeting will be held March 28 at the home of Mrs. Fichtner.

Guests in Valley

Ashland — Guests this week at the home of Mrs. Victor Flint, 221 B street have been Mr. and Mrs. Ernest A. Jensen, Rochester, Minn.

School Food Association To Hold Convention Here

Several hundred school lunch program workers will attend the eleventh annual Oregon School Food Service association conference in Medford March 16 and 17. Sessions will be at Medford High school.

According to Mrs. Gladys Negelspaugh, Portland, president of the group one of the highlights of the two day meeting will be the address by the national president-elect, David Page. Mr. Page is school lunch director of the St. Louis public schools. As such, he directs the operation of 75 lunchrooms serving 30,000 meals a day at a cost of $1,500,000 a year.

Other speakers for the first day of the convention will include Mrs. Laura P. Wells, Salem, director of the Oregon School lunch program; Mrs. Netta Geil, cook-manager of Ardenwald school, Milwaukie; Jack Holmes, principal of Lincoln school, Medford, and Mrs. Berenice Kallas, supervisor of the South Eugene High school lunchroom. They will make up a panel on "It's Easy to Teach an Old Dog New Tricks."

Three new association units will be chartered during a business meeting. They are in Beaverton, Junction City and Eastern Oregon.

Another panel discussion, demonstrations and a banquet will conclude Thursday's program and Friday's program will include music, speakers, installation of officers and a tour of interesting Jackson county places.

Meetings Announced By Protective Group

The executive committee and the Carnation club of the Degree of Honor Protective association will meet at the home of Mrs. Arthur Webster, 401 East 12th street, Monday, March 6. The meeting will begin with luncheon at 12 o'clock noon.

Members of the Past Presidents club will meet at 8 p.m. Tuesday, March 7, at the home of Mrs. Irl Groves, 1008 Reddy avenue.

Many Students At Conference

Portland — The Misses Anne Matthews, Susan Fontaine, Alice Croxton and Denise Bruning, Medford, were among 100 coeds from 13 Oregon colleges to attend the state conference of the Associated Women Students held recently at Lewis and Clark college here.

The one-day meeting featured workshops on the topic "Preparing for Tomorrow Today," with four LC girls as leaders. Speakers were Dr. Hester Turner, director of professional services for Oregon Education Association, and Mrs. Cleo Maletis, Mrs. America of 1955.

Misses Fontaine, Matthews and Bruning attend LC and Miss Croxton is a student at Southern Oregon college.

In Arizona

Ashland — Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Talbot of Bellview are now in Arizona for a two-week vacation. They expect to visit with relatives in southern California and San Francisco en route home to Ashland.

YMCA Gives Style Show

Ashland — "Around the World in Fashions" proved to be a drawing card for the Tuesday evening YMCA-sponsored style show held in the Caesar room of the Mark Antony hotel. The crowd of approximately 140 took part in a colorful proxy global journey to view styles of many nations and to see group dances.

Narrator for the fashion review was Hugh Simpson and co-chairmen of the event were Mrs. Keith Garrett and Colleen Hope of the Colleen Hope Dance Studio, Medford. Dancers were chosen from the YMCA classes and models who wore the 20 ensembles shown were the Misses Tina vonKuhlmann, Dana Nelson, Linda Bailey, Joan Bobbett, Barbara Clinton, Sandy Meggers, Billie Kay Mearns, Karen Fieguth, Diane Fieguth, Sylvia Brostad, Sue Atchley, Linda Hill and Lana Hargis. All are members of the Y modeling classes.

Ashland merchants furnished the style show apparel and accessories.

State Convention To Be Held Here

Committees for the coming state convention of Letter Carriers and auxiliary were appointed at a meeting of the local auxiliary Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Charles Wiley, 712 West Second street. Mrs. Randy Huggdahl, president, appointed Mrs. Larry Rose and Mrs. H. G. Fitzpatrick to assist her with convention plans.

The convention, to be held in Medford May 19, 20 and 21, is to include a Hawaiian luau on the Friday luncheon.

Plans were also made for a rummage sale March 8 in the Fehl building.

The next regular meeting of the auxiliary is scheduled for April 5 at the home of Mrs. S. J. Fagone.

Woman Speaker

Details of her recent extended stay in Guatemala will be told by Mrs. I. E. Schuler at a meeting of Xi Mu chapter of Beta Sigma Phi at 8 p.m. Wednesday, March 8.

Mrs. Schuler, an honorary member of Xi Mu, will be hostess to the group in her home, 114 Highland drive.

We Pick Up. HELP OTHERS!

The Salvation Army
30 N. Holly
SPRING 3-7335

which girl wears CONTACT LENSES?

Actually, both pictures are of Dr. Noles' 13-year old daughter who has worn contact lenses 16 hours a day for the past two years. And... she wears dark green tinted contact lenses for swimming and skiing.

A dramatic illustration of the cosmetic and psychological benefits to be derived from wearing contact lenses.

Why not send the WHOLE girl back to school?

- Complete Eye Examination
- No Appointment Needed
- Convenient Credit
- We Give S&H Green Stamps

10 Convenient Offices Located in Oregon

our 56th year
COLUMBIAN OPTICAL CO.

MEDFORD SHOPPING CENTER
Phone SP 2-9990

casual shopping with convenient parking
© Drs. Oscar J. Noles and William L. Hodson

Rose Show Date Set By Society

The annual show of Medford Rose society has been set for Saturday, June 17, according to an announcement made by Mr. and Mrs. Dayton Depue, show co-chairmen, at the recent meeting of the society.

This will be the seventh annual show of the society, and rose growers of the valley are encouraged to keep the date in mind and to plan to enter. Classes for novice exhibitors will be held, and also for those having won ribbons and trophies in previous shows.

Mrs. L. G. Gentner and Mrs. Randal Axtell were named as representatives of the Medford society for the spring convention and national show of the American Rose society to be held in San Diego, Calif., April 13-16. Dr. Gentner and Mr. Axtell were named alternates.

John McLoughlin, county extension agent and horticulturist, presented a colored film entitled "All American Selection of Roses." The film was followed by a discussion and demonstration on the methods of spring pruning of rose bushes given by Vaughn Quackenbush and Eldred Peyton.

Guests of the society for the evening in addition to Mr. McLoughlin, were Everett Ravenor and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Morehouse.

Next month's meeting will include a general plant sale.

Meeting Planned In Grants Pass

The National Association of Retired Civil Employees will hold a potluck dinner and district meeting at the Community building, 508 S.E. 1 street, Grants Pass. Those attending are to bring table service.

Imported from West Germany!
Really New and Unique

WALLPAPER

FOR HOME & OFFICE!

See Our Samples & Books in Our Wallpaper Department

Colorama Paint Center
COLORAMA & GLIDDEN PAINTS

"Your Silver Dollar Paint Store"

315 East Main
Phone SP 2-4564

Spring '61: free and easy silhouettes in color unlimited!

Easy, effortless... this is the lithe young American look in coats and suits filled with Paris news-notes.

Suit Jackets cropped to clear the hipbone or longer, loosely sashed. Coats with the great new sweep, stand-offish necklines shorter sleeves, bold buttons... color, clear and vital. A positive spectrum of it.

Coat or suit... $59.95

