

Professor To Speak For Groups

Dr. Frank Munk, professor of political science at Reed college, Portland, will speak on "Behind and Beyond the Iron Curtain" at the Thursday dinner meeting of the Rogue River Valley Knife and Fork club.

Reservations for the event will be accepted through Monday by Mrs. Richard House, 15 Corning court. The dinner will begin at 6:45 p.m. at the Rogue Valley Country club.

Dr. Munk returned to Reed college in 1946, having previously taught at the college from 1939-1941. He has been a research fellow of the Rockefeller foundation at Harvard, Columbia and Brookings Institute. From 1941-1944 he was on the faculty of the University of California, and from 1944 until his return to Reed, he was director of training of the UN Relief and Rehabilitation administration. A native of Czechoslovakia, he attended the University of Prague where he received his doctorate degree.

Under his leadership the World Affairs Council of Oregon pioneered the Great Decisions program which won it the first national community award from the Foreign Policy association for the most significant contribution to citizen understanding of world affairs.

He is author of "The Economics of Force" and "The Legacy of Nazism." A trustee and former president of the World Affairs Council of Oregon, Dr. Munk is dean of the Northwest Institute of International Relations.

He is a member of the steering committee of the Atlantic Institute, Brussels, and of the Institute of Strategic Studies, London. He was visiting professor at the University of Washington, governor of the Portland City club and contributing editor of the Oregon Journal.

At noon Dr. Munk will talk for a luncheon meeting of Medford League of Women Voters at the Jackson hotel. The meal will be served at 12 o'clock.

His topic will be "The Future of the Dollar" and anyone interested is invited to attend. Reservations are to be made with Mrs. Richard Schwan, Spring 2-8825. Those unable to attend the luncheon are welcome to come to hear Dr. Munk speak.

Clerks Hold District Meet Here

A business meeting and banquet were held here last week end by the southern Oregon district of the National Federation of Post Office Clerks. Host group was Medford Local 342 of which Gerald Harper is president.

Robert Newton, Cave Junction, district vice-president, conducted the business sessions, held at the Jackson hotel.

Speakers for a banquet in the evening were John Hovey, Eugene, state president; James G. Morris, Portland, national state representative, and Clarence Christensen, Portland, another national representative.

Forty-five attended the banquet. This district is composed of Klamath Falls, Ashland, Medford, Grants Pass and other smaller post offices.

The clerks were assisted in giving the banquet by members of the auxiliary to Local 342, and plans were made at the February meeting, held at the home of Mrs. Roland Hovey. The auxiliary women also sponsored a coffee hour.

At the meeting, Mrs. Gill Merritt, Mrs. Hovey and Mrs. Donald Gray were appointed to decorate the banquet tables.

The annual fund-raising project will be held in April. Funds raised will finance the charitable and social activities of the auxiliary.

Mrs. Gray, secretary, presented Mrs. Claude Allen, retiring president, a past president's pin and a gift from the auxiliary.

Home From South Ashland - Mrs. Louise Peruzzi, 88 Granite street, returned last week from Los Angeles where she has spent several months with her daughter Louise.

Six Girls Initiated On Birthday of Bethel 14

Mrs. Ralph Nelson, Portland, grand guardian of the International Order of Job's Daughters in Oregon, inspected Bethel 14 here at a meeting March 1 in the Masonic temple. Queen Barbara Morton presided at the ceremony of initiation for six girls.

The new members are the Misses Susan Benesh, Debbie Lou Brody, Sonja Wray, Kathryn Wittle, Judy Woolridge and Judy Norton.

Among the guests escorted and introduced were Mrs. Nelson; Mr. Lem Manning, Medford, associate grand guardian; Mrs. J.W. McGill, Beaverton, grand secretary; Mrs. C. D. Elhart, Medford, past grand guardian of Oregon and past guardian of Bethel 14; Mrs. Harold Gordon, Medford, grand chaplain; Miss Vicki Ingram, grand representative to New Mexico; Miss Jean DeYoung, honored queen of the Grants Pass U. D. Bethel; Miss Micke Noble and Miss Carla Borrough, past honored queens of Bethel 14; Miss Jackie Ball, Grants Pass, senior princess of U. D. Bethel; and Miss Michelyn Boughner, junior princess of Bethel 69, Medford.

Also introduced were Mrs. John North and Wallace Eri, guardian and associate guardian of Bethel 69; Mrs. T. H. Denny, guardian of Grants Pass U. D. Bethel; Mrs. Ross Gilkison and Mrs. Ralph Lue, past guardians of Bethel 14; and Mrs. Roy Nordwick, worthy matron, and William Preceding the meeting, a dinner was held at North's Chuck Wagon in honor of Mrs. Nelson and Mr. Manning. Following the ceremonies, the Bethel presented the two honored guests with autograph hounds. Mrs. Nelson presented Queen Barbara a China cornucopia.

The next meeting will be March 15 and will be the Bethel's friendship night.

Gold Star Mothers To Be Entertained

Medford chapter of the Gold Star Mothers will be guest of the Navy Mothers at a potluck luncheon Tuesday, March 7, at the Girls Community club at 12 noon.

A short business meeting will follow. Plans will be made for the food sale to be held at the Home Appliance store on March 18 and the rummage sale to be held at the Fehi building on March 21.

Dinner Plans Made at Meet

Cold Hill - Plans for the annual dinner party of Amethyst Rebekah Friendship club were made during the February meeting of the group at the home of Mrs. Donald Morrow, vice president. Mrs. DeLos Walker, newly elected president, conducted the business session.

The club's social is slated for Monday, March 20, at a Medford restaurant. Those who plan to go are asked to meet at the home of Mrs. Paul Molloy at 7 p.m. on that date.

NEW FROM SIMMONS! QUILTED BEAUTYREST

Another great "First"... famous independent coil Beautyrest construction plus the added comfort of this new, smooth quilted sleeping surface

Here it is, the new Quilted Beautyrest with the smoothest sleeping surface ever. Not a button or a tuft. And it's Beautyrest through and through, giving you buoyant firmness that's kind to your back. Under the gay, smooth quilted top is the famous independent coil construction... separate independent springs that push up under you for perfect body-fitting comfort. Beautyrest can never, never sag. That's why Beautyrest with separate springs gives you single-bed comfort in a double bed, why the heaviest husband can't disturb his wife's rest. There's no rolling together.

Because the new Quilted Beautyrest is pure Beautyrest, it actually costs less to own. In every durability test made by the United States Testing Company, Beautyrest lasted 3 times longer than ordinary connected coil mattresses. So you save in the long run. Come in today, see and try this new member of the Beautyrest family. Full or twin size only $79.50 (matching boxspring also $79.50). Like the tufted Beautyrest, this new quilted mattress is available in Super-size models for extra length and width, and in a choice of firmness too. Beautyrest is made only by Simmons.
