Large Audience Attends Style Show, Card Party

About 150 Rogue valley women attended the annual spring style show and card party given Friday, March 3, at Rogue Valley Country club by Alpha Rho chapter, Beta Sigma Phi. Proceeds are to be used for a nursing scholarship.

Burelson's presented the fashion show, with past members of the chapter serving as models. Color is important on the fashion scene this year, especially pink. Pink comes in such shades as shocking, petal, fuchsia and camellia. Shades of lavender are also much seen.

The new coats modeled had drop shoulders and new, shorter sleeves. The sheath-type dress is still very much on the scene, and shirtwaists and sweater dresses were also shown.

Models were Mrs. Richard Henselman, Mrs. Bill Werner, Mrs. Richard Riggs, Mrs. James Tengesdal, Mrs. David Legg, Mrs. Jonathan Middleton, Mrs. Lou Cranston, Mrs. James Callan, sponsor this year, and Mrs. Chester Ashton, director.

Mrs. William Tyler was commentator. Hair styles were done by Burelson's Hair Fashions, and make-up was

Girl Scout Week Opens; Calendar Tea Thursday

Girl Scout week opens today, with Oregon scouts joining with millions of others throughout the United States to celebrate the 49th anniversary of founding. Girl Scouts was started in 1912 when Juliette Gordon Low called together 12 girls to form the first troop in Savannah, Ga.

Scouts and adults of the Rogue Valley Girl Scout council are taking part in the annual week and most outstanding event planned here will be the second annual Girl Scout Calendar tea. It will be given Thursday, March 16, at the Red Cross chapter house on Hawthorne avenue. Hours will be from 2 to 6 p.m. and the public is invited to attend.

Twelve organizations in the Rogue valley will each decorate a table for the tea, using the month of the year they have been assigned as the decorative theme. The participating groups are Alpha Beta chapter, Beta Sigma Phi; Catholic Daughters of America, Ashland Garden club, Central Point Garden club, Medford Garden club, Medford Jaycees, Medford Junior Service league, Kiwanian Dames, Chapter AC, PEO sisterhood, Ashland, Travel Study club, Shady Cove Garden club and Contemporary Book club.

A panel of judges will choose the winning table arrangements, and cash prizes will be awarded. In addition, guests will be given an opportunity to vote on their favorites. Officers of the participating organizations will pour during the afternoon.

Funds derived from the event will be used to give the annual dinner for girls who have earned their first class rating and a function to honor those who win the curved bar award. About 135 girls usually take part in these events.

Mrs. Thomas R. Lytle is serving as council president during the absence abroad of Mrs. R. W. Gray, and Mrs. Raymond R. Reiter is tea chairman. Mrs. H. E. Nulton is publicity chairman.
