Glimpses at Glamour

From DOROTHY ELLIOTT

Can the girl whose hair is thinning, or beginning to fall out, be helped? Of course she can! In many instances such a condition is associated with a physical or nervous upset, in which getting to the root of the problem and correcting it is important. This calls for medical advice.

Besides this, however, there are several types of treatments available and all good cosmetologists are trained to apply them. They can aid and abet the doctor's help... and have you looking as attractive as possible in the process.

Grime, dirt and flaky dryness wash away with a reconditioning shampoo. We have five operators experienced in every phase of beauty care. Come in and let us select the kind right for your hair condition at our Salon, De-Na's, at 410 Hawthorne Ave. in the Medford Shopping Center.
