

Quinney Chosen on 2 Oregon Hoop All-State 1st Teams

BOB QUINNEY Tornado All-Stater

Bob Quinney, Medford high's stellar three-sport man, drew acclaim over the week end when he was named on two Oregon all-state prep basketball quintets.

Quinney was named to the first teams picked for the Portland Oregonian and the Oregon Journal.

Dick Ragdale, Medford, was chosen on the Oregon Journal's all-state third quintet.

Picked with Quinney on the Oregonian's No. 1 club were Jim Jarvis, Roseburg; Bruce Brickner, Klamath Falls; Larry Enos, Corvallis; and Rod Young, Lake Oswego.

The Oregonian's second team included Wally Palmberg, Klamath Falls; Bo Blair, South Eugene; Dan Petticord, Clackamas; Rick Whelan, Milwaukie; and Al Zell, Grant. Making up the third team were Terry Jackson, St. Helens; Jim Smith, Wilson; Dennis Schweitzer, Reedsport; Bud Hilliard, LaGrande; and Bruce Bradshaw, Piedmont.

Little Takes Main On PAL Mitt Card

DICK RAGSDALE All-State Third Team

Bobby Little, Medford, took charge at the start and pounded out an unanimous decision over Joe Riggins, Coos Bay, in the Medford Police Athletic league boxing card at the Armory Saturday night.

An estimated 500 spectators saw PAL mittmen score triumphs in six of the 10 battles that matched Medford fighters against representatives of the Coos Bay club. There were 11 bouts in all on the card for the benefit of the National Research foundation's March of Dimes.

John Winningham, 130, Medford PAL, decisioned Junior Thompson, Coos Bay in the semi-windup and Larry Lewis, 145, from the local organization, took an easy verdict from Robert Goins, Coos Bay, in the special event.

Riggins, substituting for Don Withrow, of the coast city who had the flu, found why Medford's Little has become one of the top battlers of the state in his weight. The Coos club scrapper's confidence faded quickly as the result of Bobby's fast punching combinations.

Winningham's bout with Junior Thompson was not so fast and torrid as their previous skirmish in the coast town. The Applegate area youth was bothered by a swelling left eye caused by an unintentional head butt. This hampered his vision. He had trouble finding his man and took several hard right punches. These shook Winningham but failed to slow him down.

Lewis displayed the power and form which won him an AAU boxing championship of Oregon several years back. He spotted Goins 12 pounds but, with the prowess that won him recognition throughout the Northwest, Lewis punned Goins' body in every round. Goins was game but appeared glad to hear the final bell.

In the first boxing show here in almost two years, there was crowd pleasing action in all the bouts. Appetite for action was zested when Dale Birkland, PAL, and Randy Thompson, Coos Bay, tangled in the opening scrap.

These 85-pounders treated fans to a fast, furious, duet. Birkland's pressing attack and straighter punching won him an unanimous decision.

Hardly had the cheers for this bout faded when the crowd was shouting encouragement to Rusty Smith and Ricky Orr, both of the local stable in an 85-pound exhibition. The skill the youths picked up in hours of coaching was apparent. Smith showed himself a fast, skillful will 'o' the wisp boxer, darting in and out for fast combinations. Orr displayed heavier punching to the head and body. Smith was given the decision by the narrowest of margins.

Bill Bailey, Medford, eked out a split decision over Robert Milton, Coos Bay, in a 125-pound tangle. Both were weary at the final bell, PAL Frison, 130, Medford, PAL, was victor by a wide margin over Bill Ballard, Coos Bay. Frison's potent body punching slowed Ballard.

Coos Bay winners were Ron Black over Dana Pinney, 110, Medford, Gerald Fields, over Buddy Mitchell, 120, Medford, Dick Hahn over John Glogowski, 130, Medford, and Stan Kiefer over John L. Sullivan, 160, Medford. Sullivan was troubled by an injured right hand and a cold.

Fred Spiegelberg and Don Cain alternated in referee and judge roles and Cliff Lacy was a judge. Paul Haviland was master of ceremonies and Ken Lyons was timekeeper. Ben Fagone was on hand to provide the count in case of knockdowns.

Jim Zack, PAL club coach, reported that the club plans a card again in April. He said the bouts would take place about five weeks from now.

Mails' Talk Set Tonight

A famed baseball personality makes his first appearance of a current trip into southern Oregon tonight when he attends an open house at the Crater High school auditorium at Central Point.

The baseballer is John (Walter the Great) Mails whose pro playing career, both major and minor leagues spanned 1914 to 1938. Mails is now head of the speakers' bureau of the San Francisco Giants of the National league.

He will speak at Crater high at 8 p.m. Hosts for the open house are William Askwith and Donald E. Faber. The event is in the interests of American Legion junior baseball and baseball in general.

Mails will address Medford Rotary club at noon on Tuesday and Medford Kiwanis club at the same hour on Wednesday. Both service clubs meet at Rogue Valley Country club.

The baseball great, who pitched the Cleveland Indians to the World Series in 1920, also is to make radio appearances and may be on television.

Ducks Beat Beaver Five

Corvallis - (UPI) - Oregon's Ducks rallied in the second half Saturday night to wrap up a four-game sweep this season over Oregon State.

The Ducks, accomplishing a hoop shutout over the Beavers for the first time in 17 years, shot 62 per cent from the field on 13 of 21 in the second half for a 63-57 victory.

Leon Hayes led Oregon. He scored 18 points to top his team's scoring. Glenn Moore and Bill Simmons had 13 and 12 points, respectively.

Jay Carty was top scorer for Oregon State with 19. Oregon finished its regular season with a 15-11 record, the Beavers 14-12.

Corvallis - (UPI) - Big Mel Counts scored 31 points to give the Oregon State Rooks a 72-62 victory over the Oregon Frosh Saturday night. The Rooks won 3 out of 5 from the Frosh this season.

Patterson, Johansson Contend This Evening in Rubber Match

FLOYD PATTERSON Defends Title Tonight

Miami Beach - (UPI) - Here's the tale-of-the-tape for Monday night's Floyd Patterson-Ingemar Johansson heavyweight title fight:

Patterson 26 yrs. Age 192 lbs. Weight 6 ft. 6 in. Height 71 in. Reach 71 in. Neck 17 in. Chest normal 43 in. Chest expanded 45 in. Waist 34 in. Biceps 18 1/2 in. Forearm 13 in. Wrist 7 in. Thigh 24 in. Calf 16 in. Ankle 10 in.

Johansson 28 yrs. Age 200 lbs. Weight 6 ft. 5 in. Height 72 1/2 in. Reach 72 1/2 in. Neck 17 in. Chest normal 43 in. Chest expanded 45 in. Waist 34 in. Biceps 18 1/2 in. Forearm 13 in. Wrist 7 in. Thigh 24 in. Calf 16 in. Ankle 10 in.

By JACK CUDDY
Miami Beach - (UPI) - Champion Floyd Patterson and Swedish Ingemar Johansson were officially notified today that the gate had passed the all-important $400,000 mark for their third and decisive heavyweight title fight tonight at the Miami Beach Convention hall.

Both boxers expressed relief that sportsman Bill MacDonald of Miami Beach would not lose money on his $400,000 guarantee for the scheduled 15-round fight, and officials of Feature Sports, Inc., sending a telegram to MacDonald, releasing him from the guarantee.

A crowd of 13,000 is expected when 26-year-old Patterson of Rockville Centre, N.Y., and 28-year-old Johansson of Sweden and Switzerland square off with the six-ounce gloves at 10:30 p.m. (est).

Left-hooker Patterson, first man to recapture the heavy crown, is favored at 18-5 to beat Ingo, the explosive right-handed puncher - as he did in their second fight last June 20. Floyd's left hooks floored big, brown-haired Ingo twice in the fifth round for a knock-out that night.

Swede Confident
Johansson, who knocked out Patterson in the third round of their first fight in 1959, told friends today he hoped his unprecedentedly stiff training this time had geared him to stiffen Floyd again and make himself the second man to win back the title.

Although tonight's international "rubber match" is scheduled for 15 rounds, the betting is at "even money" that it doesn't last more than six rounds, regardless of the winner. And it's 8-1 that it doesn't go the full 15 sessions. However, should it unexpectedly last its scheduled distance, the betting is 25-1 that Johansson doesn't win the decision.

When tonight's match was first made for the 15,922-seat arena, officials of Feature Sports aimed at a sellout of $1,000,000 - with tickets priced at $100, $50 and $20. But now it appears unlikely that the gate will reach $500,000.

However, the bout still may be the richest fight in history because of the booming sales at theater-TV locations in the United States and Canada, as well as the large guarantees paid for radio, movies and foreign kinescopes.

Expect Record Gate
Irving B. Kahn, president of Teleprompter - which bought the right to theater-TV, radio, movies, etc. - announced that the total receipts from those "ancillaries" promise an unprecedented gross of $4 million.

Medford's Craterian theater reported that it was sold out as of Saturday afternoon for its closed circuit television showing this evening of the Floyd Patterson-Ingemar Johansson heavyweight title bout. The bout will start at 7:30 p.m. Doors at the theater open at 6:30 p.m.

Johansson, who floored Floyd seven times in the third round for a technical knock-out in their first fight, will be free to defend against any challenger he chooses if he takes the title from Patterson tonight. There's no return-bout contract.

Thanks to the possible $4 million in gross ancillary receipts, plus the "live" gate, the purses of Floyd and Ingo may approach the million-dollar mark this time.

Each gets 25 per cent of the net live gate, and Feature Sports receives 50 per cent. However, Patterson's cut of the promotion's ancillary receipts is 50 per cent; Johansson's, 35. Feature Sports gets 15. In addition, Johansson has the entire Scandinavian rights to radio and film.

New York - (UPI) - Fred Taylor of Ohio State, whose Buckeyes were a special target for every one of their opponents this season, has been named the college basketball "Coach of the Year" for 1981 by United Press International.

HUGE NEW TIRE PLANT MAKES POSSIBLE THE GENERAL

the first premium-quality General Tire in the low-price field!

In General Tire's 40 years experience in building premium tires, none has been so phenomenally successful as the Dual 90—built with Nygen Cord, twin treads and Odessa rubber.

With our available production facilities, we have never been able to meet the tremendous demand for this remarkable tire.

Retaining the basic advantages of The Dual 90—long mileage and extra safe performance—and bringing them to the low-price field became our great objective.

This required building a huge, ultra-modern tire plant. After nearly two years of planning and construction, this is now a reality.

Our tremendously expanded production facilities are being devoted to producing the new General Jet-Air, with Nygen Cord and the extra-safe, long mileage two-tread design proved so successful in the Dual 90—America's most wanted top-quality premium tire.

OUR BEST WAY-OF-LIFE INSURANCE

The men of the Army and Air National Guard work as citizens and train as military men to protect our way of life. More than 472,000 strong, they stand at our first line of defense. On a minute's notice, runway alert units are activated... air defense units manning Nike-Ajax bases swing into action... 27 combat divisions prepare for mobilization. But the Guard's protection does not end with its battle function. In peacetime, it is just as ready to cope with disaster... and just as admirably efficient. Today, the citizen-soldiers of the National Guard are better trained than ever before in the 300-year history of the Guard. They are, in every sense, our Up-to-the-Minute Men, ever ready to serve, and to serve well, our nation's interest.
