Grange Notes

Shady Cove Grange
The Shady Cove Grange met in the Shady Cove school gym with Master Cecil Kee presiding.

The agricultural report was on the new type of tomato, and also on a new type of strawberry plant.

The following committee chairmen are to have full reports on May 6: Ed Houston, fire hall; Mary Cassel, White City; T. M. Littlefield, school; Jenny Linden, disaster; Gloria Bergren, mental hospital; Viola Houston, city beautification.

HEC chairman, Mrs. A. B. Clark, stated the February HEC meeting was at the Charles Wells home on Crater Lake highway. There was one knitting class at the Cecil Kee home. Another is planned, but no date was set.

The lecturer's program was honoring the chaplain's office. Lecturer Edgar Vanderlip gave several readings and Chaplain Mary Cassel had a tableau for her part.

Guests were Master and Mrs. Ben Fulton and Mrs. Edmonson of Butte Falls Grange. Mrs. Cecil Kee and Mrs. T. M. Littlefield were ushered to the Masters station where Master Kee presented each with their National awards.

Mrs. Kee presented her's for her work as secretary and Mrs. Littlefield's was for her duties as lecturer.

Refreshments were served by Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Clark and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Cross.

Upper Applegate Grange
Upper Applegate Grange held visitation night with 75 visitors from other Granges, and 54 local members, for a total of 129, recently.

The following masters and county deputy were escorted to the Masters station: Ben Fulton, Butte Falls; Alva Walker, Gold Hill; Robert Bitterling, Eagle Point; and also Pomona Master; Lloyd Lacy, Phoenix; Charles Morehouse, Central Point; Jack Bierma, Griffin Creek; Cecil Kee, Shady Cove; and Roscoe Roberts, county deputy.

Leroy Offenbacher explained the forming and operating of the Rogue Valley Livestock association. The finance committee chairman reported that an audit had been made of the treasurer's books.

Lecture hour consisted of a reading by John Byrne on Luther Burbank; a banjo duet by Floren West of Upper Applegate Grange, and M. Gloscock of Phoenix Grange. George Redhead told a story about a widow stuck in the mud; and a skit, "A Day in Dogpatch," was presented.

Deputy Roberts closed the Grange, after which refreshments were served by the home economics committee.

Williams Grange
Williams Grange was host to the Phoenix first and second degree team, conducted by Master D. Hendrickson, Central Point.

The ceremony was opened by Master W. W. Claypool, Williams, with 107 members and guests present.

There were 14 candidates to receive first and second degrees. Those entering the Central Point Grange taking the degree were Mr. and Mrs. Walter Ricks and Miss Marilyn Watson; Provolt Grange candidates were Miss Ginger Stone, Miss Kay Reeder and Miss Carol Reeder, and from Williams Grange, Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Burks, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Dawson, Gregg Dawson, Mr. and Mrs. Dow H. Leeper and Denny Hyde.

State lecturer Victor Croxton was introduced as a guest.

Guests present were Pomona Master of Jackson county and master of Eagle Point Grange, R. B. Bitterling, and Masters Charles Morehouse, Central Point; Lloyd Lacy, Phoenix; and Henry Britt, Sunny Valley.

The Sunny Valley youth group attended to observe degree work because of their interest in forming a team. It will be the first youth degree team in Josephine county when organized.

Higher Education Approves Bond Issues

Eugene — UPD — Bond issues totaling $7.3 million to finance campus building projects were approved by the State Board of High Education Tuesday.

The issues require no tax money.

They include a new dormitory at Oregon State college; two dorms, married student housing and an addition to the Student Union building at Oregon; a dorm addition and married student housing at Eastern Oregon, and dorms at OCE and Southern Oregon.

ELECTRA MAKERS SUE

Chicago — UPD — Northwest Airlines has filed a $2.5 million suit against the manufacturers of an Electra airliner which disintegrated in the sky near Tell City, Ind., and plunged 65 persons to their deaths.
