Giants Defeat Chicago 10-9

Phoenix, Ariz.—UPI—The Boston Red Sox checked in today for another exhibition with the San Francisco Giants and manager Alvin Dark had good reason to hope that the Boston hurlers were as generous as the Cubs.

Thanks to a balk by Cub rookie Dick Burwell with the bases loaded in the ninth inning Wednesday, the Giants defeated Chicago 10-9 in another one of those free swinging contests.

Willie McCovey, who homered and smashed a double, was on third base when Burwell halted his motion while facing Charlie Hiller.

PICKS COLORS Minneapolis-St. Paul—Purple and white were chosen today as official colors of the Minnesota Vikings, and general manager Bert Rose said uniforms will carry those colors with gold trim. Rose said the exact uniform has not yet been selected.

McArthur Court, University of Oregon, Eugene—Medford High school's Black Tornado, bearing proudly and awesomely the standard of defending champion, moved into the quarterfinals of the Oregon Class A-1 prep basketball tournament by whirlwind to the most decisive triumph of the opening round.

One of the most impressive teams to take the floor as 16 aggregations from eight districts debuted in this 43rd annual sports classic, the rip-roaring Tornado from the Rogue Valley swamped the Tillamook Cheesemakers 65 to 32 here Wednesday afternoon.

Tillamook jolted the Big Wind with the game's opening thunder but Medford flared up in stern retaliation before the first quarter was far gone and romped into complete charge with a 22-point second session. A solid and blazing team effort got the victory job done but it was big 6-4 Bob Quinney, an all-state selection, sparking the way. He scored 27 points, picked off 19 rebounds, helped set up his mates for scores and time and again broke with the ball from the melee under the hoop to assure that Medford would retain possession.

Rebounding Support

Quinney had strong rebounding support from Stan Dowson, Steve Hoots and Dick Ragsdale. Jim Barry and Ragsdale, also Dowson, were Cheesemaker annihilators with their ballhawking and steals and Bruce Bray gave the Hurricane some rugged strength.

The verdict sends Coach Frank Rolland's Medfords against South Salem at 7:30 o'clock tonight in the quarterfinal round. Tillamook met Bend this morning in the consolation bracket. A fast, quick South Salem quint, with the sharpest shooting effort of the tourney's first round, overcame Bend's Lava Bears 68 to 57 in the fray that followed Medford-Tillamook contention.

Hoots Scores

Tillamook's jolt was a full-court press which enabled the Cheesemakers to grab with surprising suddenness a 6 to 0 jump on Medford. Leon Thompson put in two gift tosses for the 'Mooks when the scrape was 10 seconds old. Wayne Hill goaled off a swipe from the press and this defense gave Tillamook the ball for another bucket that Alex Jeffers hooked through.

NAMES TOURNEY ENTRIES

South Salem's 518 paced team field shooting. La Grande hit .500 in a losing cause to the .385 gunning of Corvallis. Bend fired .407 and Seapooose .392.

Medford headed team rebounding with a bulging 79 retrievers. Wilson collected 64, Roseburg 52 and Grant 51.

along, Hoots put in a jumper from the side for Medford. Quinney added two free tosses. Mark Sather dunked a rebounder for the coast club and the count was 8 to 4. Then Quinney's jumper from the circle was countered on Hoots' fast break shot off a swipe. Hoots plunked a Tornado rebound and Quinney swished a pusher from the baseline to knot the score at 10-all with 3:20 left in the quarter.

Dowson's push from the side on Ragsdale's assist and another Dowson bucket from a Quinney feed took the count to 14 to 10. Medford, Thompson hit from the corner and Hoots got a tip-in for 14 each with 30 seconds left. Ragsdale's free cast made it 15 to 14. Medford, at the quarter.

Medford's fast running gang streaked away like lightning in the second panel and coach Tony Doohier's Cheesemakers were not again in contention. Quinney led off the period with a jumper and a rebound basket. Barry, a pesky thorn in Tillamook's side, stole the ball twice at this stage and drove for layups. Ragsdale tallied off a fast break he, himself, had started by retrieving a loose ball. Medford headed 25 to 14.

Three More
Quinney got three more field buckets and two free shots in the quarter. Barry sank his own rebound and Scott Eaton drove the base for a goal as Medford ran to a 37 to 19 halfway margin. Thompson on a fader and Sather on a rebound hit from the field and Sather collected a free toss in a meager five-point quarter for the District 4 champions.

The Tornados from District 6 continued in charge to extend to 54 to 26 by the third intermission. Although scoring pace slowed in the early fourth stanza, Medford stretched to a 34 point difference of 64 to 30 for its widest gap.
