

Lebanon Airman Injured by Bullet

Great Falls, Mont. —(UPI)—The accidental discharge of a service pistol killed an air policeman at Malmstrom Air Force Base Tuesday and critically injured an Oregon airman.

Airman 1-C Wadsworth Jones, 25, Evanston, Ill., a member of the 4642nd support squadron at the air base, died instantly when the .45 caliber slug struck him. Airman 3-C James D. Rimer, about 24, of Lebanon, Ore., a weather observer assigned to the 29th air division at Malmstrom, was critically injured by the same bullet.

Base officials said Jones was showing Rimer his pistol when it discharged, passing through Jones' body and striking Rimer.

U. S. Helpless To Protect Citizens

Washington—(UPI)—The United States is helpless to guarantee protection to Americans who refuse to leave the Congo as long as it backs the United Nations effort to prevent military intervention in the country.

This is the dilemma the State Department faced today following growing reports of brutalization of U.S. citizens by Congo troops.

The State Department said it has been taking "all possible measures" to protect Americans, primarily missionaries, in the country.

But it appeared this country could do little but appeal to its citizens to leave the Congo—which it has already done—and urge the United Nations to protect those who insist on remaining. It is also trying to help those who want to leave but are having difficulty getting out.

Ike Fishing at Mexican Resort

La Paz, Baja California, Mexico—(UPI)—Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower is fishing to his heart's delight in this secluded sports-fishing resort.

Eisenhower and his party, who arrived here Saturday, had lunch Tuesday with Baja California Gov. Bonifacio Salinas Leal and then got in some more fishing from a chartered boat inside the bay of La Paz.

Like his golfing scores, the former president's catch was not being made public.

But at this resort 900 miles from the U.S. border a fisherman has no trouble generally hooking a limitless number of shipjack, yellowtail, pompano or needlerfish.
