

Ceremony In California Weds Couple

La Petite Auberge, a French restaurant in San Rafael, Calif., was the scene of the wedding Tuesday, March 14, of Mrs. Julia Tummers, Central Point, to Patrick Dailey, San Rafael. The Rev. Samuel Wright Jr. of the Unitarian church performed the ceremony at three o'clock in the afternoon before about 35 guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Roland Pacey, Novato, Calif., son and daughter-in-law of the bride, attended the couple. Mrs. C. M. Lizberg, Medford, gave the bride in marriage.

The bride wore a gown of hyacinth lace and silk organza which was styled with a fitted bodice, short sleeves and scoop neckline. The full gathered skirt had a crushed sash which formed a back panel over the skirt. Her hat of silk organza petals in tones of hyacinth held a short veil and she wore an orchid corsage.

A reception, at which wedding cake and champagne were served, followed and the couple traveled to the Bay area and Portland on their honeymoon.

The bridegroom is vice-president and business agent for the culinary union of Marin county, California. Mrs. Tummers is owner of Mon Desir inn, Central Point, and the couple will be at home there after Monday.
