had laid four eggs in a nest between the railroad tracks. The goose hissed angrily at the train as it approached the nest. (UPI Telephoto)

Grange News

Central Point Grange

At the Central Point Grange meeting recently, Delmar Smith, reporting on agriculture, said the outlook for agriculture is better for the coming year.

The legislative chairman discussed state tax bill 1540 and the O and C funds. Henry Conger, Fred Kuest and Benton Boyce discussed taxes.

Mrs. Morris Frink, chairman of the HEC club, reported that the recent rummage and plant sale held at the Grange hall was a success. She thanked the Crater FFA boys for the clothes racks they made. The next HEC meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Frink on Linden lane, Wednesday, March 22, at 1:30 p.m.

Sales slips should be turned in to Mrs. Frink, Mr. and Mrs. Smith exhibited several varieties of daffodils. Smith told about care and growing habits of bulbs.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Ricks were given the third and fourth degree obligation by Dee Hendrickson. The Ricks received the two first degrees March 4, at Williams Grange, with the Phoenix Grange employing the degrees.

Lecturer Dee Hendrickson presented the literary program, which consisted of the following numbers: a reading "The Cremation of Dan McGee," by Charles Morehouse, a short skit including 10 members, and a game with all members participating.

HEC chairman Mrs. Frink

announced that a reliable baby sitter has been engaged for Grange meetings and urges that parents bring their children with them. The Youth committee has charge of the next program and are arranging for a 4-H boy to show pictures.

Dates for Grange visitations are March 28, Phoenix, April 4, Bellview Grange. An invitation to Butte Falls Grange meeting April 3 will feature a hat show, and there will be a small admission charge. All ladies attending are asked to bring cookies.

Serving committee for the evening included Mr. and Mrs. Walter Mang, Mr. and Mrs. William Straus, and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Foote.

Crown Zellerbach Receives Award

Coos Bay - (UPI) - The Oregon Coast Sportsmen's Council has announced presentation of its 1960 award for outstanding contributions toward natural resource preservation to Crown Zellerbach Corp.

Robert McIlroy, council president, cited the firm's stream clearance and rehabilitation programs, cooperation with sportsmen in opening lands to hunting and fishing, and construction of campgrounds, boating facilities and picnic areas for public use.

Seaside Spreads Carpet For Pushers of Lounge

Seaside - (UPI) - Eight adventurous University of Washington students were treated like royalty here Monday.

The reason for the kingly reception was that they arrived here Monday afternoon after pushing a wooden chaise longue all the way from Seattle.

They left Seattle at 2 a.m. Saturday and arrived here at 3 p.m. Monday.

On hand to greet the adventurers were Seaside mayor Maurice Tysher, and 20 bathing beauties. They were presented a key to the city and wound up their three-day trip by carrying the lounge onto the beach and into the Pacific Ocean.

The trip was not all roses, however, as some culprit stole a four-post bed that they originally planned to push all the way here. The chaise longue was a last minute substitution.

The eight students are Greg La Brache, Rich Petit, Don Lysons, Bill Engel, Alan Tobst, Jim Corbin, Don Noble and Curt Pearson.

Mrs. Clark Gable Gets View of Son

Hollywood - (UPI) - Clark Gable's widow awoke briefly Monday night to inspect her new son and exclaimed: "He looks just like Pa!"

Mrs. Kay Gable, 43, who earlier in the day had given birth to the eight-pound boy, inspected him from her hospital bed while a nurse held the black-haired tot.

"His ears are of an average size," said a doctor. "Otherwise he has a definite resemblance to his father."

Mrs. Gable was expected to give the boy a name today.

Gable said before his death he did not want a son to be named Clark Gable Jr., fearing the famous name would be a handicap.

Youngster Killed As Bus Overturns

Waycross, Ga. - (UPI) - A child was killed and at least 20 other persons were injured early today when a Chicago to Miami Greyhound bus skidded on a rain-slick highway, slammed into an embankment and overturned.

The victim was identified as David Earl Engel, 4, Belle Glade, Fla. State police said the boy was thrown from the bus and crushed beneath the vehicle when it overturned.

Four ambulances rushed the injured from the crash scene, located on the edge of Oklawaha Swamp, to a hospital here. The first 10 who were x-rayed all were found to be suffering from back injuries. Shome had broken bones but none of the injured were considered to be in critical condition.

Rosellini Signs Bill For Megler Bridge

Olympia - (UPI) - Gov. Albert D. Rosellini Monday signed a bill allowing the state to join with Oregon in construction of a bridge across the Columbia river between Megler, Wash., and Astoria, Ore.

A similar measure is now before the Oregon legislature.

Corps Use Urged For Tongue Point

Salem - (UPI) - Gov. Mark Hatfield Monday agreed with Sen. Wayne Morse (D-Ore.) that the Navy's station at Tongue Point could be used as a regional base for President Kennedy's "Peace Corps" proposal.

The governor has suggested a number of uses for the Astoria facility by the government, in the process of deactivating it.

Hatfield and Astoria residents have vigorously protested closure of Tongue Point.

Hatfield said Tongue Point has "good possibilities" for a

Peace Corps training center. But the "basic thing is to have it utilized."

Hatfield told his weekly news conference that he disapproves of Rep. George Annala's plan to reappropriate the Oregon legislature by increasing its membership to 92, adding one member to each house.

The governor prefers re-apportionment on the present constitutional basis of population, giving each county the number of seats it deserves.

The English walnut had its origin in Persia.

Oregon FFA Elects Halfway Youth

Salem - (UPI) - Oregon Future Farmers of America elected as their new president Donald Reed of Halfway.

The star farmer award went to Dwight "Eddie" Wacey of Culver.

Other new officers include: William Blatchford, Hillsboro, vice president; William Butner, Enterprise, secretary; Ernest Bolz, Phoenix, treasurer; Lyn Reanon, Vale, reporter; and Dwight Cummins of Monmouth, Sentinel.

Sales Increase

Washington - (UPI) - Durable goods manufacturers sales and new orders increased in February for the first time in months.

The Commerce Department has reported there was a 2 per cent rise in new orders, due largely to increased government defense spending. Sales rose 1 percent, the first increase since last May.
