

Anniversary Observed By Legion

In observance of the 42nd anniversary of founding of the American Legion, members of Medford post were honored at a birthday party given by the auxiliary March 18. A dinner was attended by about 150 persons.

Dr. Frank Haines, professor of history at Southern Oregon college, spoke about the past, present and future of veteran organizations.

Mrs. Everett Barlow, auxiliary president, welcomed the guests and extended congratulations to the post. Introduced were Mrs. Earl Bigalow, Medford, department president; Mrs. Dorothy Sutter, convention chairman; visiting unit presidents and past presidents of the Medford unit. Mrs. Barlow presented the post a birthday cake.

Post Commander Granville Brittan gave an address and Jennings Pierce was master of ceremonies for a program.

Miss Ruby McCullough, who won the annual Americanism essay contest sponsored by the auxiliary, read her essay on "What My Flag Means to Me." Mrs. H. L. Alford, Americanism chairman for the auxiliary, presented the student a medal and check. The essay has been entered in the state contest.

Dave Foote, student who represented Oregon at Boy's Nation, Washington, D.C., also spoke. The Charmer of McLaughlin Junior High school played several numbers.

Keegan Townsend spoke about the American Legion baseball team and the opportunities it provides young men of the community.

Mike Gier, accordionist, ended the program with several selections.

Women of Moose To Meet Tonight

Women of the Moose will meet tonight at 8 p.m. at the Moose hall, 11 South Newtown street. Refreshments will be served following the meeting with Mrs. Thomas Cox, Moosehaven chairman, in charge.

Dallas - The rag doll of Caroline, 3-year-old daughter of President and Mrs. John F. Kennedy, inspired the design of this cotton denim blouse to applique such a doll on the cropped top of the two-piece suit. The suit was modeled during the Dallas Fashion Manufacturers' annual spring show earlier this month. (UPI Telephoto)

"IS YOUR DOCTOR ABREAST OF SCIENCE?"

Dr. E. Vincent Askey, President of the American Medical Association, explains how doctors keep up with swift changes in medical weapons.

Read it in March 26th issue Family Weekly With The Medford Mail Tribune

Social Events ♦ Women's News

Five Delegates Attend Meeting; Program Given

Five delegates represented Jackson County Retired Teachers association at the convention of Oregon State Retired Teachers association held in Portland last week. The Retired Teachers' group is affiliated with Oregon Education association.

Delegates were Mrs. J. A. Bloomfield, president, Mrs. O. W. Ludwig, Mrs. G. A. Dineen, Mrs. J. S. Richardson and Mrs. Amos Willis.

These had been elected at the March meeting, held at Girls Community club. Devere Taylor, speech instructor at Senior High school, presented two students from his team who had won in a recent speech tournament at Linfield college. They were Miss Sandra Ganning and Miss Joan Johnson, who gave a humorous talk.

Walter Ayres played a violin solo, accompanied by Miss Shirley Hopkins, and Miss Susan Marrs played a flute solo, accompanied by Miss Pamela Gilkinson. Larry Brunette, teacher at McLaughlin Junior High school, sang a group of songs, one of which was his own composition. One of his pupils, Miss Christine Thorsen, also sang. Both were accompanied by Mrs. Alta Robinson.

Mrs. W. E. Holmes introduced the musicians.

Miss Annette Gray talked on "Boating."

Host and hostess were Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Jewett. The social committee was Mrs. H. S. Chirgwin, Mrs. C. S. Barrett, Mrs. Minnie B. Newton, Mrs. Mabel Hundley, Miss Mary Andrews and Mrs. W. E. Haskins. Mrs. Haskins and Mrs. Mary Norvell poured.

Family-Child Relationships Topic for PTA

Mrs. Ward T. Brookwell, Ashland, member of the advisory board of the Southern Oregon Child Guidance Clinic association, will speak for a meeting of Oak Grove Parent-Teacher association Thursday, March 23, in the school cafeteria. Her topic will be "Child and Parent Relations."

The meeting will begin at 2:30 p.m. Preceding this, parents are invited to visit the classrooms between 2 and 2:30 p.m. and coffee and dessert will be served in the cafeteria by mothers of children in the third grade.

Election of officers is scheduled. Baby sitting will be provided in Mrs. Gustafson's room for pre-schoolers and first and second grade students. Older children are asked to go home or remain on the playground.

Parents and friends of students in Oak Grove school are invited to attend the meeting.

March Birthdays To Be Observed

March birthdays will be observed at a meeting of Medford Fifty Plus club set for Friday, March 24, at 12:30 p.m. at St. Mark's Guild hall, Oakdale at Fifth street. Those attending are to take sack lunches; cake, coffee and tea, will be supplied.

Guests are welcome. Eighty-four members and guests attended a St. Patrick's day meeting last Friday. The program consisted of a chalk talk, readings, singing, games and dancing.

Mrs. H. F. Cope played the piano for community singing, and Mrs. Myrtle McCracken, Mrs. Edith Whillock and Mrs. Pearl Spackman furnished music for dancing.

Initiation, Sale Planned The auxiliary to Crater Lake aerie of the Fraternal Order of Eagles will meet at the Eagles hall Thursday, March 23, at 8 p.m.

Several candidates will be initiated and a white elephant sale will be held by Mrs. Jack Saterlee, ways and means chairman. Members are to take wrapped gifts for the sale.

Upper Rogue HEC Announces Event

McLeod - Coming events were planned at a meeting of Upper Rogue Grange Home Economics club held at Folding Hills, the home of Mrs. Ranaid Axtell. The club will hold a rummage sale at Upper Rogue Grange hall Thursday, March 23, and a work day was held March 20 in preparation.

Mrs. Oscar Hansen was Mrs. Axtell's co-hostess.

Before putting a shirt into a washing machine, button the cuffs to the shirt front. This will keep the sleeves from becoming entangled and overly mussed.

Mrs. Merle Morgan, Shady Cove, lyric soprano, will be one of the soloists for a concert to be given Sunday, March 26, at Medford High school by the Philharmonic Society of Southern Oregon. Principal work will be Hayden's "Seven Last Words of Christ." Mrs. Morgan is described as a vocalist who sings with much passion and feeling, and it is thought the audience Sunday will be pleased with her interpretation. This is the first time Mrs. Morgan, a newcomer to the valley, has been featured as a soloist with the Philharmonic. The concert will be held at the Medford High school auditorium at 3 p.m.

Chapter Hears Doctor Speak; Coffee Planned

Dr. John Watson was guest speaker at the last meeting of Delta Omega chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha, held at the home of Mrs. B. H. Gilbert.

The program was sponsored by the American Cancer society. Two films were shown to the group; after which Dr. Watson spoke on cancer and answered questions from the group.

Members of a sister chapter, Alpha Lambda, also of Medford, made a surprise visit.

Mrs. Robert Shangle, president, announced a donation of $352 was made by the chapter members to the Crippled Childrens Hospital school during the past year. Members have contributed 107 hours of sewing to the Rogue Valley Memorial Hospital auxiliary.

Medic-Alert is the most recent local philanthropic project. Epsilon Sigma Alpha will distribute information on Medic-Alert, a project to encourage local people to carry medical identification.

A coffee hour will be held Monday, March 27 in Grants Pass in honor of Mrs. E. Robert Palmer. Mrs. Palmer is the wife of the founder of Epsilon Sigma Alpha. Alpha Iota and Gamma Rho will act as hostesses for this event. Members of both Medford chapters plan to attend.

Mrs. Robert Larson was the guest of Mrs. John Uerlings and the Delta Omega chapter. Members of the visiting Alpha Lambda furnished the refreshments for the meeting.

Rebekahs Plan For Initiation

Yreka - Final plans for initiation, which will be held March 28, were made at the last meeting of the Hope Rebekah lodge, Yreka. Mrs. Clara Henderson, drill captain, announced practice March 23rd at 7 p.m.

Mrs. Ellen Wilson was elected to membership, and is one of four to be initiated. It was recommended that Mrs. G. Welsh of McCloud be chosen as district deputy president of District 69.

An invitation was received from Mrs. Joe Roberts, Etna, deputy president of District 27, to take part in a United Nations day program March 26th at 2 p.m. in Etna. It was decided to accept the invitation and local members will give a skit on Mexico.

Mrs. J. L. Byers became a member by transfer from Compton Rebekah lodge. It was decided to help the Theta Rho Girls send delegates to the assembly to be held in San Jose the last week of March.

Mrs. Nell Mertens, Rebekah assembly president, will visit here April 11. Mrs. Johnnie Hitchcock will be in charge of arrangements.

At the close of the business meeting members sang Irish songs and viewed a fashion show with Mrs. Hitchcock as narrator.

Return

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Michael, 475 Charlotte Anne road have returned home from Vancouver and Portland where they were guests of friends and relatives.

Valley Bethels Participate In Friendship Night

Members of six valley Bethels of the International Order of Job's Daughters visited Bethel 14 for its recent friendship night in the Medford Masonic temple.

The four queens escorted and introduced were Miss Jane Ward, Bethel 55, and Miss Linda Nash, Bethel 69, both Medford; Miss Judy Eberhart, Bethel 22, Ashland; Miss Joey Hume, Bethel 56, Shady Cove; Miss Sylvia Morris, past queen of Bethel 14, was honored. Princesses introduced were Miss Edith Larson, Bethel 56; Miss Peg Parsons, Bethel 22, Ashland; Miss Mary O'Neill and Miss Jacqueline Hall, of U.D. Bethel, Grants Pass.

Mrs. T. H. Denny, guardian, and John Miller, associate guardian, Grants Pass U. D. Bethel; Mrs. John Mills, guardian, and Edward Grimm, associate guardian, Bethel 22, Ashland, were honored. Also introduced were Mrs. C. D. Elhart, past grand guardian of Oregon and past guardian of Bethels 14 and 22, and Mrs. W. K. Sult, vice-grand guardian of Oregon. Miss Vicki Ingram, grand Bethel representative to New Mexico was escorted and introduced. Mrs. Roy Nordwick, worthy matron of Reames chapter, Order of Eastern Star, sponsors of Bethel 14, was introduced.

During the business session, announcement was made of grand session to be held in Portland June 22-24. A deadline of April 19 was set for the sale of Bethel cook books, following which a date will be set for the slumber party planned for those participating in the sales.

Queen Barbara Morton announced that the line officers would make tray favors for the Bethel to give the Masonic home in Forest Grove for use one week in May. Following the meeting, contests were held for visiting Bethels who pantomimed a commercial, winners being Bethel 22 first and Bethel 55 second.

The guardian council will meet tonight in the home of Mrs. Merlyn Harvey, 613 Newtown, at 7:30 o'clock.

Group To Help At Hobby Fair

At the last meeting of Roguette circle, Military Order of Lady Bugs, the group planned to help with the Hobby fair to be given at the Veterans' Domiciliary, White City, April 9. Hours will be from 12 noon to 5 p.m.

Lady Bugs will assist other organizations in serving refreshments. Guides will take visitors on tours of the domiciliary.

The recent meeting was preceded a potluck dinner, with members of Pup Tent 3, Military Order of Cooties, as guests.

March 8 the Lady Bugs served a smorgasbord for the Cooties in honor of Mark Davis, Portland, a past grand seam squirrel of the order. Mr. Davis is also department senior vice-commander of the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

Chapter Plans Party Saturday

Mrs. O. A. Eden, sponsor and honorary member of Alpha Beta chapter, Beta Sigma Phi, was hostess at the last meeting. She was assisted by Mrs. Richard Card and Mrs. Richard Frey.

The cultural program, "The Collector," was given by Mrs. Floyd Eastwood.

The social committee announced a "Teen Party" has been planned for Saturday, March 25, at 9 p.m. at the Floyd Eastwood home, 940 Shafer Lane.

A special meeting to wrap cancer bandages was held last night at the home of Mrs. Eastwood.

Piano Pupils Present Recital

A piano recital by pupils of Mrs. Margaret Taylor was given March 10 at the Taylor home, 1011 Winchester avenue.

Pupils participating were Janice Lampkin, Diana Vincent, Martha Johnston, Jean Montgomery, Linda Mattson and Julie Marrs.

Refreshments were served to parents and friends.

Calendar

Calendar notices and news for the society section of The Mail Tribune must be submitted in writing and deadline for the Sunday edition is 1 p.m. Friday. Deadline for the weekly calendar is 9 a.m. of the day of publication and for week day news is 5 p.m. the day before publication.

Wednesday: 6:30 p.m.-Ladies Auxiliary Patriarch's Militant, IOOF hall.

8 p.m.-Human Rights Council, Youth chapel, First Presbyterian church.

8:45 p.m. - Toastmistress, 216 West Main st.

Thursday: 10:30 a.m.-Lone Pine Home Extension unit, Roxy Ann Grange hall.

12:30 p.m.-Sojourners club, Girls Community club.

1 p.m. - Wenonah club, Wenonaka council, Degree of Pechontas, home of Mrs. Carrie Milnes, Narraegan st.

1:30 p.m. - Sams Valley Ladies club, home of Mrs. Walter Miller, Table Rock rd.

Ashland Woman Club Speaker; Sale Announced

Jacksonville - Jacksonville Garden club has made final plans for holding a spring plant and rummage sale Saturday, March 25 at the community club house. According to the plant show chairman, Mrs. Dee Hendricks, members are requested to bring all plants and clothing for sale to the destination by 8 a.m., in order for the doors to be open to the public at nine o'clock.

At the regular monthly meeting held last Thursday Mrs. Shirley Asher, Siskiyou district conservation chairman, Ashland, was the guest speaker for the afternoon meeting. Her talk on the Ashland burn and what the United States Forest Service had done to preserve the water sheds for Ashland were given for Ranger Thomas who was unable to attend. She stated over 200 trees had been replanted as well as grasses planted for erosion control.

For the continuity program, Mrs. Mary Goddard talked on floribunda and polyanthe roses. Mrs. Leonard McKee, horticulture chairman, introduced two new shrubs, the abeliophyllum distichum or white forsythia, also the cistus battandieri from the broom family.

A new member, Mrs. R. G. Williams was taken into the club. Guests were Mrs. W. H. Walwyn and Mrs. Minnie Bloom. The prize of the month was awarded to Mrs. Fred Edens.

Tentative plans were made to attend the Siskiyou district spring meeting at Shady Cove on April 21. Everet Ravenor spoke to the members about the conditions at the historical cemetery at Jacksonville and told them how they could help.

The tea table was arranged by the hostesses, Mrs. Lee Wright and Mrs. Harold Reed, with the St. Patrick's day motif and centered with an arrangement of daffodils. Mrs. Edens and Mrs. Hendricks poured.

Poster Contest Winners Named Ashland - Winners of the annual Library Week poster contest in Ashland were guests at the Friday luncheon meeting of Soroptimist club. Presented by Miss Cora Mason, city librarian and club member, were Claudia Everett, high school winner, and Charles Conley and Yvonne Ballie, SOC winners. Conley's poster was awarded the $10 first prize. Also introduced was the poster contest chairman, Mrs. Thornton Shively.

Mrs. Alta Nichols will tell fellow-members the problems and techniques of bee culture and honey marketing at the March 24 luncheon meeting in the Mark Antony hotel. The attendance contest will close at the end of this month with losers inviting the winning team to a party.

Natural History Group To Meet The Rev. Thomas McCaman will speak on birds at a meeting of the Rogue Valley Natural History club Thursday, March 23. It is set for 7:30 p.m. in the meeting room of the Public Library of Medford and Jackson county.

Jacksonville Chapter Holds Friendship Night, Reception

Jacksonville - Adarel chapter, Order of Eastern Star, held a friendship night meeting and reception for Donald C. Shores, member of the endowment fund committee of the grand chapter of Oregon, on March 16.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred M. Gardner, worthy patron and matron, presided at the meeting which was attended by 170 members and visitors.

Distinguished and honored members escorted and introduced were Morris Boughner, Medford, worthy grand patron; Mrs. Lorena McNair, Ashland, past grand matron and Estarl awards committee member; Miss Carlotta K. Wiseman, Grants Pass, past grand matron; Mrs. Florence Jaeger, Condon, Ore.; grand conductor; Mrs. John Wright, Myrtle Creek, associate grand conductress; Mrs. Beatrice Paxton, Lakeview, Ore.; grand warder; Mrs. Boughner, grand electa; Donald Shores, Willard Craig, Corvallis, endowment fund, Mrs. Virginia Zumbun, Mrs. Jack Doud, Myrtle Creek, Estarl; Mrs. Margaret Logan, Portland, budget committee; Mrs. Nell Hershberger, Grants Pass, grand representative to Colorado; Mrs. Edna Hunnicutt, Ft. Klamath, Ore., representative to Washington; Mrs. Margaret Harris, Arlington, Ore., representative to Florida.

Worthy matrons and patrons present were Mr. and Mrs. Paul Snook, Nevita chapter, Central Point; Mr. and Mrs. Louis Kalina, Prosperity chapter, Malin; Mr. and Mrs. Ted Roadman, Oakland, Ore.; Mrs. Mary Thompson and Fred Beerlie, Glendale, Ore.; Mrs. Mildred Roubush and E. K. Miller, Josephine chapter, Grants Pass; Mrs. Roy Nordwick and E. G. Randolph, Reames, Medford; Mrs. Lorene McCollum and Dale Howell, Manzanita, Klamath Falls; Mrs. Goldia Robinson, Oriental chapter, Lakeview, and Dick Trites, Alpha, Ashland.

Miss Edna Daugherty presented two piano selections, and Mrs. Johnny Arrington sang. Mrs. McNair gave a short talk on "Friendship". Mrs. Shores was presented a gift from the chapter by his wife. The worthy matron presented him a sketch of the Masonic-Eastern Star home drawn by Mrs. Fred H. Gardner and a "best wishes" card signed by 39 staff members and 84 of the elderly guests at the Masonic and Eastern Star home.

The hall was decorated with baskets of yellow and white daisies, a large emblematic star, and many painted and large paper daisies adorned the walls. Refreshments were served.

Preceding the meeting 90 members and guests participated in a potluck dinner. The dining room tables were decorated with arrangements of yellow daffodils. Chairmen of the refreshment and dinner

Service Director Attends Session

Ashland - Miss Seraphine Scanlon, assistant professor of home economics and director of dining service at Southern Oregon college, attended the annual conference of the College Food Service Association, March 9, 10, and 11 in Santa Barbara, Calif.

The aim of this organization is to promote the development of membership and to maintain and promote high standards in college food service and provide a medium of exchange for information pertinent to all phases of college food services.

The membership of the association includes colleges and universities of five Western states and is affiliated with the National College and University Food Service association.

committee were Mr. and Mrs. George Redhead with Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Smith, Ira Luman and Mrs. Minnie Offenbacher assisting. Mrs. Harris Olson had charge of the guest book.

Past Chiefs' Night Planned for Friday

Weatonka council, Degree of Pechontas, will observe past chiefs' night Friday, March 24, at 8 p.m. in Redman hall, Apple street.

Mrs. Gladys Rammin as Pocahontas; Mrs. Carl Ludwig, Wenonah; Mrs. Bessie Johnson, prophetess and Henry Doms, Powhatan, will preside.

A card party will close the evening's program and refreshments will be served.

Advertisement for Swem's Easter Cards. Includes a picture of a watch and text: "New Self-Winding Movado Calendscope registers the date, hour, minute and second with automatic dependability. Calendscope - self-winding, water resistant. 14K Gold $200, 14K Steel & 14K Gold $140, 14K Gold filled $120, Stainless Steel $115. Fed. Tax Incl. Swem's Jewelers Medford, Oregon." Includes a small logo for Swem's Jewelers.

Large advertisement for Burelson's Kimberly Knits. Features a large illustration of a woman in a dark, textured knit dress. Text includes: "Burelson's Downtown Medford", "anywhere... everywhere...", "KIMBERLY KNITS", "Choice possession... a Kimberly knit. Collect a closefit to wear and wear everywhere for a full four seasons and longer.", "(Above) Mohair dress with knit tie. $59.95", "(Right) The great chic that is Kimberly is expressed here in this three-piece costume featuring the new knitted-in floral pattern. In sand beige. $65.00", "Kimberly Knits From Sizes 8 to 18", "Park Shop", "Your Charge Account Invited!", "FOR YOUR 'HAIR FASHIONS' CALL SPing 2-5252", "Main and Bartlett Streets", "Phone SP 2-6428".

Advertisement for Crosier Appliance. Text: "WE HAVE MOVED.. To A Larger Store SEE CROSIER APPLIANCE for the FINEST... MOST SERVICE-FREE Appliances Available -NEW Address- 414 EAST MAIN STREET (Next to Esquire Theatre) Phone SP 2-6011"