NATIONAL LEAGUE
United Press International
The Toronto Maple Leafs held a 1-0 lead in their best-of-seven Stanley Cup semifinal series with the Detroit Red Wings today after George (Punch) Imlach was back to his crystal ball gazing.

Imlach, accused of using witchcraft because of his success with the once-lowly Maple Leafs, hesitated Wednesday night before using captain George Armstrong in the series opener at Toronto which the Leafs won, 3-2, in two periods of overtime.

Armstrong, out of action since March 1, returned to the playoff wars and scored the winning goal.

WESTERN LEAGUE
United Press International
Front-running Calgary increased its Western Hockey league lead to eight points Wednesday night with a 4-3 overtime victory over Edmonton.

Among those slated to contend this time are Boots Porterfield, Grants Pass, who was third in 1960 and Glen Spivey, Glendover, Portland, who took fourth.

There is no list available here of amateurs who will be accompanying the pros.

John Hagey, Eastmoreland, Portland, had amateur low gross for the three days last spring. DeToss Kinkade, Cottage Grove, took that honor in 1959.

At least three out-of-state pros are in the field. They include Harry Clow, Royal Oaks, Vancouver, Wash.; George Titchwell, Redwood Empire club, Fortuna, Calif.; and Jack Travis, Red Bluff, Calif.

The BOWLERS ALLEY

By DARLENE AND BILL TOPE

Riley Applegate has been elected president of Medford Bowling association. Vice presidents for the new year are Bill Blunt, Don Davis, Jack Gardner and Bill Luman. Gene Piazza was picked as state representative and Vern Allen, Arn Bauman, Troy Dean and Clayton Lewis. Paul Dimick was retained as secretary.

Only 60 votes were cast in the election at Roxy Ann lanes. The total represented only 20 per cent of the eligible voters of the association. The votes elected a slate that can and will work hard to make the MBA an organization to be proud of.

JACKPOT BOWLING

Jim Owsley and Charles

GETS "LIFETIME" PACT

Chicago - (UPI) - Ernie Banks' off-season activity was put under a "lifetime contract" as the Chicago home run king signed today to manage the "Ernie Banks Bowling and Recreation Building" here. The $2 million, 40-lane bowling alley will become Banks' everyday job upon its opening scheduled for Oct. 1.

McWhorter teamed up to break the bank in the Jackpot Bowling at Roxy Ann lanes. Minimum pin fall of 1391 was necessary to win.
